FOREWORD

Hello FUBARians, you are about to enter a new dimension. A dimension not only of sight and sound, but of mind. Ok, it's a dimension of my mind, so maybe it should say "out of mind" but in any event, this will be a good ride.

In 1989, I began my college life at Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University. It was also this first year that I founded the FUBAR's Softball Team. The FUBAR's would go on to play under my leadership or direct involvement for eight seasons. During the period of time between 1989 and 1997, the FUBAR's would win a total of three league championships, one homecoming tournament and maintain a better than 85% win percentage throughout. In addition, some (yours truly included) of the FUBAR's would go on to play in the co-ed league and win an additional three championships. The entire exercise proving that the will and drive to win was very prominent in the FUBAR organization.

Throughout the entire period that the FUBAR's played at Embry-Riddle (at least while I was in town – can't account for what happened after June 1997!?...) one staple of the FUBAR weekly diet was the FUBAR News Corporation Newsletter. The earlier newsletters were written as a way to let the gang know when a game or practice was held, who was playing, etc. After the first year of just your basic info and a few attempts at a pseudo-journalistic point of view, the newsletter took on a new form of life. This new form would constantly attempt to motivate, harass and of course inform the players of the operations of the FUBAR News Corporation and all it's members and divisions (be they fictitious or not!). Eventually becoming the normal Modus Operandi for the newsletter, this weekly publication was that which helped to bring life to the figurative FUBAR dynasty/empire that everyone came to know and love (at least that's what I hope it was doing? Or I was just rambling on for nothing then...)

In any case, the newsletter was always a way for me to keep the team informed but more importantly, and as I just stated, to keep everyone motivated and entertained (although some I'm sure found issues more annoying than entertaining, my motive was always of a purely positive manner.) The FUBAR news would be the one element though of the FUBAR's that would always essentially be mine. The team would see five captains over it's eight year period and of course some of the newsletters were written by them, I would however, always seem to find a way back to the writers chair commanding the reigns. The newsletter always seemed to find it's way back to me and I of course always welcomed it with open arms. The newsletter was my way of keeping in touch with everyone even including friends and former players in the subscription list throughout the years.

The FUBAR's have always been a very integral and endearing part of my college and post college life and it represents me (for lack of a better explanation). The years I created and ran and eventually just played on the FUBAR's softball team demonstrates some of the biggest changes and periods of growth in my life and it's also where I formed almost all of the lasting friendships I have to this day. (This is exhibited by the FUBAR's who attending my wedding and vice versa and of course the friends I choose to remain in contact with daily, weekly and yearly still.)

So, what's with this compilation then? Well, it dawned on me that after eight years of the FUBAR softball newsletters of course the couple years in England where I liked to keep the gang "together," I wrote a lot of crap! (No snide remarks please) So, I figured that if I put all the newsletters together I think it would be a pretty impressive stack of papers? So, to test my theory, I did just that!

So, Here in its entirety is the complete compilation of FUBAR News Corporation newsletters beginning with the 1989 season and ending with the Wedding letters from England. It also includes some never before seen text, graphics and, for some, newsletters I'm sure!

This book is broken up into "chapters" and it contains an appendix which has some of the "BONUS Material" So, as I always say, go grab a BEvERage, your favorite chair and immerse yourself back into the world of the FUBAR's. What a long strange road it's been and I thank you all for riding along with me during some, most, or all of it.

Your always faithful, not always truthful but still loyal comrade,

Dave Moeder CEO/Founder FUBARS est. '89

FOREWORD - UPDATE

So it dawned on me just a couple years ago that the FUBAR's are fast approaching their 20 year anniversary! It only seems like yesterday that yours truly was a freshman in 1989 and gearing up a group of player's to start softball in spring of 1990!

Anyway, about 9 years ago, I sent "some" of you a collection of the FUBAR newsletters entitled: The FUBARCHIVES: A collection of fine journalism. I was pleased with the result (and the comments from former players) however; I had one thing nagging me about it? - It wasn't enough...

You see, the original concept was to give you guys the entire history of the FUBAR's but, then, economic and logistical issues prevented me from doing that. Now however, thanks to advances in digital technology and the blood, sweat & tears (and about $150 bucks) of so many I can finally give you what you truly (and respectfully) deserve — The FUBARCHIVES REDUX: A collection of fine journalism.

Speaking with a friend of mine ("Dennis" - who is in no way affiliated with the FUBAR's other than he frequents the www.FUBARHQ.com website and hangs with the CEO from time to time) mentioned that if I wanted, he would be "happy" to scan my FUBAR documents for archiving. That's when, after my fourth cup of coffee, I came up with this — The FUBARCHIVES REDUX idea.

So, what you have here is "the" ultimate FUBAR historical document - A digitized version of, just about, every piece of paper or page contained in the FUBAR Annual Volumes! The Annual Volumes ("The Books" as we like to call them) were "yearbooks" created by yours truly to maintain the historical accuracy of the FUBAR's over the years. "The Books" currently reside in FUBARHQ and have never been fully accessible to the general public but, all that's about to change. After a 4 hour copy session and painstaking scan work (by Dennis) what you now have is, basically... everything!

This second (updated) installment, The FUBARCHIVES REDUX, not only contains every newsletter as the 2001 version did but, it now contains every schedule, stat sheet, scorecard, "behind-the-scenes" notes, receipts, concepts and of course "never before seen" photos! Every page has been copied onto "color matched" paper (or a color scan when we just couldn't make it look right!) and every photo has been digitally re-mastered right off the photo album itself! - You see it now just as if you if you pulled one of "The Books" right off the shelf and thumbed through it!

So, I hope that after 20 years and a full day of re-editing you'll finally leave me alone* about all this FUBAR stuff!? - Happy 20th gang... The Train's Keeps a Rollin'...

Chapter ISpring 1990

...the beginning

This chapter is pretty self-explanatory – the beginning. This was the first season at ERAU and I basically just took upon the task of getting a team together for my dorm wing. I basically got the guys together to play ball, there was no recruiting, no try-outs to play, I just wanted 10 reliable souls to stand in the field each week and guess what? – it showed.

FUBAR NEWS

Hey fubarians, how's it goin. Well you didn't think it could happen, but here it is, the first Fubarian Newsletter. Let us begin... The Fubars have been having a great season, one game left and our record is 3-1. The loss is because Romero (the ump that couldn't count), ripped us of a run. We had an injury, Ray Oyung one of our outfielders, decided to test fate and play for another team as well as the Fubars... mistake number one. Ray was downed by a girl (damn that's cold) and suffered a broken shoulder, rendering him useless, for softball that is. Ray ended the season with a .667 batting avg and had the game saving home run against Sigma Phi Delta. Ray has been last seen drugged-out on pain killers. On Sunday, March 11, the Fubars played H.F.T.B. (Here For The Beer). Well they should've stayed home, because the Fubars crushed them 22-10. That game saw two new prospects for the team, Kevin West, .750 for the day, and John Westhead, .333 for the day. Unfortunately, J.B. (head of rec. dept.) said "No dice" to signing them up, so the Fubars take a loss. Our last regular season game is this Sunday, the 18th, against the Blacksheep, the worst team in the A division playoffs (the same division we're in). The game will be held at the on campus field at 12 O'clock, write it down. No game this thursday. The Fubars had it's first pizza gathering last Sunday, in which Tom Zweifel was domineering in the field of conversation. PLEASE NO MORE! Sam was his usual jolly self and was again repeatedly pelted with degrading remarks, how does he survive the onslaughts his teammates give him? Sam although has come about since being put at third. He had a .333 avg. after his first game. The next game (at third) he had a 1.000 avg. and last Sunday a .750 avg.

the boy can't be stopped. Tod Gumbrecht was absent from Sunday's game because the boy was hurtin from the previous night's festivities. He may be punished severely, how does home plate sound? No offense Arryn. Speaking of the king of sheep himself. The Fubars saw the man from down under play the outfield, and almost had a spectacular bare handed catch, but he couldn't hold on. Maybe next time. Greg was absent from Sunday's crushing victory, because he was in the clouds. Greg Rettich has the worst avg. of all the Fubars, but when he hits the ball, it's gone. The sole hit he has had this season was a three run home run he got when all we wanted him to do was make contact. Dan Murro is doing quite well at first base, but guys, bring the ball down, he can only jump so high. Well, the last order of business is about the playoffs. We're in the A division, and once it starts, it's only six games to the end. However double it is single elimination and we may have to play two, possibly three games a day. So, if the games aren't back to back, we have to toss the ball around somewhere so as to not stiffen up after the previous game. Anyway, we're going to win it anyway. This is D-MAN, your capt. and teammate and producer of this newsletter. I'll see you at the game, should be an easy win, and remember, it's not whether you win or lose, but whether you win!

FUBAR NEWS

Fellow Fubarians, how are my comrades doing? Glad to hear it. Yeah Right! Let me ask you a question, What is a NOID? A NOID is a little guy, who can never accomplish the task, or a task which he has set out to do. i.e. The Domino Confrontation. Well, we have to play a team full of these little inconsistent creatures. I think the FUBARS should have no problem defeating these NOIDS, as they so wished to be called, and sending them back to the hovel they crawled out of! Then my fellow friends, after that victorious battle, we shall be challenged by a group called THE VETS CLUB. This team could consist of veterans, retired from the professional sport of softball, who reunited to form one of the most devastating softball teams around. Or it could be just what it sounds like, a bunch of guys who like to "hang-out" with animals! Anyway, we play these NOID creatures here on-campus at 10:00am Sunday, then if, or when we win, we play the VETS CLUB at 12:00pm also at the on-campus field. I expect to have a good turn-out by our members. I hope we can ALL get up a little early and practice before the game, because it is the first game and also because we were waived of our game last Sunday. This was due to the fact that we are so menacing, they won't even come to face defeat like men. Rui "THE SHARK" Pereira will be attending the game, and has already approached me to claim his spot in the outfield, I think we "may" be able to accomodate. Ray Oyung will be there as a spectator, so he says. We believe he wants a trophy, but that will be impossible for the traitorous act he committed, which left him in agonizing pain and a cripple. RAY GET LOST! Dan Murro will also be attending Dan has shown the team what a force he is at first base. Keep up the good work. Tom Zweifel will be attending Sunday's exercise. Tom had a very nice catch at second base that everyone thought he was going to scrub. Sam "verbally barraged" Swensen will also be at the games. Sam has shown to be an asset at third base, well maybe not an asset, but he filled the ass part and has done a good job so far. No offense Sam, but it's the general opinion. Toshiaki "ninja turtle" Wakabayashi has had a great season as pitcher. Tosh has fared well against most opponents, and has shown to be the force on the mound! Tod "Hungover" Gumbrecht is looking forward to Sundays games in order to redeem himself among us. Greg Rettich, our "short" short-man is also looking forward to this game in order to improve his batting average. Jim Weisheit shall be at the game. Jim has shown remarkable skill, well some skill in the clean-up batting position (4th for you guys who don't know what's going on). Scott Douglass has not yet contacted me, so I don't know if he is alive. We'll see Sunday. Lastly, Arryn "sheep-herder" Milne will be at the games. This man from "down-unda" has proven to be an awesome catcher. He has shown incredible ability at catching and returning the ball. Arryn, "G'Day mate". Well that's about all, except to inform you of some of the rules for playoffs...

- 1. Protests are made to umps and settled before play resumes. J.B. resolves all, he is law! Yeah, Yeah O.K.
- 2. A forfeit will not eliminate a team, unless it is the second loss.
- 3. I.D. ARE NECESSARY IN ORDER TO PLAY! VERY IMPORTANT, DON'T FORGET.

 Well there you have it, I will see all of you at the games! This is Dave "D-MAN"

 Moeder, your captain, teammate and editor of this newsletter.

FUBAR NEWS

Well Fubarians, it happened, we've faced defeat. I don't know what happened we just didn't play well. I think it was the field...think about it. We never played on it before, It's all dirt, and the ball bounced a lot more on it than the grass infield of the airport fields. However, we got crushed, 14 to 0 (Ouch!, that hurts). We can't lose anymore games if we want to win the championship. Thanks to double elimination! This still doesn't erase the fact that we will probably have somewhere around 5 to 7 more games... Can't lose one. Let's run through the players: We'll start with pitching. Tosh "ninja turtle" Wakabayashi tried hard to pull us through, but all attempts failed. Our fielding couldn't bail him out, good game anyway Tosh. "verbally barraged" Swensen just couldn't get a bead on the ball. The NOIDS just ripped em down the third-base line. Don't worry about it Sam. Jim Weisheit had trouble at the shortstop position. He had a tough time coming up with the ball. Next time Jimbo. Todd "hungover" Gumbrecht seemed to do fairly well at second. Nice double-play Todd, keep it up. By the way Jim, nice toss to first to finish it. Greq "short-man" Rettich had trouble coming up with the ball on the one play, otherwise played well. Rui "Shark" Pereira had a tough time in left-field. The NOIDS hit the ball short, long, longer. was pelted with an onslaught of hits that just made him look like a victim. Scott "the ghost" Douglass didn't have many plays in right-field. Although the one hit toward that direction left him munching dirt! Hell of an attempt though. Myself, I caught the one fly hit to center field, was robbed of a catch by Greg, and missed a routine grounder that Sheldon in little league could catch. Well Arryn "sheepherder" Milne played well at home, not too much more to say about it. G'day mate. Dan Murro has come to me and protested that we here at FUBAR NEWS Co. were not mentioning him enough, and he wanted a whole page to himself, we couldn't of agreed more. So, here we go. Dan

BLAH BLAH BLAH BLAH BLAH which has made Dan the great ball player that he is, keep up the good work DAN-O. Guys keep the ball down for him. Guys, our next game is this Thursday at 7:00pm at the on-campus field again. We play the OLD MILLDOGGIES, they are supposedly better than the NOIDS. We have to improve our hitting this thursday and get some runs. See you at the games. This is Dave "D-MAN" the captain, editor and writer of this newsletter.

ERAU INTRAMURAL SOFTBALL RULES

- 1. After the last working day before the season begins, no players may be added to the roster. Players may only be listed on one roster only.
- 2. There are ten players to a team, but a team may play with eight players. Additional players, as they arrive, may be added between at bats.
- 3. Game time is forfeit time! Players must be on the field and ready to play. Teams will be dropped from the league after one forfeit.
- 4. Protests must be brought to the attention of the plate umpire and scorekeeper at the time of the incident, before the next pitch occurs. The protest must be reported in writing to the Recreation Office by 5:00 pm of the next work day. The Intramural Coordinator shall rule on all protests.
- 5. If a player is ejected from a game, he/she will be suspended from the next scheduled game. Players will be dropped from the league after their second ejection of the season.
- 6. The act of deliberately "crashing" or "taking out" a defender will not be permitted. This is a judgement call that may result in ejection. Runners must slide or get out of the way.
- 7. Rules of Conduct:

a) Players will refrain from the use of profanity.

b) Consumption of alcoholic beverages will not be permitted at or near the ballfield.

c) Only team captains may confer with umpires.

d) Any unsportsmanlike conduct directed by or to any party will be dealt with by the umpire or the Intramural Coordinator if necessary.

e) Fighting will not be tolerated

8. Play will be governed by U.S.S.S.A. (United States Slo-pitch Softball Assn.) rules, with the following exceptions:

a) The first foul ball after two strikes is an out.

b) The game is seven innings or one hour time limit, whichever comes first. The score of games stopped at one hour will revert to the score at the end of the last complete inning.

c) Steel cleats, street shoes and bare feet will not be allowed.

d) Teams may elect to bat up to all of their players present at game time. Any ten players in the batting order may take a defensive position at any time.

e) 10 run slaughter rule after 5 innings, (42).

All teams remaining at the end of the season will be eligible for the playoffs provided they have shown good sportsmanship. Playoffs will determine the intramural champion.

14 trophies will be awarded to the winning team.

The Recreation Department will furnish balls and umpires. Teams will furnish their own bats and gloves.

Faculty, Staff and Students currently enrolled in classes at Embry-Riddle are eligible for participation in intramural sports.

...the "rough" draft

This season was the first season I was a bit more aggressive in my recruiting. After the first season and getting knocked out in the playoffs in the first round, I figured I needed to be a bit more selective. This process took on the form of a question. I would ask a potential new player "You any good?" If they hesitated with an answer of "Yes" or seemed a bit unsure of themselves, I didn't want them. I wanted the confident, borderline arrogant type. Of course there weren't that many that I knew and I still had to fill the field; There were still a few from the first season and other cannon fodder, but this was a very good successful "initial" recruiting drive for me. Just my second season would yield, FUBAR Hall of Famers – Chris Roth, Kevin Russo, and of course Jeff Engel. How could I go wrong?

Time line is a little tough in this chapter as the newsletters start out for Spring 1991, then jump to Fall 1991 for another dorm team. I used that team as a recruiting tool for the upcoming Spring 1992 season (A very important season for the organization.)

Fellow FUBARians, welcome to the new season. This is your Captain, Coach, and all around good guy Dave! Well, we are finally scheduled for our first game! It will be, and grab your pencils kids, on Sunday, Feb. 3rd at 1:00 pm on the Derbyshire field #2. We will be confronting our great nemesis "Wild West". Actually, we never played them before so we don't know who they are. I predict a win for the FUBARS! I can say that!

You have received this newsletter thanks to those players of the team who have thus far paid their $2 dollar FUBAR FUND dues. If you have not "donated" your share, you should get in touch with me at the game! I want my $2 dollars. You know who you are and I know who you are!

The following are the starting positions for Sun. game-Pitching- Chris "What about the 12ft arch?" Roth

Catching- Arryn "G'Day mate" Milne

1st Base- Terry "What's up Bubba?" Woodard

2nd Base- Juan "Call me MACHO!" Santos 3rd Base- Dave "I call the shots" Moeder

Short Stop- Jim "I play varsity ball" Weisheit

Right Field- Rui "Shark!" pereira

Center Field- Kevin "Holy cow I caught it!" Russo

and last but not least-

Desig. Hitter-Alex "I may be at the game" Joseph

Any questions about the above, come see me at FUBAR HQ, located in room #340 Residence Hall I. I won't listen! If you feel your nickname is inappropriate, we will find a good one for you on Sunday!

Practice!?, Who needs practice? We may not practice, so let's get to the game early, to loosen up and get to know one another. We will collaborate in the parking lot between Dorms I & II. I'll see you at the game, and before that too!

Fellow FUBARians, how are we on this fine week in Feb.? Glad to hear it! Anyway, this past Sunday, Feb. 10, saw the prospect of an Awesome ball-club. The FUBARS went on and, let me say CRUSHED the team known as WILD WEST. Let's just say that the Wild West must have been a ghost town, the way balls were just floating right through their infield! The FUBARS had their share of mishaps, but in the end prevailed with a 13-2 victory over those scrubs! Let me run through the players. (I know you like this and also, for $2 bucks, I have to throw in your names!)...

1. Chris "Not much happening in left field" Giudice (2 for 4-500%)
2.Dana"U Can't Touch 3rd Base!" Wendelboe
                                                     (2 \text{ for } 4-500\%)
                                                     (1 for 4-250%)
3.Rui"Dude!, I almost dropped it!"Peirera
4.Dave"I missed one, but I'm the king!"Moeder
                                                     (3 \text{ for } 4-750\%)
5.Arryn"Why swing when I can walk?"Milne (2 walks)(2 for 2-1000%)
6.Terry"Your all inferior ball players!"Woodard
                                                    (1 \text{ for } 4-250\%)
7. Juan"I got it!(the ball or first?!)"MACHO Santos(0 for 3-000%)
8.Kevin"I'm awesome in center!"Russo
                                                     (2 for 3-666%)
9.Jeff"I drove, that's about it!) "Engel
                                                     (1 \text{ for } 3-333\%)
10.Chris"I came, I pitched, I kicked A--!"Roth (3 for 3-1000%)

Well there's all the stats. Don't worry if your not as high as other guys. There's still time for you to improve and the rest to scrub! Sunday's game was missing a few players. One man not there, was Sean"Dude, I gotta fly!" Miller; Scott "Ghost-Man" Douglass; Jim "I play varsity ball you weenies!" Weisheit. But despite the absence of so many great ball players, the FUBARS still went off! There are no games scheduled for this coming weekend due to the fact that it is a holiday weekend and the weekend of the DAYTONA 500! So, if all goes well we will have a game the following weekend, Feb.24.

Now for some constructive criticism. Jeff, you can't be running around slamming fellow ball players while their trying to make a play. "I got it!" stands for, and always has, the BALL! Catch the ball, don't "Bobble" it, this isn't a circus act! A rover is NOT a dog! The catcher IS New Zealand! The right fielder IS a Portagee! The 2nd baseman SHOULD be from N.Y.! and lastly, the Short Stop HAS Wrestled professionally!

Anyway, I will not be around this weekend, but if you want to practice, have some fun. I think now is as good a time as any to finish this newsletter, besides, I have no more to say! So, this is your Capt., Coach, and all knowing D. Moeder! Have a nice DAVE!

CAPT. David Moeder

The opinions expressed in this newsletter are solely those of D. Moeder and not those of the FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION.

Any questions, FUBAR HEADQUARTERS is in room #340.

Hello again FUBARians, this is your superior. Sunday, the FUBARS played a team by the name of DESERT STORM; I'm afraid to say, their campaign failed! The FUBARS scared the hell out of me, but finally came around in the last inning to pull off a 5-4 victory. Some FUBARS were seen lurking in the dug-out facing the fact that the FUBAR legend may be only a Dr. Seuss story (you know, the Sneeches). Well, it's time for your favorite part of the newsletter; the name game-

1.Chris"It's raining softballs out here "Giudice	(0	for	3-000%)
2.Dana"They CAN touch 3rd base"Wendelboe	(0	for	3-000%)
3.Rui"pretty-boy in right!"Pereira	(1	for	3-333%)
4.David"Rag-Arm; but I'm still the boss"Moeder	(1	for	3-333%)
5.Arryn"I got hit with the ball ya wanka!"Milne	(1	for	3-333%)
6.Kevin"I'm a softball god"Russo	(2	for	3-666%)
7. Terry "Yo Bubba!, I'm at first! "Woodard	(1	for	3-333%)
8. Juan "Macho, I made no mistakes at 2nd "Santos	(1	for	3-333%)
9.Jeff"I drove and that's still about it!"Engel	(0	for	3-000%)
10.Chris"I got an 800% avg. and you bat ME 10th?"Rot	th(1	for	2-500%)

Well, there you have the weekly stats. There's still plenty of time to improve your average and/or scrub. Look at me, I wasted no time in putting my average in the toilet. As you saw by our performance on sunday, the FUBARS still have some way to come. Our team as a whole did well, but there were some errors, and in order to rule the softball league, we have to cut them down. Also, as you saw, Jeff Engel tried once more to take out a fellow team player. Chris Giudice opened up a little more towards his fellow teammates. Arryn"G'day Mate"Milne didn't move fast enough for the foul! A "Rover" is NOT a dog! Chris was barraged with flies in left! Kevin "Centerfield lord"Russo went off! Juan"Macho"Santos, didn't say, "I got it!". Jeff"I have a car"Engel was a linebacker in a former life, and Chris"Dude, I have no pressure!"Roth was physically assaulted with a softball bat!

The FUBARS saw the absence, AGAIN, of the following players-Scott"Ghost-Man"Douglass, rumor has it he was hit by a dog.Jim"I play varsity ball!"Weisheit; The FUBARS still await the skill of this powerhouse. Lastly Sean"Dude, I quit Morrison's "Miller. The FUBARS have prevailed without these prodigies.

Anyway boys, I was very pleased with your performance thus far. Keep it up, and take a shower! So, this is yourCapt., Coach, and Dude D. Moeder! Have a nice DAVE!

CAPT. David Moeder

The opinions expressed in this newsletter are solely those of D. Moeder and not those of the FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION.

Any questions, FUBAR HEADQUARTERS is in room #340.

What the hell happened? The FUBAR's faced defeat?! I don't know if a softball team as atrocious as them should be allowed to continue in this league. Last Sunday saw the FUBAR's face a 12-7 defeat. There was no excuse from members of the team and when approached for questioning, Capt. D. Moeder said, "Get that #@%¢#!@ thing out of my face you @#%$!@!." The victors went by the name of Milwaukee's Best. Their Capt. was quoted as saying, "Those guys were a waste of playing time, give us some real contenders!" after which he was repeatedly beat with a bat by FUBAR pitcher Chris Roth! Last Sunday saw a new prospect for the team. Scott "Ghost-Man" Douglass came out of hiding to show how real ball players work!

This Sunday pits the FUBAR's against another formidable opponent by the name of Simpsons. In all fairness, the Simpsons are LOSERS!; Just watch the show. Homer don't know softball! Anyway, the FUBAR's will have to redeem themselves, we will just have to wait and see what happens.

Now for the fun stuff! Here are your stats (up to date) in batting order for Sundays game. Those with an "*" will not be attending...

	Catcher-Arryn"G'day Bed!"Milne	(.600)
	Pitcher-Chris"Dude, I don't know about wind!"Roth	(.625)
	C.Field-Kevin"I RULE intramural softball"Russo	(.750)
	1stBASE-Terry"I'm the RiBI KING!"Woodard	(.375)
	R.Field-Chris"Holy #@!*@ their hitting!"Giudice	(.333)
	Rover -Dave"Winning's good, Losing sucks!"Moeder	(.454)
	2ndBASE-Juan"Macho KNOWS 2nd!"Santos	(.250)
	L.Field-Rui"Pretty-Boy muscle-head"Pereira	(.181)
	S.Stop -Jeff"You lost cause I wasn't there! "Engel	(.200)
7	3rdBASE-Dana"Good LUCK w/o ME!"Wendelboe	(.272)
1	???????-Scott"Ghost-Man out of retirement"Douglass	(.666)
	???????-Sean"Dude, call me, wake me up!"Miller	(.000)
3	???????-Jim"I want the $3,500,000 contract"Weishei	t(.000)

Well there are the stats as of Sun. Mar 10. Start at the top and go down, that's the batting order for this Sun. game at 12 o'clock. There will be an absenteeism by Dana Wendelboe. Rui Pereira and Chris Giudice will be switching outfield positions(Rui paid me more money!). Jeff Engel will be wearing his WWF Championship belt! Arryn Milne WILL be there! Terry Woodard will have a smile on his face!? Kevin Russo will be awesome! David Moeder will be beat up by his teammates! Chris Roth will be TALKING! Rui Pereira will have $150 worth of hair products on. Juan "MACHO" Santos will play awesome@once again and lastly, there will be a cheering section!?.

Anyway, the FUBAR's are on thier way to another victory, they say even the greatest of players have a bad day. The FUBAR's had them all on the same day, more efficient! That's about it for me, I'm on my way to practice beating people w/ softball bats, so if you didn't know, this is your Capt., coach and player in a slump D. Moeder.

CAPT. David Moeder

The opinions expressed in this newsletter are solerly those of D.Moeder and are not those of the FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION!

Hello once again FUBARians, this is your Capt. D. Moeder. As some of you may have already heard, this Sunday starts the PLAYOFFS! No, you cannot leave the state. The FUBAR's have not played a game in a couple of weeks, so a practice would prove to be beneficial in this series. The playoffs are SINGLE ELIMINATION, to which Chris Roth was quoted as saying, "They can't do @#$!%#@ like that, it's against the essence of the game!" Anyway, this Saturday, March 23, 1991 (the year for the really hungover!) the FUBAR's will have a practice at 2:00pm. The practice will be run by Kevin "I am a softball KING!" Russo, and I hope you will all treat him with as much respect, patience and attention you show ME!? Kevin will be the overseer of the festivities due to the fact that I, yat Capt., will be playing around at McDill Air Force Base. I would appreciate it if you all attend the practice. The following will be the starting line-up and postions for Sundays game - -

- 1.Arryn"G'day Mate!"Milne-----Catcher
- 2.Chris"Don't bat me first!"Roth-----Pitcher
- 3. Kevin "My prediction?-10 for 10 "Russo = year = 4 Center Field
- 4. Terry "Yo Yo, I'm batting 4th "Woodard-----1st Base
- 5. Chris "Let's do it! "Giudice-----Right Field
- 6.David"Take NO Prisoners!"Moeder-----Rover
- 7.Juan"Don't step ta' me/MACHO"Santos----2nd Base
- 8.Rui"Is my hair O.K.?"Periera-----Left Field
- 9.Jeff"Hey, I got my car back!"Engel----Short Stop
- 10.Dana"Get off my turf!"Wendelboe----3rd Base
- *11.Scott"Ghost-Man to the rescue!"Douglass----?????????
- *12.Jim"I might finally play for you!"Weisheit--??????????
- *13.Sean"I don't know dude!"Miller----????????????

The players with the "*" may be attending, but they are not confirmed! The names are not too funny this week, but this is serious time. We play a team known as BUSH PILOTS at 10:00am, Shoot them down!, Shoot them down! When (positive attitude) we win that game, we play again at 11:00am against a team called RIDDLE REFUGEES, not a problem!

Just a couple of things, You MUST BRING Your ID's to the games! Also, play to win! Go to the practice. See you at the game, this is your Capt., Coach, and all around DUDE, D. Moeder.

Any questions, come to FUBAR HQ, Dorm #1 Room #340.

Fellow FUBARian's, and FUBAR prospects! Why the newsletter?-Well, I'll tell you. It has come to our attention here at the FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION that there is some confusion as to the future of The FUBAR's. Let us assure you, the FUBAR's will take the field come the Spring of '92! So, let's get down to business. It appears, that currently, several members of The FUBAR's are playing softball for a class "A" ball club- 2nd SOUTH. Rumors have it, that this ball club is being coached by none other than FUBAR's own Chris "Damn can I pitch!" Roth! This should provide the FUBAR's with a means to alleviate the burden of finding new players to fill our current losses. The following prospects have been "invited" to fill some of our losses. Dan "How could you have been safe? I was on the bag! " Panciello was "invited" by the FUBAR CORPORATION to play for our ball club this Spring of '92. Dan has been offered a three-year $15 million deal, to which he peplied, "Fifteen, give Canseco fifteen ya' cheapo!" Panciello agreed to a four-year $37 million deal, to which Chris Roth replied, "I want more! " Max "The ball got over my head once!" Dipietro was also "invited" to play for our ball club come the Spring of '92. Max was offered a three-year $6 million deal, to which he replied, "Come on big man, I'm worth more!" Max agreed to a three-year $6.5 million deal if we throw in a NINTENDO game system! There will be more deal closings as we get closer to the season, but these were the two big ones for now. The FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION will keep you informed if any other deals are closed! For your own personal thought, other prospects include, Christian "I'm an R.A.!" Smith, and Paul "I'm also a Portugee from N.J." Oliveóra. Rumor has it we can pick up Paul for just a NINTENDO game system!

On to current news! The affiliated 2nd SOUTH softball team appears to be kicking --- in the dorm (almost makes you want to laugh!) league! Last Sunday, or Sunday November 3rd, saw a scrimmage against 2nd SOUTH and the favored (NOT!) 3rd EAST. Needless to say, 2nd SOUTH won, crushed, pummeled, ----- (submit entries to FNC) 3rd EAST by a score of, and hang on to your hats!- 11 to 4. Kevin "I'm playing short in the Spring!" Russo was quoted as saying after the game, "What a bunch of panzies!"

On to current, current (not a typo!) news! It appears that Chris "If I play my cards right, I'll have Moeder's job in the Spring!" Roth was approached by the League organizer- "GUMBI"?! (What is a GUMBI?) It appears that no "spin" is to be put on pitches. Seeing as how Dave "I'm Batting 7th ?!" Moeder is the only one who pitches with a spin and pitched one game, Roth was forced to say, "Stop cryin' ya fairy!" then repeatedly said, "WE BEAT YOU, WE BEAT YOU!" to which "GUMBI" ran off! The league seems to show a slight bit of animosity towards the 2nd SOUTH team. Check out the reply in the AVION (a real newspaper-NOT!) by a 2nd SOUTH member, who's name has been withheld for security reasons. It was Oliveira!

Lastly, for all FUBAR's, come Spring of '92 a small "DONATION" of $20 dollars will be required, seeing as how will be donning some nifty shirts this year. This "REQUEST" is NOT a joke. THANKS!

MOEDER Capt.

Hello again FUBARians, how are we this fine week in November? We here at the FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION are a little distraught over the fact that METALLICA's-"Enter Sandman" is on it's way down the countdown! However, as I sit in my hovel with nothing but the illumination of a torch and a cup of hot cocoa for warmth, I ponder our future. much negotiating, it seems that the FUBAR's may well indeed acquire Christian "The studly R.A." Smith. The current deal calls for us at FNC to fork over an even 20.7 (?) million for a five year period, to which Chris "can you say - STEE-Rike!" Roth replied, "I want more!" A Rumor has plagued (hey, wasn't that that football team that managed to go 0 for 4 and play only two games?!) us at FNC that the league nemesis, Terry "I scoop ALL!" Woodard will not be playing 1st base for the FUBAR's come Spring '92, however sources will not confirm these alleged rumor's. On to other news, after failing negotiations with Paul "I haven't seen a class in three weeks" Oliveira, we at FNC were forced to take drastic measures. It seems Paul would not agree to play for JUST a Nintendo System, so we decided to pull out all the stops! FNC was quoted as saying, "We'll pay no damn Portagee from N.J. anything more than what was offered and if we hear another complaint about the current offer, we'll reduce it to a !@&#! GAME BOY!"; to which Paul replied, "Come On, couln't you at least throw in a carton of Marlboro's?"...FNC buckled! Dan "How could you have been safe, the base is in my pants!" Panciello is enjoying his moola recently received by FNC, but it is believed he has skipped town to go join the flippin' circus! Rumor has it, Barnum will letthim come play in the Spring! William "Gazelle Boy?" Thomas seemed to be a little flustered about not having much said about him in the last newsletter. We felt it only fair to make up the deficit with a full story later in the year, so keep a look-out for "Running the bases with Gazelles-The Wil Thomas Should be a best seller! (NOT!) We were going to say a few words about Max "Can I have a GAME BOY too?!" Dipietro, but there's nothing to say about someone who spends half his existence sleeping and the other half playing Nintendo and Axis & Allies (The Allies won you GOOFBALL!). Dipietro replied, "Come On Big Man!"

On to the FNC affiliate 2nd South. It appears that the 2nd South team kicked ---! They ended the season on Sunday, Nov. 17 with a 8-3 victory over 3rd North. Their record is 5-0, damn impressive. After the game Kevin "Short-Stop!?" Russo was quoted as saying, "How we ever gonna' get better if every other team is made up of a bunch of Losers?" Chris "Can you say contract re-negotiations?" Roth was absent from Sunday's festivities, "Dude, I was sick"was all he would say. The highlight of the game was the top of the seventh inning when the entire outfield decided it would sit down till the game was over! "Panzies!", Russo said.

The winner of the entry submittal contest of the last newsletter was, the envelope please, Dave "Rove-Dude" Moeder (figures!) who submitted, "em-panzied", Dave was quoted as saying, "Russo was my inspiration"

Well gang, that's all there is for this week, just to let you know, Rui and Jeff are still alive, and if I don't plug them somewhere in this newsletter, they won't give me the twenty bucks! Which I will need as soon as possible after Christmas Break! Later Boys...

D. Moeder Capt.

FUBAR's, Roman's, Country-men, is it thou i dos't wish to converse (sneaker company) with? Nay i say, for thou art nothing more than mere pawns. When thou hast proven thyself on thee diamond battlefield, then and only then can thou dost dub thyself a FUBAR!

How art thou doing? What's up men? Yes, it's that time once again for another installment of the FUBAR NEWS. I know you've all been getting a little worried, but fear not FNC is still going! Well, negotiations have been going fairly well for the FUBAR's. have finally acquired Paul "Hey, I made it to a class!" Oliveira. It took some time, but it's been done! Paul agreed to a three year deal with the option for free-agency after two (and all for onlyget this- a SUPER Nintendo system and a pack of Marlboro's!). was an outrage to Max "I got rooked!" Dipietro who threatened to firebomb FNC! He claims that FNC didn't make any effort to remind him that the SUPER Nintendo was the current game of choice amongst United States children. FNC replied, "Look you scrub, if you ever left that hovel you call Dale and Steve's room to get a breath of fresh air, you might have overheard someone mention something about the SUPER Nintendo system, but seeing as how you haven't, tough Dipietro replied, "Come on Big Man!" (How did you guess that one? Huh? 'Cause we've run it into the ground already!) Needless to say, Dipietro will not receive a SUPER Nintendo system, but just out of spite, FNC will rewrite all current and upcoming FUBAR contracts to include a SUPER Nintendo system! Naa Na Na Na NAA! Veteran Chris "Rag-Arm" Roth was questioned about the incident, all he had to say was, "Rookies, isn't that a synonym for sucker?" Chris was last seen bolting across campus being pursued by Max "It was a damn conspiracy!" Dipietro who was twirling a Nintendo controller over his head chanting, "Zelda, Zelda, Zelda"

On to other news, Christian "Our wing is King and I'm a damn poepoet!" Smith was acquired peacefully. He has settled nicely into the FUBAR family and is enjoying the fringe benefits (Which we here at FNC areactueless as to what they are)).

FNC was approached recently by Bill "Gazelle Boy" Thomas about his current nickname, the aforementioned "Gazelle Boy" What's the problem? Shut-up and live with it! You think it's easy to come up with names for all you rookies? Hell no! You guys haven't done anything yet. Come cry after you've done somthing and we have something to use as a basis. For example, Chris "Pitch-King!" Roth wasn't always titled "Pitch-King" or "Rag-Arm", he had to earn those titles. He was first called Chris "What about the 12ft. Arc!" Roth. There's a grim nickname for ya! So don't be offended if yours isn't cool (what's the definition of cool anyway?), I mean put it this way, you could be Paul "I don't eat or exercise and have a body to show for it!" Oliveira, so don't feel bad. Heck no one knows who Rui and Jeff are! "Who's Rui and Jeff?" Shut up!

Now for the depression ...

Saturday, November 23, 1991 saw defeat for 2nd South? It had to happen at some point in time, but just not that point! The infamous 2nd South (FUBAR affiliate) which was just coming off a 5-0 season hit the playoffs hard. The game was looking good up untill the fourth inning when 3rd South came down hard. The final score of the game was 7-6 3rd South - A moment of silence please...

That's enough. Kevin "I snag all!" Russo was approached after the game for comments, but all he did was chase down the FNC representative slam him down on home plate and pummel him/her (FNC is an equal opportunity employer) senseless! Eyewitnesses say Russo just went nuts! Started screaming weird stuff like, "Fohn, Where's Fohn?, Bring 'em all on, Bring on Fohn!". He then got up call 3rd South a bunch of fairies and stormed off!

Enough living in the past, besides, it hurts! Here's what the Spring '92 starting team looks like...

Pitching - Chris "I own the zone!" Roth

Catching - Paul "I DO go to class!" Oliveira

1st Base - Chris "I know the game" Smith

Rover - Dave "D-Man" Moeder

Alternates-

Arryn "Good Bloody Day Mate!" Milne

Still Under Negotiation (SUN's)

Tod "I don't know what a Gumby is!" Gumbrecht

Kevin "I used to play for the PLAGUE" West

- Which may do more harm than good!?

Jake "If I have Time" Benson

The FUBAR's look good! The first practice will be on the tentative date of Saturday, January 18. It will be further discussed astsoon as practical following the Christmas Break! Remember to return with that favorite glove or bat, or get one for X-Mas. Most important however is (Yeah, Yeah, I have to push it!) the Twenty Dollars. This fee, or donation as we at FNC like to call it may be upped to Twenty-Five Dollars! That will also be discussed at a later date. The immediate reason is the possibility of the FUBAR's acquiring actual Softball Jersey's with button collars, etc.

So, sorry if the letter wasn't amusing to all, but to other's, it was probably a scream - AAAAAAAAAAAAAA! Have yourself a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year and I'll be seeing all after the holidays. Remember, "To be a FUBAR is to be so cocky, you can't even stand yourself!" Later Dudes!

DAVE "D-Man" Capt.

FUBAR PLEDGE-

I your name here AM NOW, AND QUITE PROBABLY WILL ALWAYS BE A FUBAR; AND I WILL NOT FOR ANXSREASON INCLUDING SCHOOL, JOB, WOMAN(negotiable), ETC. MISS THE OPPORTUNITY TO PLAY SOFTBALL!

Real Men Wear Black

Spring 1992 was a great year for the FUBAR's. This marked the first year we had jerseys and also the first year we had a very competitive team. Going so far as the final four but losing the game by a score of 10-8. So close. I could see the championship getting within reach though and all the hard work was paying off – However, I would have to settle for another year of experience and begin to regroup for the following year. At this point in the FUBAR's though I had a pretty solid group of players with five veterans and a good group of new recruits aggressively drafted from the farm teams (like that baseball jargon don't ya?) - The likes of which Craig Weaver, Christian Smith and FUBAR Hall of Famer Ed Gordon would emerge.

Hello men. How art thou? Did thou havest thy most enjoyable and festive of holidays? We art merry to have word of it. O.K., I'll stop being weird (No comments please!) Well, the FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION (FNC) reopened it's offices on January 1st, 1992! Yes, it does take this long to write a newsletter. FNC was busy trying to get in touch with Rui Pereira. It appears that over the holiday season, to make ends meet, he took a job as a Santa Claus (No Max, Santa Claus is not REAL!) and was fired for going YO-YO-YO DUDE all day long. It also takes a while to get our humor back as well. Here's the deal...

The softball season starts on Sunday, January 26th. The FUBAR's will have it's first practice on Saturday, January 18th (This Sat.!). This is a MANDATORY practice! You must attend, or make proor arrangements with FNC. I'm sure something can be worked out? Now, on to a matter of some sensitivity...The TWENTY-FIVE Dollar "DONATION". You have to get in touch woth FNC and make your "DONATION" by the practice on Saturday, January 18th. As well as the aforementioned, you should get in touch with FNC and let us know what number you would like on your jersey. The following numbers were already taken – 1-7-12-17-36. So, get your choice in now! If it is possible, FNC will have a representative come from CUSTOM GRAPHICS to show us ideas for team jerseys, so far the choice will remain BLACK w/WHITE Lettering. NEWSFLASH- FNC will be in touch with a representative on Tuesday, January 14th.

Chris "Look out cruel world!" Roth- - - - - Pitching Chris "I want a better quote." Smith - - 1st Base Jeff "I don't deserve a quote." Engel - - 2nd Base Dan "Contract re-negotiations." Panciello - 3rd Base Kevin "I am no Mortal!" Russo - - - - - S. Stop Paul "Cut me a break, I'm a Portagee" Oli.- Catcher* William "I'm not a quadraped!" Thomas - - L. Field Max "I got rooked big man!" Dipietro- - - C. Field Rui "Dude, I'm A PORTAGEE!" Pereira - - - R. Field Dave "I thought I had a clue?" Moeder - - ROVER???

SubstitutesArryn "If I show up" Milne- - - - - - Catcher/DH

* We here at FNC believe it was unnecessary to print all of Paul's last name as he has been complaining to FNC about his current contract with the affiliate. Screw off ya' bum!

Anyway, we at FNC hope you will all be at practice Saturday, as of now, assume practice will be at 1:00pm at the on-campus field. Remeber the FUBAR pledge:

I your name here AM NOW, AND QUITE PROBABLY WILL ALWAYS BE A FUBAR; AND I WILL NOT FOR ANY REASON INCLUDING SCHOOL, JOB, WOMAN (negotiable), ETC. MISS THE OPPORTUNITY TO PLAY SOFTBALL!

DAVE Capt.'92

FUBAR NEWS-

This week, the FUBAR News Corporation (FNC) will tackle the following issue: What is a "PORT-A-GEE"? Some believe it is a person who comes from the country of Portugal, located west of Spain in Western Europe. However FNC begs to differ... It it our belief that a "PORT-A-GEE" comes from the vast desolate wasteland known as Newark, New Jersey (that includes Kearny as well Rui). Not that New Jersey itself isn't a wasteland, it's just a wasteland of another sort - one without "PORT-A-GEE's". Newark on the other hand unfortunately is plaqued (wasteland of a football team) with them! This outright attack on "PORT-A-GEE's" is spawned from a blunder last Sunday by a "PORT-A-GEE" who shall remain nameless (it was "Rui"). For some odd reason with a man on first base and himself on second-base, Rui decided that after the ball was hit on the GROUND, he wouldn't run unless told to?! Now correct FNC if their wrong, which by the way they never are, when you are on second base with a runner on first base and the FORCE OUT is at third base - a ball hit on the ground would logically tell you to RUN! 1 It has come to our attention that we here at FNC have badgered Rui enough on the matter and hope the mistake will not be made again! Maybe next time we can get Rui off second base by yelling, "Run Rui, it's immigration!". On to the other "PORT-A-GEE"... Paul " illegal alien" Oliveira. FNC has been plaqued with rumors that Paul has been deported. There will be more on the story next time.

Now on to merrier news. Sunday January 26th saw the FUBAR's hosting a game against "FEEKO SUAVE". A little shaky, but the FUBAR's managed a 5 - 3 victory over the "PORT-A-GEE's" (as quoted from Kevin "Ball-Master" Russo). Sunday was also the unveiling of the FUBAR's new "look"...here's the motto, "FUBAR's: REAL MEN WEAR BLACK" (original huh?). Anyway, this Sunday, February 2nd pits the FUBAR's against their nemisis - GROUND EFFECT. Not that the FUBAR's have ever met these, let's just say "immortals" in a game before (obviously, 'cause we're still alive!) but they have won the softball championship three times! These giants among men are a force to be reckoned with, but FNC has confidence in it's team and truly believe they can prevail! However, in order to prevail, FNC believes a practice is in order So, this SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 1st @ 1:00pm - 4:00pm there will be a MANDATORY practice on the campus field. If you cannot attend, get in touch with FNC as soon as possible. For you who are interested, here's the stats from last Sunday-

Well, there you have it, the current stats. Don't worry about them, they don't mean a thing until later and besides there are plenty of games to bring your spublif they aren't to your liking. They really don't mean much, just think you might want to know them.

To sum, the FUBAR's will be having a practice and game on the following dates-PRACTICE - SATURDAY FEBRUARY 1st @ Campus Field from 1:00pm to 4:00pm MANDATORY GAME - SUNDAY FEBRUARY 2nd @ Campus Field from 3:00pm to 4:00pm vs. GROUND EFFECT

LATER all and FNC hopes to see you soon - REAL MEN WEAR BLACK!

- DAVE - Capt.

FUBAR NEWS-

Hello again FUBARians. How are we in this fine month of February? Glad to hear it. Well, on to the first order of business. It appears there was much controversy over the final play of the FUBAR's last game versus their nemesis GROUND EFFECT. It appears Dave "I've been a bad boy" Moeder almost committed a huge blunder. When approached by FNC for comments, all Mr. Moeder would say was, "I just want to apologize to my fellow players for my blatant disregard for our team and their ability as ball players." Max "Where's my microwave?" Dipietro said some words at the press conference about the matter..., "This is a team-sport big-man, we have to work together not against each other." To which FNC replied, "Yes, we have to work together Mr. Dipietro, where's the five bucks you owe us?" Lastly, Kevin "Golden Glove" Russo took the podeum and said, "All I have to say is I don't know that doofus got to be our captain!" FNC has dealt with the matter and Moeder had to retake the FUBAR pledge along with the following amendment...

... OPPORTUNITY TO PLAY SOFTBALL AND WILL NOT RUN DOWN FELLOW PLAYERS TO MAKE THE LAST OUT OF A GAME!

FNC hopes the matter is closed. Now on to real news. This past Sunday, Feb. 2nd, 1992 saw the FUBAR's battle their rivals GROUND EFFECT. The stadium was packed to sellout crowd of thirty-five thousands screaming FUBAR FANS (O.K., it was more like TEN FUBAR FANS, but who's counting?) The FUBAR's clinched their victory in the bottom of the sixth inning with a score of 7 - 5! This was a big victory for the FUBAR's who were still unsure of themselves after their win over FEEKO SUAVE two weeks ago. Sunday saw much excitement for the FUBAR's who jumped to a 2-0 lead in the first inning from dual sac's by Moeder and Dipietro bringing in the number 1 & 2 batters - Roth and Russo (aslittle R&R?!) Mr. Wil "GAZELLE BOY" Thomas was not at the game, but was temporarily replaced by Chris "I may be quiet, but I'm deadly!?" Smith who proved to be an asset in left field! Max "Debt Man" Dipietro and Ed "Gordo" Gordon had a big game in the outfield, and both once again exhibited their potential and let GROUND EFFECT they mean business. Rui "Dude, I'm O.K. w/ immigration?" Pereira didn't see to much, but played back on the ball well and almost made the play of the game! (Nice Try) Now, to the infield, The Panciello/Russo combo were out in full force, but they were robbed of an out at third which was overturned by League Chairman J.B. "Eyes Closed" Caldwell. On the right side of the infield was the Engel/Moeder pair. These two guys didn't see all that much, however, Jeff "I swear my eyes were open" Engel had an impressive catch at second. Lastly was the team of Chris "My arm is worth more than a Super Nintendo System" Roth and Alex "the rookie" Jahn. It is still too early in the season to determine Alex Jahn's potential and future in the FUBAR organization, but with Roth, that task should be easy. Due to FNC's past knowledge of Chris "million dollar arm" Roth's performance and his performance at Sunday's game, we at FNC can tell you - "He ain't goin' nowhere!"

MVP's of Sunday's game

Chris Roth 3 for 4 w/ two RBI's and two RUNs and some hellacious pitching Rui Pereira? 3 for 3 w/ two RUNs and an RBI and some good field playing Kevin Russo 3 for 4 w/ a double an RBI and a RUN & " " !

Well gentlemen, no stats this week, you all were worth a 1000 Good Playing! I'll get in touch with you to let you know when our practice will be (probably Sat.) Later Boys...

Hello again FUBAR's ...

It has come to the attention of the FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION (FNC) that they are faced with a dilemma. No way - Way; No way - Way, O.K. Excellent!? AnyWay, FNC is facing some difficulties. It appears that due to the recent demise of the FUBAR's, ticket sales and fan-turn outs have decreased significantly. Thus causing a peristaltic drop in revenue! So, how can the problem be overcome? you ask. Simply by winning games (easier said than done). It appears the FUBAR's lost there second in a row last Sunday despite having no outs and runners in scoring position! FNC could not understand this loss, it was, as it is known at FNC headquarters...an unfortunate circumstance! Co-Captain (49%) Kevin "Wild-Thang" Russo was approached after the game for comments, but all he would say was, "You know what this means to us don't you? Well don't you? (eyewitnesses say reporter at this time shook his head in bewilderment) ... Well let me show you ... " (eyewitnesses stated that Kevin "Wild-Thang"? Russo impaled the reporter with a rake?) Other minor incidents soon followed, such as the fire-bombing of various BEAST OF THE EAST vehicles. No suspects have been aprehended as of yet, but sources say one of the alleged was seen as quote, "galloping away?" FNC denied questioning by reporters, but did say that, "FNC controls all, our men don't move unless we say move, or here's more money, or something of the sort!" Sunday also saw the hospitalization of a one - Co-CAPTAIN (51%) Dave "Homer-dome" Moeder. It appears that he was attacked by Rui "alien-immigrant Supreme" Pereira who utilized the ancient Port-A-Gee offense known as "Babblism". Moeder was reported as being carried off screaming, "Shut-Up -Rui, Shut-Up!?", Rui only statement was, "Dude, he made me catch?"

In other news, FNC has stated in a recent press conference, "The FUBAR's will be back, it is only a matter of time ... one thing the team will have is FUBAR PRIDE - a tradition of excellence." later in the conference FNC also came out to say, "Of course there is that matter of practice as well?"

PRACTICE-

Saturday from 7:00pm to 9:00pm @ Campus Field - MANDATORY!!!!!

GAME-

Sunday @ 3:00pm @ Campus Field versus WON BY ONE

The following is an interview which was conducted by FNC \mbox{w}/\mbox{Steve} "Bookie" Taylor...

FNC - "Mr. Taylor, thank you for joining us!"

SST - "I'm glad to be here - NOT!"

FNC - " Mr. Taylor, how do you feel about the recent display of softball skill by the FUBAR organization?"

SST - "What recent display of softball skill?"

FNC - "What do you feel the future holds for the FUBAR organization?"

SST - "Some more wins - I hope?"

- FNC "What do you feel the FUBAR's can do to improve their game off the field as well as on?"
- SST "Those bunch of losers should go to practice and learn to hit the ball. Oliveira should get some sleep before games! Rui should start thinking. Lay off Max's Super Nintendo system Dan and everybody in general GET YOUR HEAD OUT OF YOUR #@!%#!!!"
- FNC "Lastly Mr. Taylor, do you feel the FUBAR's have a chance to win the championship?" SST "If the FUBAR's plan to capture the championship, they better remember how to win

FNC - "Thank you Mr. Taylor for your time and honesty (NOT!)"

SST - "Sure, year yea so, you'll send the check directly to my account right?!"

Well folks, that's it for this weeks newsletter, so we will see you all at practice. By the way, MVP of last Sunday's game was, that's right you guessed it Dave "Boss-Man" Moeder w/ a two run homer. Well the MVP of the losing team, which shouldn't be possible, but remember, FNC can do anything it wants to!

FUBAR'S - RE-UNIFIED

Hello again gentlemen. Welcome to our forum (yea' right!). Anyway, here's the news-Last Sunday, March 8th saw the FUBAR's pitted against WON BY ONE, a team rumoured to eat their opponents alive. Well, the FUBAR's did all the chewing Sunday and defeated them by a score of, and hang on to your hats (NOT!) - 3 to 2. The FUBAR's left something to be desired of it's offense, but played defense like a brick wall - un-breakable (by convential means anyway; just want to keep the engineers off our backs here at FNC.) Chris "Golden Goose" Roth was approached after the game for comments, but was too busy hugging teammates for questioning. Ed "Gordo (which means "fat" in spanish - a slight oxymoron" Gordon was approached for comments as well, "Well, I'm glad to see the FUBAR's are back in shape, I can't explain myself, I went donut on offense, but defensively al would be considered among the greats of the game!" Stephen "Book Boy" Taylor was asked for his comments after the game ..., "I'm glad to see they took my advice and got their heads out of there ----, however it was a tad bit scary when the Chris² showed up after our team was already called by forfeit, the luck just doesn't run out for the FUBAR's." FNC would like to intervene here and make a comment, "We here at FNC would just like to thank J.B. "Eyes Closed" Caldwell and the other members of WON BY ONE for that game. It was up to them whether we played or not, they made the mistake.!" Back to news... Just because the FUBAR's have won a game and are "Back in the saddle" aggainh (Aerosmith, Rocks c 1975.) does not mean that they can just take some time off. This Sunday, March -15th pits the FUBAR's visiting the BUSH PILOTS @ 11:00am Campus Field. This team is rumoured to be unpredictable, so FNC has taken measures to secure a win (No Rui, we didn't talk to them until blood came out of their ears), FNC has scheduled practice. The following times will be practice times and your schedule for the week:

PRACTICE-

Saturday March 14th from 10:00am - 12:00pm @ Campus Field

Saturday March 14th from 16:00pm - 18:00pm @ Campus Field (4-6pm for non-military)

GAME-

Sunday March 15th at 11:00am versus BUSH PILOTS @ Campus Field

ALL PRACTICES ARE MANDATORY ATTENDANCE UNLESS VIABLE EXCUSES ARE BROUGHT TO FNC!!!

There appears to have been a breach of security in the FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION. A few weeks ago FNC mentioned the upcoming release of the WIL THOMAS STORY. After much heated debate at the bargaining table, Wil Thomas and FNC could not come to terms, so the Spring release was put on hold. Well it appears that two copies of the story have escaped FNC publishing district, the FUBAR PUBLISHING CORPORATION. FNC would appreciate the return of the aforementioned items. If they are promptly returned, no questions will be asked and FNC will consider the matter closed.

In other news, last Sunday's game saw the absence of three FUBAR's...

Max "Top Gun" Dipietro who was out doing the flying thing. That's not the interesting story, this is... Paul "illegal immigrant" Oliveira and Dan "Lobotomize me" Panciello or Kyle and Richard Petty as there friends call them were given a counseling session by ene of Virginia's finest. It apparently went something like this..., "O.K. you worthless little punks, drop to the ground with your hands on your heads." Paul and Dan were very cooperative and Paul even got to stay in one Virginia's fine jails. This incident will have no effect on Sunday's game, and the FUBAR's will be fine Sunday. FNC will not verify the validity of this story, but is presented to you from interviews with the alleged...

See ya' all @ the game (practice first!)

Later Boys, DAVE (Capt.)

How are we?! I hope we are enjoying this fine week of March. FNC is currently counting revenue acquired from last Sunday's game. It seems with the recent bounce-back by the FUBAR's; fans have been coming out of the woodwork! FNC wishes to thank it's class "A" ball club. Well, on to the news...

Now for some upcoming information:

PRACTICE NEWS-

Saturday March 21st, 1992 from 12:00pm to 2:00pm @ Campus Field. Saturday March 21st, 1992 from 6:00pm to 8:00pm @ Campus Field.

PRACTICES ARE MANDATORY!

GAME NEWS-

Sunday March 22nd, 1992 at 12:00pm NOON versus THUNDERBATS @ CAMPUS FIELD * FIRST WEEK OF PLAYOFFS!

Update! It appears that after much heated debate, a settlement has been made. It appears that last Saturday March 14th, 1992 the FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION with it's affiliate the FUBAR PUBLISHING CORPORATION (FPC) went over contract negotiations with a Mr. William "Four legs good, two legs bad" Thomas about the release of his book, RUNNING with the GAZELLES: The Wil Thomas Story. After hours of negotiations, an agreement was finally made. The contract called for a publishing run and circulation of about 2,000,000 copies with 22.4% of profits returning to Wil Thomas plus an additional 2,500,000 copies for Wil to shred and use as stall bedding? FPC was glad to say the negotiations were over. Both partiess were too busy for interviews, but both did say they feet they got the better of the deal?!

In other news, Stephen "Bookmaster" Taylor was arrested and charged with illegal gambling. In Italian pears that having access to all FUBAR Records, Mr. Taylor placed various bets for and (yes it is sad) against his parent team. Mr. Taylor won an estimated seven and a half million cases of beer from the Anheiser Busch brewing company_{tm}. Mr. Taylor was approached about the matter all his comments were was, "I like beer, I mean, I Really like beer!" Mr. Taylor was also reported as saying, "I'll be out in time for playoffs!" The FNC denied all attempts for an interview, but did say, "We aren't worried about Mr. Taylor's situation, FNC takes care of it's people!"

That's it for the news gentlemen, and I am outta' here, but remember this quote by a wise softball player,

"The game is not overcuntil they pry my cold dead hands from my mitt!"

Dave Capt. *92

How do you spell relief? How about with an 11 to 9 victory in the first game of the playoffsd Works for us!? Well, the playoffs have started and last Sunday, March 22 saw the FUBAR's pitted against it's weekly nemesis - THUNDERBATS. Well, ecept for some scary moments and deficient defense by the FUBAR's, the THUNDERBATS will be referred to now as the BLUNDERBATS!? Believe it or not, at one point in the game, the FUBAR's were losing and showing no signs of a potential comeback! But lo' when thou hast expected none but thy lest, thou must support thineself upon thy bat-work of master Dipietro. Max "Tag it, Bag it, Call it gone!" Dipietro hit a three run home run to bring the FUBAR's out of its' slump. Following Mr. Dipietro's homer was FUBAR Capt. (51%) Dave "call me BAT-MAN" Moeder with another solo home-run. After Moeder (Capt. 51%) was Ed "I'll show you boys how it's done" Gordon who believe it or not stroked a, that's right you guessed it a solo-home-run. Finally Dan "That's right you put me in" Panciello topped off the streak with a solid triple (and eventually brought in by Kevin "Two for Two" Russo (Capt. 49%)). Stevee "I didn't bet on this game?!" Taylor was approached for comments after the game to which he replied, "That's my boys!" Kevin "Call me Stroke!?" Russo (CApt. 49%) was approached after the game for his views to which he replied, "Intense, %#$@!¢%$ Intense!" Rui was approached for comments but was too busy milking Chris "Lord of the Mound" Roth for money for his broken OAKLEYS"Dude, that's fifteen bucks dude!?"

It appears that many of you FUBAR's, being of a slightly lower intelligence class, espe

It appears that many of you FUBAR's, being of a slightly lower intelligence class, especially Dan "I've been lobotomized!?" Panciello are a little upset over the words deficient defense. FNC is not saying it's ball-club played bad, just a little off! FNC wishes to apologize to any players this may have been offensive to! DAN, we're saying we're sorry!? Dan "I do have a clue?" Panciello approached FNC and stated that he will not read the FUBAR News if he is not featured in it. He also expressed his discontent about FNC stating that he has undergone a lobotomy and feels it is outrageous that FNC cannot tell whether or not he has a brain! So, FNC admitted Mr. Panciello into the

FMC (FUBAR Medical Center) for head X-rays, the following was found:

Normal Skull?

Panciello Skull

Includes:

-Beer

-Cigarettes

-Non-Earth material?

Capt. 51%

As you can see by the results, Panciello is a regular all-around FUBAR! (NOT!?) Anyway, enough ripping on the guy, how much can one person take? Here's the info. you all need for this week...

GAME NEWS- SUNDAY, MARCH 29,1992 @ 12:00 pm @ DERBYSHIRE#1 VS. BUSH PILOTS

SUNDAY, MARCH 29.1992 @ 2:00 pm @ DERBYSHIRE*1 VS. UNDERTAKERS, CORLEGNE FAMILY OR ROW COCA!
Well FUBAR's that all for this week, and remember this quote, by that once wise softball player,

"It's a very simple game, you throw the ball, you catch the ball, you hit the ball. Sometimes you win, sometimes you lose, sometimes it rains."

Later men, and I will see you all Saturday and Sunday! Live long and prosper!

PS SATURDAY PRACTICE IS MANDATORY!!!

Hello my fellow FUBARians.

Well, it appears that last Sunday, March 29th ended the season for the FUBAR's. The FUBAR's started off the day of softball festivities @ 12:00pm at the Derbyshire sports complex with a game against the BUSH PILOTS. The PILOTS rallied early in the game, but they couldn't hold off the onslaught brought down on them by the FUBAR's. The FUBAR's won the game by a score of 11 to 3. After a one hour sabatical, the FUBAR's were pitted against RON CON COCA; an immigrant team from the Dominican Republic (whom only Rui could understand, go figure!?). The CON COCA's rallied big in the first inning of play scoring seven runs against the FUBAR's. Although the FUBAR's made a valiant attempt, they could not come back and were defeated by a score of 10 to 8. So, the FUBAR's advanced to the final four, but were denied a chance at the championship. FNC would like to say at this time that it feels its ball club had a hell of a season. FUBAR captain Dave "I'll be back!" Moeder (51%) was approached for comments to which he had this to say, "I've only got two words to say, Spring '93!... Or maybe three words?" Stephen "I am the BOOKMASTER" Taylor was approached for his opinions..., "It can only be summed up as BLACK SUNDAY!" Ed "Rookie" Gordon was asked for his comments, ... "I got nothin' to say." Rui "I came, I saw, I talked till I was hoarse" Pereira was too shaken up by Sunday's incident for comments. Various other FUBAR's were asked for their views on the occurences...

Craig "Das' Right" Weaver, "Aw man, I thought we had it!?"
Wil "I'm not a #$% @ ! Gazelle!" Thomas, "That was a load of crap, we had that game!"
Chris "Pitching Machine" Roth, "I don't know what happened, We just didn't get it together...Damn!"

Dan "If I only had a brain" Panciello, "They just hit, I mean they just hit well; Nothing we could do, nothing!"

Jeff "Back in the Saddle" Engel, "Tough break...Damn this sucks!"

Chris "All-Star" Smith, "It was hell, the field was not a pretty place!?"

Max "M1A1" Dipietro, "Big Man, What happened?, I thought we were in!"

Kevin "I want Blood" Russo (Capt. 49%), "I only have to say, We Will be BACK!, and taking no prisoners!"

Well FUBAR's so ends a great season of softball, the Final Four of forty teams, a victory in itself. FNC will notify the time and place of the first annual FUBAR-B Que '92; after verification with the FUBAR ball-club. Great work! Later fella's this is your captain (51%), and all around great quy...

RUNNING with the GAZELLES...The Wil Thomas Story from the New York Times #1 Best-seller: Thomas...Leader of the Pack

The temperature was rising past 100° as noon approached. Packs of lions could be seen from the worn path which served as the main artery through the Serengeti. They were no threat though. Most were resting in the shade of shrubs or if they were fortunate a small tree.

But this was not the Thomas couple's concern. The lord was their concern. Missionaries sent to the third world nation of Tanzania. The two were sent to reach out to isolated tribes in order to civilize. Three years before, the couple came alone... six months ago, the two became three...

The third was a child of strength, of determination, of mental deficiency. He knew not of fear, nor of danger. This trait proved to change his life before it had a chance to begin.

The landrover gasped and choked and even with the motor running, they could hear the boiling inside the radiator. They had to stop.

As the big metal beast rested, animals resumed activity. Will watched them in fascination. Lions hunted, Hyenas followed close behind and then he saw them ... Gazelles! Swift footed, full of grace. Wil screeched excitedly, he reached his hands out - farther - farther...

Wil fell from the rover with an audible whump! His outstanding hands which yearned to touch the gazelles, which were about a quarter of a mile away, saved him from injury. He sat up and all was silent except for the deafening snores from inside the rover. His father continued working on the vehicle.

As wil made his way towards the gazelles, the tall grass which engulfed him and divine intervention saved his life. Nearby predators neither saw nor sensed Wil's vulnerable position and about an hour later, Wil reached the gazelles...

There he sat surrounded by the gazelles. Questionably, the gazelles sniffed him, licked him, marked him as their territory. Wil gurgled happily. He knew he was home.

Wil's biological parents hadn't noticed that he was gone until hours after they resumed their journey. As the sun painted the sky a deep red, they completed a complete retrace of their drive to no avail. They wished Wil the best, but feared the worst and with pain and grief continued on...

Wil spent most of the day on the back of his new "mother", a young female gazelle. She fed him and protected the innocent child. That night, he learned about danger. Lion packs kept them on the run. Instincts which Wil would learn kept them alive.

Over the next few years the gazelles showed Wil how to graze, sense danger and... run, that was most important. Wil learned to run fast - foot over hand over foot over hand ...

Being slightly more intelligent than the wisest gazelle in the herd, Wil learned relatively quickly and soon was able to pace the gazelles. He was no longer a handicap, rather his human cunning and strategy made him an asset to the herd. Within the herd he was considered the wisest-thirteen years passed since he left the landrover...

In the spring, Wil felt the urge for the first time. The urge to create another gazelle to roam the Earth. He had to find a mate, but who? The only female gazelle he really knew was ... yes, that's it! - his mother! Wil would mate with his mother? months passed...

When his mate produced no offspring, he was driven into a deep depression. He knew he didn't belong with the gazelles, but he didn't know where he belonged. More importantly he loved the gazelles but, he had to leave. But he couldn't leave, but he HAD to leave! Eventually the quadruped would wander into civilization...

Wil was reunited with his parents and is now studying in college. He has broken most of his habits although, sometimes one can catch him walking on all fours, grazing in nearby (left) fields, and running in fear. He has not forgotten how to run fast and today you may find him displaying his speed on the base paths or in left field. But deep down, Wil wishes he could get one last chance to - run with the gazelles...

Chapter IV Fall 1992

"Home Sweet Homecoming"

Fall 1992 was the turning point, our "Gettysburg" if you will. We had lost Max and Dan - Which hurt. Dan Panciello, who only played one season (Spring 1992), was one of those guys that just made it look too easy. He would make plays none of us could ever dream of –at least not at this stage in our careers. He was almost like a goalie at third base just getting in front of the ball no matter the cost. I studied him a lot and took a lot of that "instinct" to the position when I finally took over down the road.

But I digress, the Fall 1992 "season" was a great turning point for us as this was the first time we won the whole thing! With no regular season play, Fall 1992 consisted of just the playoffs in the form of a single elimination tournament. I, along with Chris Roth and Kevin Russo, aggressively pursued a few players for the tournament team. We were fortunate enough now to have eight seasoned FUBAR veterans and for this tournament acquired some good solid players including Ron Doles who would go on and play with us for a couple seasons before his coup attempt in the Fall of 1993 and Bobby Romero another guy who was just phenomenal (but unfortunately leaving school at the end of the semester.) In any case, we won this tournament but, this was still just a stepping stone, I wanted to win the full "A" league season championship! I wanted all the glory and thanks to all our hard work, little did I know, I wouldn't have too much longer to wait...

FUBAR News Corporation

Hello again my FUBARians!? How are we this fine week of Oct.? Well, let's get down to the news: Last Sunday, October 25th, the FUBAR's were pitted against the 99.9FM team. Although most of the FUBAR ball club has been out of practice, the FUBAR's clinched a 16-8 victory! One FUBAR was quoted as saying, "I listen to 102 Jams anyway" The FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION (FNC) will not release the name of this individual...PIMENTAL, BOX ...

After a press conference Monday, the FUBAR MANAGEMENT (FM) stated, "We've got our boys!" FM also wishes to thank all those who were at the game in support of the FUBAR cause. The game Sunday also brought in another prospect for the FUBAR ball club; Jeff "the wildman" Wood. FM said, "He's in, He's ours!" Jeff Wood said at the press conference, "I don't know yet, I don't want to cut myself short!?" FUBAR MANAGEMENT said they feel confident with their tournament squad.

On to other news; FUBAR affiliate SUDDEN IMPACT, captained(???) by Chris "the rail!" Roth dominated the Co-Rec softball league at Embry-Riddle Aero. Univ. this past Monday Night. It appears that after an undefeated season, SUDDEN IMPACT won two straight to take the championship! However, due to the intense nature of Co-Rec softball, Ron "I'm from Joisey Man!" Doles was injured. He was admitted to the FUBAR MEDICAL CENTER (FMC) late Monday night. His doctor, Dr. I.M. Sore phD said, "Ron is a strong man, he'll do fine as long as he doesn't, well, you know!?" FUBAR Management placed RON on the DL list, status is day to day. Another injury, Chris "jello shoulder" Roth is nursing a 14 day DL. His status is tentative. Chris said at a press conference, "Dude, I don't care about the consequences, I'm playing come November 2nd!" Despite his efforts, Roth is still tentative! SUDDEN IMPACT players were quite satisfied with their victory. Some individuals even started chanting, "You guys suck, you guys suck!" and dancing around the losing team weilding bats! The festivities continued for some time until Chris said, "Don't let Ron get away, he's buying the KEG!" Ron "It hurts to touch myself?!" Doles was last seen heading North on I-95 at speeds in excess of 65!?

Back to the FUBAR's; it appears that there has been some complaints in the FUBAR ball club as to where some people will be playing, etc. FUBAR MANAGEMENT reserves the right to withhold any and all info. it deems "classified" from FUBAR ball players. However FM did state that there will be no special treatment for veteran ball players (that is unless there is a crisp-one invloved!?). FM states that the ball club will be run according to the benefit of the team!

As well as favoritism, FUBARians have been upset at FNC's "lack of coverage" of various members of the squad. FNC will cover all "bases" and cover all players. Each week FNC will run a special newsletter centering on one individual player. Next's week featured player will be; Jeff "3rd String" Engel; How I was a star second baseman and lost it all! The follow-up will be on Rui "I could spittle up to ten feet" Pereira; Why he babbles? FUBAR's; the HOMECOMING TOURNAMENT is NOV 2-5. NEXT PRACTICE-SUNDAY @ CAMPUS FIELD time- to be announced.

See you all soon, and remember, "Real Men Wear Black!" Later Boys-

DAVE (capt 99%

Due to FNC popularity, it was requested that an additional page be included with this newsletter. FNC will utilize this to exhibit the 1992 EMBRY-RIDDLE-AERO. UNIV. Homecoming team;

Chris "Rag-Arm, Rag-Weed" Roth- Pitcher (DL-tentative)
Craig "I'm better than this" Weaver- Catcher
Ed "the stick!" Gordon- 1st Base
Jeff "benchwarmer" Engel- 2nd Base
Kevin "the trap" Russo- Short-Stop
Brad "the stroker" Green- 3rd Base
Chris "the man, the myth" Smith- Left Field
Bob "need for speed" Romero-Center Field
Rui "I still can't dress?" Pereira- Right Field
Dave "yo' King" Moeder- Rover
Tim "downtown" Pimental- Utility (Outfield)
Jeff "Homerdome" Wood- Utility (Infield/All quadrants)
Ron "I've fallen and..." Doles- Utility (Infield)

FNC has confirmed from FUBAR MANAGEMENT that the above players are not exhibited in the starting positions, but by there past playing positions. There may/ may not be changes to the line-up prior to game time on Monday, Nov 2!?

Last order of business. FNC lost a very valuable person from it's ball club this season. Steve "Record KING, and ALL-Knowing stat analyst" Taylor has left the FUBAR organization. It appears that of all things, Steve has finally graduated. Go figure!? So FNC wishes it's congrats to Steve and would like to recognize his efforts and assistance to the ball club! Basically, were back to doing our own books!

Actually the last order of business is to thank our band/cheering section last Sunday. Thanks?

See you Sunday...

FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION

Hello FUBARians and FUBAR prospects. Well it's about that time again...time for softball. There have been some changes to the FUBAR ball club during since the past season. Some of which are the following: Due to failed negotiations, FNC has canceled contracts with Max "deserter" Dipietro, Dan "lobotomize me" Panciello, and Wil "Gazelle" Thomas. The aforementioned players have been stripped of all playing clearance and FUBAR benefits. FNC was unavailable for comments. However, FNC did say that the following FUBAR prospects have been acquired on a "tentative" basis: Tim "the mouse" Pimental, Brad "mean" Green, Bob "Speedy Gonzalez" Romero, and Ron Ron "I touch myself" Doles. Therefore, FNC has released its' team roster for the great Embry-Riddle Aero Univ. homecoming tournament;

Dave Moeder
Ed Gordon
Rui Pereira
Christian SMith
Ron Doles
Brad Green

Kevin Russo Chris Roth Jeff Engel Craig Weaver Bob Romero Tim Pimental

FNC management has undergone some drastic changes. It appears that Dave "I am the king" Moeder has bought out Kevin "When did this happen?" Russo's stock in Fubar Management. IT now appears that Dave "I have it all" Moeder is Captain (99%)! Kevin "this is BULL@!#%&&" Russo was unavailable for comment. On to other news, Chris "stick-man" Roth has been injured. The FUBAR Medical Center (FMC) has transferred Mr. Roth to the ROTH Trauma Center for further tests. Neither center will release information on Roth's status. Roth however said in a press conference, "I will play in the tournament, I don't care what happens!" FNC will reward ROTH with an additional "Bonus" for his dedication to the ball club. NOT!

GAME NEWS-

The FUBAR TOURNAMENT TEAM (FTT) will be converging for a game/scrimmage on Sunday OCTOBER 25th. The FTT will either have a practice or, if negotiations continue a scrimmage pitting the FTT versus the 99.9 FM team. The date again:

OCTOBER 25th (SUNDAY)

All Fubar players are reported to report to the event. FNC has deemed it a MANDATORY attendance event. This means you Chris Smith! As for the FUBAR Spring Ball-Club, player cuts and contract deals will be determined after the Tournament. FNC will release the time and dates of the OCT. 25th reunion and the tournament at a later date. Until then FNC wishes all well and hopes to see you soon...

DAVE Capt. 99%

Sorry about errors, FNC still has yet to invest in proper news-processing equipment.

FABAR News Corporation

Hello again FUBARians! The top story, FUBAR's put G.E.'s LIGHTS Out! Yes gentlemen, after a three year stretch, the FUBAR's have prevailed. Between the dates of November 2 thru November 5, ERAU was host to four days of gut-wrenching, bile-gushing, cutthroat softball!? Fourteen teams entered the tournament, all confident they had what it takes to be the best, but when the guns were silenced, and the smoked cleared from the battlefield, there stood eleven men who would call themselves the FUBAR's. Total domination was the key as the FUBAR's kept it together throughout the entire tournament. Led by their fearless captain Dave "I am the King!" Moeder, the FUBAR's reeked havoc amongst the greatest of foes to stand before their nemesis GROUND EFFECT. The FUBAR's eager for the taste of blood and the thrill of the hunt, put the lid on their victory at approximately 6:50pm on November 5th. The tournament was filled with dazzleing highlights. The FUBAR outfield looked like an intense choreographed acrobatic routine, while the in-field looked as sharp as the blade of a Ninja's Long Sword (Ow-kuh-chu)!?

Various players deserve recognition for there playing during the tournament, so FNC feels it is necessary to list the roster that made it all possible:

Chris "Bulls-eye Baby" Roth - Pitching 7/12

Jeff "Did I hear "uncle"?" Wood- Utility 8/11

Bob "War-Cry" Romero - Outfield 7/11

Dave "Stretch" Moeder - 1st Base 4/11

Kevin "Warrior Boy" Russo - Short-Stop 4/10

Brad "I'm Home?" Green - 3rd Base 8/11

Chris "I am the Greatest" Smith - Outfield 5/11

Rui "I am ON FIRE!" Pereira - Outfield 5/10

Jeff "I'm Back Boyee?" Engel - 2nd Base 2/4

Ed "Bark like a dog" Gordon - Rover 4/9

Craig "the senior citizen" Weaver - Catcher 3/6

Despite various portions of those statitics, all FUBAR's hit when it was critical to a FUBAR victory. One spectator was quoted as saying during one game, "These guys are amazing!" Rumor has it, it was not someone from the opposing team. The following are the MVP's for the FUBAR ball-club for the 1992 tournament team;

Bob "We kicked #$%@$&¢!" Romero 7/11 6runs,5RBI's,3doubles,1triple Brad "Unbelieveable" Green 8/11 3runs,4RBI's,1double, 2triples Jeff "Saaa-Weeet!" Wood 8/11 6runs,5RBI's,2doubles,1Home-Run

FNC will discuss contract renegotiations for the Spring season as Brad "it's gonna take some serious cash" Green, and Bob "I'm outta here!" Romero will be eligible for free-agency!?

Rumors are ciculating that everyone and their uncle wants a piece of the FUBAR franchise. What do we say to that. Here at FNC we say "BITE ME!" The following were the games and there respective scores;

Lambda Chi 0 vs FUBAR's 13
Rototillers 2 vs FUBAR's 4
FUBAR's 15 vs Sigma Chi 5
FUBAR's 10 vs Ground Effect 4

After various discussing with various people, it was determined that this FUBAR victory will be dedicated to all those who came to watch the FUBAR's as well as assist in the running of a smooth team. This also includes a Mr. Stephen "Bookmaster" Taylor; a legend in the FUBAR organization. FNC wishes to thank all for their humble support!

So, this concludes the FUBAR Fall 1992 Season. The FUBAR's will continue to train against various opponents through-out the remainder of the semester as well as recruit for the Spring. At which time we hope MR. Ron "cripple" Doles will be removed from the DL and be placed at READY status. Once again men, Great job and remeber, FUBAR's are the smashin', crashin', thumpin, pumpin, jumpin', rockin', rollin', thrillin', chillin', mean, nasty, dirty, ugly, killing kick ASS team!

Later Boys,

DAVE (capt 99%)

Intermural department hosts competitions during Homecoming

By Jaye Howell Sports Editor

In support of Homecoming, the intramural department sponsored special softball and floor hockey

The Fubars won in softball, while the Breakers won the floor hockey competition. Both champion teams were awarded special Homecoming T-shirts after their victories.

The first round of floor hockey was played on Monday, Nov. 2. Lambda Chi defeated the Force in the first game by a score of 4-2.

In the second game of the night, Random Violence shut out the Village People with a score of 5-0. championship with a win over students.

Sigma Chi. In the final game of the evening The Kings defeated OPP by a score of 7-1.

The next day, Random Violence lost three to four in a tough game with Lambda Chi. The game went into overtime as the score was tied three to three at the end of regula-

In the second game, the Breakers defeated the Kings. On Wednesday, the championship game was held. The Breakers came out and dominated the game. They won the game by a score of 8-0.

The individual scores for the softball tournament were not available, but it is known that the Fubars won the final game on Thursday.

Overall, the competition created The Breakers started toward their a much needed diversion for

Chapter VSpring 1993

"Vulgar Display of Power"

Spring 1993 was just, in a word, "magic." This was our "first time." We fought hard through the season and ended it undefeated 10-0 and won the "A" league championship against our arch rival Ground Effect. The season could not have been written any better and I wouldn't do it any justice trying to write anymore about it now. For me like everything I do, it was some finality. After 3 years of hard work and dedication, I led the boys to the championship. That's what I wanted. That done now I just wanted to play, let someone else lead. As far as I was concerned the foundation was set and the team was very solid at this point. We were sitting on a total win percentage for the FUBAR's of 91.6% with 24 wins and 2 losses over the last two year period for all games played (year one was not included in this statistic:o) The dynasty had begun!...

FUBAR News Corporation

Hello my fellow FUBARians, welcome back from your vacation. FNC would like to wish all a be-lated happy holidays, but it's not in your contracts, so your out of luck!? ANyway, to fill you all in on what's up in the FUBAR organization, grab a seat and read on dudes...

It appears the FUBAR's will be undergoing some changes this season (as usual), which do not include the upper managaement - sorry guys! Anyway, the FUBAR's have lost a couple of players since the Homecoming tournament last Fall, but traded off by acquiring these fine players:

Paul "the missing!" Johnson Brett "the grunt" Gaylord

The big news is Chris "I'm goin' in the majors" Roth has left the FUBAR's organization. Rumours were ciculating that after heated negotiations with FUBAR Upper Management (FUM) aka Dave "No Holds Barred" Moeder, Chris was banished from the FUBAR "kingdom" and any FUBAR "activities. The Truth?! however is that Chris has left to pursue a Co-Op and will not be with the FUBAR's this season!. FNC has mentioned that it was unfortunate to lose Roth and was overheard saying, "Why couldn't it have been Pereira?" Just kidding Rui you little... Little... whatever the hell it is you are!?

The next order is our annual FUBAR Dues. That's right, FNC has come to most of you, but some have yet to make their "donation" to the FUBAR ball-club. We won't mention any names (Weaver), but you know who you are, so get that money in as soon as possible!

Our jerseys should arrive a week from this saturday.

Last order of business is practice, this is the following

Practice:

SUNDAY JANUARY 24th @ 3:00pm @ Campus Field

PRACTICE IS MANDATORY, THOSE FAILING TO SHOW WILL BE DEALT WITH ACCORDINGLY AND MAY HAVE TO ANSWER TO CHRISTIAN "The Intimidator" SMITH!!!??!?!!

Our first game will be the following Sunday January 31st. See you all this Sunday and get those "donations" in, thanks.

Dave

Capt. 99%

Hello my fellow Fubarian's. Time and time again I have greeted you with that saying and it's time I think of a new one? I have a problem with thinking (makes my head hurt) so it may actually take a while!? Anyway, the Spring 1993 season is upon us and the FUBAR's are psyched and ready to go!!? I have two words for our supposed opponents last Sunday, "No Show", I have one more word, "LOSERS!" It appears that last Sunday, the FUBAR's were to play a team by the name of BLADDER BOYS. They must have heard rumors, saw the news, I don't know, but something told them to stay home that afternoon! So, the FUBAR's being without an opponent elected to play a pick up game with, that's right their nemesis The ROTOTILLERS (what the hell is a rototiller anyway?). The FUBAR's coming offa pre-season loss to the tiller's decided to seek revenge. It was slow going at first, with the FUBAR's trailing, but the guns came alive in the 4th inning when an additional 4 runs were added to the FUBAR's already one and the final score was etched in everyone's mind. So, the FUBAR's won 5-4 over the ROTOTILLERS, and as quoted from Rui "Dude, you didn't play me" Pereira, "We ain't lookin' back!!" Although the FUBAR's ball-club had a few shaky moments, we were reminded by Jeff "I'm a machine" Engel , "Don't forget, your dealing with a semi-rookie squad with a lot of new players whose potential hasn't been fully exhibited." The FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION (FNC) has released a statement to the press stating, "Our ball club has always strived to be the best, and though we lost a FEW GOOD MEN (paramount 1993), we acquired additional players with great ball-playing potential." So, there you have it straight from the horses mouth! (No Rui, we said horses mouth, not horses) Anyway, it's that portion of the newsletter where we show you what you did last Sunday:

Craig "I wasn't supposed to be here" W	Weaver0/2
Rui "I need SLEEP!" Pereira	0/1

Well, there you have it, the stats from last SUnday. FNC is not sure whether they will count yet, that is still under discussion. The last order of business, is the following: NEVER TRY AND STRETCH A DOUBLE INTO TRIPLE IF YOU DON'T HAVE A PRAYER! I'll let you know when the next game is later in the week!?

DAVE Capt. 99%

P.S. FNC would like to say it's Superbowl Bash was a great success and thanks to those who came! Sorry some of you couldn't. Sorry you weren't invited RUI??!

Well, well, how are we this week? It appears The FUBAR's are having a good week at that! After two weeks of ball, the FUBAR's jump to the top with a record of 2-0. Who do they share that position with? Who cares is what we think!? So, what's the news? Well, it appears that the FUBAR's played against the BUSH PILOTS and for lack of a better term, "Grounded" them, "Pummeled" them, took away thier right to live baby! The FUBAR's won by a score of 12-2 no thanks to Capt. Dave "I Rule" Moeder's 0 for 3 performance. but, needless to say, but let's brag, the FUBAR's went home early last Sunday! Goats of the game, Dave "Denied!" Moeder, 0 for 3 hitting! (fielding was good though?!) anyway, and Rui "I think I can" Pereira who was taken out trying to stretch it home, obviously learned how to run bases at the Ron Doles Base-running Institute! FNC would like to acknowledge those players who performed above and beyond the call of duty... Jeff "Stroke-Man" Wood 2/3 w/ 1 Home-run, 1 double, 2 runs, and 3 RBI's; Scott "I'm a New-Bee" Placella 2/3 w/ 2 doubles, 2 runs; and Kevin "Five-Man" Russo 2/2 w/ 2 runs, and 3 RBI's; lastly would be Christian "Don't TEST me!?" Smith who made a spectatular catch to finish the game, nice job guys! For those of you keeping track, here's the latest stats:

Jeff "I AM the greatest" Wood 2/3 1HR, 12B, 3run, 3 RBI's Craig "I need ancatchycname" Whitehead 10.00/2 2runs, 1BB Scott "Let's talk franchise" Placella 2/3 22B, 2runs, 2RBI's Dave "Slump" Moeder 0/3 Kevin "I'm on fire baby" Russo 2/2 3runs, 3RBI's Christian "It's a bird, It's a..." Smith 2/3 1run Jeff "Do I do anything, What gives?" Engel 1/3 12B, 1run Brett".....!?" Gaylord 1/3 Rui "Dude, I was safe!?" Pereira 2/3 1RBI Ed "WALKer-Boy" Gordon 0/1 2BB, 1run Paul "I'm gettin screwed" Johnson 0/2 1run

Not at the game was Ron Doles and Craig Weaver!? Don't ask! Anyway, we are having a practice this weekend on saturday, here's the info: Oh, this is MANDATORY!!!

Saturday February 13th @ 12:00pm on the Campus Field

Be there, or face the Spank machine!? So that's it for the news, on to current events? There has been a Roth sighting. Several eyewitnesses report "seeing" Chris Roth purchasing a quart of milk and some TIC TAC's at a local convenience store in UTAH! FNC has released a statement that they are unaware of ROTH's presence and that they had a "hard enough" time trying to just get rid of him! Look for these up-coming stories...

Who's going to run the FUBAR's, what's their future?
Rui Pereira: A look inside; Empty or just confused?
Ron Doles the man, the myth, the legend
Christian Smith: the gentle giant.
#69 Wood-coincidence, I think not!
Dave "D-Man" - The brains behind the Brawn.
The now gave do they have what it takes to be galled EM.

The new-guys - do they have what it takes to be called FUBAR's?

That's the news and I = AMAM - OUTTA - HERE!

Win v. defeatcothers; to gain victory in a contest; to receive n. victory; the act of winning syn. gain, succeed, prevail, crush, pummel, dominate, destroy, FUBAR.

Well, it happened once again... the FUBAR's were the dominant last Sunday against the HOLY ROLLERS. It was a shaky start as the FUBAR's were losing, but then they unleashed the beast! The aftermath was bloody, and in the end sifting through the carnage, the FUBAR's came out with a 13-6 victory. So, what does that mean for the FUBAR's, well it means 3 wins 0 losses. What does that mean? It means "AWesome". After the game, FNC asked Kevin "Wild-Thang" Russo for a statement, Russo was quoted as saying, "You mess with the best,... you die like the rest!" Other FUBAR's were asked for comments, Ron "McDonald" Doles, "We goin' 'ta Sizzler." Brett "I'm a hetero" Gaylord, "I'm in the Air Force and I haven't seen this much firepower on an F-16!"; Paul "PaJo" Johnson, "Just get outcha seat and jump around!?"; and lastly, Christian "I'm 6'5", I don't scare easily!" Smith, "three for three, man this is too easy!" All in all, spirits are up in the FUBAR organization. The big story, Scott "Placenta?" Placella. This is the man to watch. So far a shoe in for rookie of the year. It is still early in the season, but batting .833 5/6 with 2 doubles, a triple, home-run, 4 runs, and 8 runs batted in (RBI for you playing at home!), he is looking real good!? We'll have to watch and see what progresses? O.K., here's your stats gentlemen;

Craig "Outfield-Lord" Whitehead	0/3
Ron "I don't comb my hair" Doles	2/2 .	2B, BB 3R, 1RBI
Christian "On fire, and spreadin'" Smith	3/3	2B, 3R
Scott "I'm not looking back!" Placella	3/3	3B, HR, 1R, 6RBI
Kevin "The Sniper" Russo	0/1	BB, 1R
Dave "What's goin' on?" Moeder	0/1	BB, 1R, 1RBI
Brett "Shut up Moeder!" Gaylord	1/1	2B, BB, 1R, 1RBI
Rui "Does anyone understand me?" Pereira	1/2	1RBI
Jeff "I'm better than #@%$¢@# 9th!" Engel	1/1	2B, 1R, SAC
Ed "Woof Woof?" Gordon	1/2	1RBI
Craig "You know you won cause I showed!" Weaver	0/1	BB, 1R, 1RBI
Paul "Why am I batting last? Screwed again!" Johnson	n2/2	2B, 3B,1R, 1RBI

Well that's the stats, any questions? For your own personal knowledge, our team is batting a total average of .535! On to next weeks, or I should say, this weeks agenda...

PRACTICE (MANDATORY)

Saturday on the Campus Field @ 12:00 high noon!

GAME

Sunday on Campus Field @ 11:00am versus UNDERTAKERS

As you can see we will be playing a team that will be able to dig their graves before they face the FUBAR Firing Squad (FFS). I hope you will all be at practice and the game. Unfortunately, Jeff "Athlete Supreme" was unable to play last Sunday, but should be back in full force this week! See you all at the game, and stay tuned for this upcoming story;

Jeff Engel - Exceptional ballplayer, or just lucky? Ron Doles - What is he anyway?

Hello my fellow team-members, how are we this week of March? Well, the FUBAR's have done it again, on Sunday, Feb. 28th, the FUBAR's defeated the UNDERTAKERS. That makes it, that's right 4 and 0! Well, the FUBAR platoon was slightly short-handed last Sunday as privates' Scott "deserter" Placellla, Paul "the woose" Johnson, and Craig "the spirit" Whitehead were listed as MIA!? The FUBAR Intelligence Agency (FIA) has not given any status report as to the whereabouts or condition of those men?!

Needless to say, but we will, the FUBARS still managed a defeat despite their dilemma. The FUBAR's took an early lead early with a two run homer by Jeff "Pine-Tar" Wood. The FUBAR's continued in the top of the second inning by scoring another five runs. Then a funny thing happened, Craig "voo-doo" Weaver arrived (late) to the game with some Magic Beans, and the FUBAR's were done! The score was a final 7-5. Here are your stats boys:

Ron "EjectEject" Doles	1/3 1R
Jeff "KA-BOOOM!" Wood	2/3 1HR 13B 2R 4RBI
Rui "number three?" Pereira	2/3 1R 1RBI
Christian "Thought I was a no-show" Smith	1/3 1R
Kevin "Overdrive" Russo	2/2 1RBI 1BB
Jeff "I bat before Dave?!?" Engel	2/3 1RBI
Brett "Not this week!" Gaylord	0/3
Dave "I'm on my way back!" Moeder	1/3 12B 1R
Ed "I still got the run!" Gordon	0/3 1R
Craig "Hexed" Weaver	0/2

Well, there's the stats, just as you like them!? Play of the game, Jeff "clueless" Engel's amazing base-run with 1 out! Good job, now listen to us, not Ron! Babble of the week, goes to, naw couldn't be, that's right, Rui- who said, "a Buh Buh Duh Dude uh Duh Huh Huh?!" For those of you who couldn't make it to Larry's afetr the game for our post-game luncheon, you missed it, talk about a good time! New news, this Sunday, the FUBAR's are pitted against a menacing opponent by the name of SOCIAL DISORDERS. Despite whether they may have any or not, rumour has it, they play a mean game of ball. So, what does that mean for the FUBAR's? It means we go out there on Sunday in FULL FORCE!, No holds barred, with the thirst for blood! So here's your pertinent info. for this week...

PRACTICE (MANDATORY)

Saturday on the Campus Field @ 12:00 high noon!

GAME

Sunday on the Campus Field @ 11:00am (I don't make the sched!)

Anyway, I want ALL of you to make it this weekend, in FUBAR Battle Gear (FBG), which means your jerseys. This Sunday, if all attend, will be FUBAR picture day! See you all at the game!

P.S. This Sunday, traffic will be backed up due to the BIKE WEEK parade.
Plan on leaving early for Sunday's game if you have to cross Volusia Ave.(Int'l Speed. Blvd.). Use the airport road to get to the field to avoid the parade. They will not let you cross!!! So, leave early and see you at the game! DM

Ready...Aim...FIRE! Well, time to write off another team that has fallen victim to the FUBAR clan. Last Sunday pitted the infamous FUBAR's at the Campus Field against the dreaded (NOT!) SOCIAL DISORDERS. FUBAR insider information was notified prior to game time that this team would mean business. Well, apparently, this team had unknowingly overdrawn their account and the FUBAR's were about to close it out for them. The FUBAR's were victorius by a score of 12-2, which meant that the FUBAR's even went home early! It was ironic how well the FUBAR's played in their abscense of Craig "Jynxmaster" Weaver. Fortunately for everyone, Rui "Hey, are you guys Portugese, I thought you was GREEK!" Pereira showed up, so no-one had to worry.

Well, this puts the FUBAR's at a record of 5-0, let me repeat 5-0, which means what? Well, it means that the FUBAR's are currently tied for first place with their arch-rivals, their all time nemesis GROUND EFFECT. So, where does that leave us, at the top of course. The FUBAR Ball-Club is numero uno out of 34 teams. The FUBAR defensive organization was approached for a comment to which they gave the following statement, "We like what our boys are doing, we don't foresee any major changes to our current set-up!" they went on to add, "It's hard to determine who to play with all this talent." The FUBAR offensive department (also known as DAMAGE INC.) was also asked to comment on the current status of the ball-club. They gave this statement, "You relly can't ask for too much more, our only set-back is letting that scrub Engel see the light of day!?" This weeks stats look something like the following...

Ron "the tortoise" Doles 3/3 2B, 3B, 1RBI, 2RUNS Jeff "the ever-surpassing" Wood 1/2 HR, 2RUNS, 3RBI, SAC Chris "I will dominate!" Smith 1/3 1RUN Scott "I'm am just too good!?" Placella 0/3 2RUNs, 1RBI Kevin "NBC-Mon. @ 8:30pm?" Russo 1/1 2RBI, 1RUN, BB Jeff "Nice cleets ya panzy!" Engel 1/1 1RBI, SAC Dave "LOOK, I spent the money!" Moeder 1/1 2RUNs, 1RBI, BB Ed "FLASH!?" Gordon 1/1 1RUN, BB Paul "AAA, Sit down Rui!" Johnson 0/1 SAC Craig "The cannon - KA-BOOM" Whitehead 1/1 3RBI, BB Brett "Slump-maker" Gaylord 0/2 Rui "Dude? Yo Wus up wit dat?" Perira 1/2 1RUN

That's what the boys did last Sunday, here's your important info. for this weekend, write it down, staple it to your shorts...

PRACTICE- MANDATORY!!!!!

SATURDAY, March 13th at 12:00pm on the Campus Field

GAME-

SUNDAY, March 14th at 12:00pm on the Campus Field

 This Sunday is the last weekend of regular season games. The following weekend will start the 1st round of playoffs! Let's kick some _-- Sunday!?

Hopefully, everyone can be at Sunday's game, wear full FUBAR Battle GEAR (meaning your jerseys), so we can get a team picture! By the way, we're playing SEXUAL HARASSMENT Sunday. We'll show 'em what it's like to be harassed and pummeled, a bonus! Anyway, see you ALL at the practice and game, LARRY's afterwards, later boys, be merry, your a FUBAR!

DAVE-Capt.

YULGAR DISPLAY OF POWER

Hello FUBARians one and all. Well, it appears that mother nature decided to follow in the traditional FUBAR manner and sweep over all and cause utter destruction and terror among millions. But, mother nature failed to "avoid" our little Nook here in Florida, so last Sunday's games were cancelled due to, can you believe it?- Cold!? What's going on down here? What's a little 20, 30, 50 degree temperature change, we're men (tests pending on Gaylord), we can handle a little cold weather! Anyway, the FUBAR's had a nice little pre-playoff sabatical. Now, it's time to rock n' roll! The FUBAR's are looking at the number one seat in the playoff bracket! The "current "A" division playoffs consist of 16 teams. The FUBAR's will have to win four to clinch the championship. The playoffs are single-elimination, and games are otherwise as always during the regular season. The first round will be this Sunday. The FUBAR's will be pitted against LOS BITCHOTOS? Believed to be decendants from the Pereira Clan of Northern New Jersey, they pose no immediate threat to our ball-club. Actually, any team is dangerous at this point in time. The regular season statistics have been finalized as of our last regular game which was played two Sunday's ago. The FUBAR's ended with a record of 5-0 and number one in division "A" standings. That leaves us in pretty good shape. The following is all pertinent info. you will need for this weekend...

PRACTICE-

SATURDAY MARCH 20th on the CAMPUS FIELD @ 12:00pm **

 Practice is mandatory for all FUBAR personnel!!!

GAME-

SUNDAY MARCH 21st on the CAMPUS FIELD @ 12:00pm

The FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION would like to see all FUBAR personnel at Sunday's game. Maybe then a team photograph can be attained. There will also be discussion this weekend of where and when to hold our 2nd annual FUBAR-B-QUE! Attendance to which is optional, thus the less that show, the more foreveryone else.

There has been some question to how/ when and what the FUBAR dues have been used for. The FUBAR FINANCIAL DEPT. (FFD) has released a statement to the press hoping to clarify the situation for all parties involved. The statement read, "We here at the FUBAR Finace Dept, or FFD would like to put everyones minds at ease and say that their "dues" are being used for worthy causes. Mr. Moeder's routine trips to the Bahamas are necessary for the succes of the organization as well as his overseas trips to ensure international relations. The FUBAR BANK (FB) is not empty, but is "dented". There is also that matter of equiping our men for battle, that was no small change you know." The statement went on, but the meaning was the same, The MANAGEMENT makes the rules!

So, that's the news for this week in MArch, see you at the game!

DAve-Capt.

Hello FUBAR's, once again the ball-club of utter destruction has dropped it's fist on their opponent. The FUBAR's were pitted against a team by the name of LOS BITCHOTES. Well, with three of it's players missing, the FUBAR's still managed a 16-1 crushing defeat. So, the boys left early and met up at LARRY's. Where Rui was taught the correct meaning of an acronym and Dave was taught that the FUBAR's were the team to beat!? Anyway, the FUBAR's played a marvelous game despite a few errors in the first inning? And Kevin "Nolan Ryan" Russo obtained two "K"'s during aspectateular display of pitching. Oh yeah, Ed "Puppy Dog" Gordon also caught a ball he actually slid to catch. Well, it's time once again for the weekly stats. Oh, the start of new stats, or playoff stats as they are Well, there's the stats for those interested. The following is the pertinent info. for this weekend:

PRACTICE: SAturday, April 3rd @ 12:00pm on the Campus Field

There will be two games this Sunday, provided a win in the first:

GAME: Sunday, April 4th @ 11:00am @ Campus Field vs. MIGRATING COCONUTS

GAME2 - Tentatively scheduled for-

Sunday, April 4th @ 2:00pm @ Campus Field vg. WON BY ONE or UNDERTAKERS

Well gentlemen and giants, hope to see you all this Sunday, probably the biggest day for the season. Oh, and bring your shirts for a team picture (if all show up?!). In the meantime, stay alert for these upcoming stories:

Rui Periera - Why artificial intelligence can't work!

The CATCH 22's of inbreeding, a profile of Ron Doles.

An update on the search for Gaylord's neck.

Craig Weaver: Trying to hold on to youth

See you @ the game...

DAVE- Capt.

Hello boys, hope your all in fine spirits on this week of April? What's news? Well, the FUBAR's prevailed once again this season, winning two games this past Sunday, to push their record to 8-0!

e The first game was the FUBAR's vs. the team called the MIGRATING COCONUTS. It was a slow start for the FUBAR's who trailed most of the game by 3 runs, until the top of the last inning when the boys came back to lead 5-3. A few of those runs were acquired by a hit from Dave "I'm Amazing" Moeder, but FNC feels he got enough "praise" for his efforts already, so we'll leave it alone. So ended the first game with a 5-3 victory! The boys met at LARRY's for a brunch and to replenish lost energy and work a strategy for the next game. So, at 2:00pm the FUBAR's were back for the attack playing against the UNDERTAKERS. the FUBAR's, who are approx. 4-0 versus this team had no trouble finding their marks and took an early lead of 7-0. When the game was over, the FUBAR's were victorious 7-1, and the boys are going to the show! Here are the stats for last Sunday s games (totaled):

Christian "leading edge" Smith Ron "one-tooth banjo player" Doles Scott "the all powerful" Placella Kevin "the @⊄!%#! on the mound" Russo Dave "medicine man" Moeder Jeff "the shield" Engel Rui "Bump and Grind?!" Pereira Brett "Cro-Mag" Gaylord Ed "stick figure" Gordon Paul "evolution; Stage IV" Johnson Craig "best for last" Weaver

2/5 1run, 1rbi, sac 3/6 1run 3/6 3B, 2runs, 1rbi 1/4 1run, sac 5/6 2B, 2runs, 4rbi's 1/5 1run, BB 4/6 2B,1run,1rbi 3/5 1run 1/5 1run,1rbi 2/5 2/4 1run, sac

For those who made it, FNC wishes to express it's gratitude for the attendance at Monday night's practice at 5:00pm. There will be another practice on (oops!?) Easter Sunday, so if your not going to be away, or inchurch, come out to practice. Now for the big story, GROUND EFFECT. The FUBAR's will be playing their alltime nemesis for the championship. Destiny has set it course, now the FUBAR's must claim the dominant role. Here's the game info...

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME:

MONDAY April 12th @ 6:00pm on Campus Field vs. EFFECT

Hope you can all make it to the game. This is what we worked for, let's do it with style! See you at practice, and enjoy the holidays.

MOFDER (IAYINED

Dave (Capt.)

Hello again dedicated FUBAR fans and followers.

Well, it happened again; the FUBAR's put their all too common strangle hold on the softball community one more time! It appears that the war to end all wars carried out this past Monday Night. It seems the FUBAR's were to end the season with a battle against their arch-rivals' GROUND EFFECT. Well, the FUBAR War Machine (FWM) was slow going at first, but in the end, GROUND EFFECT couldn't penetrate the gauntlet! The FUBAR wall was unstoppable and the FUBAR's dominated with a 7-2 victory, clinching the "A" Division championship and national recognition!?

So, the FUBAR's end with a 10-0 season! There is only one word; "Awesome"! If you add last fall's championship homecoming tournament, the FUBAR's are 14-0, add last Spring as well, we are looking at something like approx. 24-2. Which could also be translated this way... Any time a team is listed as our opponent, there is a 91.6% chance they will lose, one word - "AWESOME"! I think ya hear me knockin', I think I'm comin' in?

So, after 4 years, the FUBAR's, still a relatively young team, clinch an "A" Division championship. 36 teams started in the league, only one stands above the rest! The FUBAR's won last fall's tourny at Homecoming, but over 16 teams, still not the caliber of play experienced during the Spring league. That's what we call total domination, and if you count the two championship wins by the FUBAR affiliate (still a separate ownership, we supply players) SUDDEN IMPACT, that's four championships in a single year! That may be a first in Embry-Riddle history?

So, what's in the future for the FUBAR organization? That is still to be decided. Rumours are ciculating that the mighty overlord Dave will step down! Various contracts are being drafted in the event he does in fact leave. Mr. Moeder has already taken phone calls from Yankee owner George Steinbrenner, but has not yet come to a decision. Jeff Wood has been barraged with numerous contracts, as his FUBAR career is over. Mr. Wood couldn't be reached for comments, but FNC says, "We're losing a hell of a player, but time heals all wounds." Jeff Engel may be staying on just a little longer as his striking performance caused many a scout to conveniently lose his contracts for pro-ball! Christian Smith will be moving on as well, FNC doesn't know how they will fair without this giant among men, but as quoted, "he wasn't really that good to begin with!?" (That's a joke for you playing at home!)

Well, normally, now would betthe proper time for stats, but

Well, normally, now would betthe proper time for stats, but some bonehead, who shall remain nameless (Ron Doles), left them home! So, we will do something new, and different. It's time for the FUBAR Player of the Year Awards: for the following areas in which those players have shown a certain dedication. So, let's we go....

Best improvement	Jeff Engel
Most dedicated	n/a
and finally, Captain of the Year	??!!

So, there's the 1st annual FUBAR awards. Unfortunately, there is no prize or money involved. So, what's coming up for the FUBAR organization? Well, don't forget about the ever famous, no one dares to compare; FUBAR all-day picnic and drunken orgy! Otherwise known as the 2nd annual FUBAR-B-QUE! It will be held this Sunday at approx. the time everyone shows up! (HA, I kill me.) It will be at 1:00pm (approx.) and the location will be determined at a later date.

Well FUBAR's, this is it, the last newsletter of the season, possibly the last by this reporter, as he may be moving up to write a column for MAD magazine. However, it would be unfair to leave out a special thanks to all those who supported the FUBAR organization. We here at FNC have compiled a list, and though it is not (by far) in its' entirety, wish to express to those our gratitude.

Thanks: Nancy, Tanya, Candace, Steve, Denise, Amy, Ashley, Brad, The WOODIES, Greg, Vince, Coca-Cola, LARRY's Giant Subs, Jesse, Dale, SUDDEN IMPACT, Mitsubishi, Ford, Dodge, Mazda, Easton, Titan, Spalding, Wilson, Ron's Socks, MacGregor, Nike, and anyone we failed to mention (due to stupidity) that has been there for someone on the team.

Without the support, the journey would not have been as smooth as it was, thanks!

And so, on that note, I will be signing off, possibly for the last time, one can never tell. It's been a great year (literally), for those staying, keep the dream alive, for those actually leaving, best of luck in all your endeavors (look at the FUBAR's - a great example of persistence and patience.) Later Boys.

Soft ball championships

The Fubars and Underdogs captured the Spring '93 Intramural Softball Championships on Monday, April 12. The Fubars defeated Ground Effect for the Division "A" title by a score of 7-2. Solid team play, both offensively and defensivly, were the keys to the victory. This victory finished off an undefeated season and finished with a 9-0 record. Ground Effect suffered its first and only defeat and finished 9-1.

The Underdogs defeated the Woodies for the Division "B" title by a score of 11-6. A five-run, seventh inning sealed the victory for the "dogs." The Underdogs finished with an overall record of 5-2-1, while the Woodies were 5-4-1.

Congratulations to the Fubars and Underdogs on their outstanding accomplishment. The league started with 46 teams.

Chapter VI Fall 1993

"You have the con Mr. Sulu..."

Fall 1993 I decided to give the controls over to Ed Gordon. I had done what I set out to do, build a great team and win the championship. With that accomplished I just wanted to play now, enjoy the game a little bit. So, Ed in a corporate takeover assumes command of the FUBAR's... temporarily it would seem?!... (It should be noted here that it was during Ed's leadership and my recruiting that we acquired Mark Avellino and Jake Benson to fill a few gaps leftover by various FUBAR's who seem to come and go from time to time.)

It was during this Fall season though that Ed decided that being in charge would require more time than his engineering physics would allow. So after negotiations with then FUBAR CEO (that would be me), the team was relinquished to Kevin Russo to play around with...

Kevin would put his brilliant spin on things (can you say statistics! :o) and of course run a very tight ship...

Batter Up!

It's bottom of the seventh inning, your team is down by one run. The bases are loaded, there's two outs and your at bat. This is your last chance; an out ends the game, and a base hit will surely score two runs and win the game. You wait for the pitch and hope you can overcome the enormous amount of pressure riding on your shoulders at this moment. Think you can handle it? Well, for those who love the thrill of victory and competition, Embry Riddle offers students a wide variety of intramural sports. One of the more popular on the campus is the spring softball league.

This spring, the league consisted of 34 teams and approximately 600 plus students. Considering the enrollment of the university is approximately 4000 students, that accounts for roughly 15% of the student body participating in the softball league.

The league consisted of a variety of teams, ranging from graduates, faculty, fraternities, and those who just want to get together with their friends for a couple hours each week. The majority of the teams consist of those which were formed during the students earlier years of enrollment at the university and continue to compete throughout their time at the school. Sometimes teams will stay together for four years. This helps to form a strong bond between players on the team and allow them to grow together.

The games are played on Sundays, weather permitting, with an average season lasting roughly six games and playoffs an additional four (provided your team is one of those in the finals.) Unfortunately, there are no rain-dates and if a Sunday is lost due to weather, teams lose out on their opportunity for that game.

Playoffs last three weekends and every team in the league is eligible for a spot in the playoff bracket. This year the entire league played in one division for the championship. The entire playoff bracket is single elimination, resulting in the elimination of a team after its' first loss. In the past, the league was split into two divisions, allowing for two championship teams. After the championship game, each player of the winning team is presented with a trophy and a T-shirt to display their victory. The intramural softball league allows students the opportunity to compete against or with friends towards an ultimate goal. It builds commitment, dedication, teamwork, and leadership skills which each and every player can use later on their road to success. Intramural softball help students grow and become.

David Moeder Capt. FUBARS

Welcome back FUBAR's! I hope everyone had a great summer break and are all ready to get back into the swing of things. Speaking of swinging, we'll all (hopefully) be doing some of that this weekend. This Sunday, 5th, from 11:00 to 1:00 at the campus field will be our first practice of the season, not to mension the first under new management. As you can see the Fubar organization has been bought out and under its new budget .FNC, Fubar News Corporation, can no longer afford computers or even a staff consisting of a college graduate. Because of this the Fubar players will have to deal with slipshood news letters the may connsist bad English. But since no player is available for arbitration or trade the New management soid, and I guote, "Tough X&PX! Those previously pampered babies will have to pull up their skirts and be men."

So now that has been said and anyone who wishes to express themselves to the new management can do so this Sunday. So this is what is going on:

Sunday 5th: Practice 11:00 Am to 1:00 pm 1:05 pm possible beating of New management

Weekend 11th/2th: Possible scrimmage

Weekend 17th, 18th, 19th: Open tournament and beginning of defending our title

Ed 23,833

Hello FUBAR'S! How are we this fine week of September 5? (Why does Anyway, down to business. this sound so familiar?) Sunday, the fifth, was opening day of spring training for the FUBAR'S. Due to the retirement of Jeff Wood, Craig Whitehead being sent to the AAA ballclub, and immigration agents finally catching up with Rui Pereira there were holes that needed to be filled. The FUBAR scouting committee was sent out in search of potential players and signed Mark Avellino and Jake Benson. Who? anybody know these guys. Are they nothing but figments of Moeders With opening day just a mere eight days away the imagination? scouting committee went for a veteran, Chris Roth. That's right folks heee's baaack. After a hiatus from softball to enlighten himself in Islam?(or something, I don't know) he has returned to the FUBAR'S. Hopefully we'll all get to see these "new" players this Sunday 12, at 7:00PM. That's the time of our final practice before gameday men. Sorry the scrimmage fell through but this will give us a chance to play under the lights and work out the bugs. So I'll talk to you all soon.

Later men.

HELLO AGAIN MY FELLOW FUBARIANS. THIS IS A SPECIAL LETTER TO CLEAR UP A FEW ALLEGATIONS AND RUMOURS WHICH HAVE CIRCULATED AS TO THE ACQUISITION OF THE FUBAR'S BY GORDON ENTERPRISES. IT WOULD BE BEST TO START AT THE BEGINNING. THE GORDON MEGAPIRE STARTED AS A SMALL BUSINESS IN NORTHERN NEW YORK STATE (JUST ABOVE ALBANY KEV.) THEY DEALT MOSTLY IN CONVENIENCE ITEMS FOR LOCALS - TOBACCO, BEER (SCHLITZ), BUTTS (MALBORO'S), AND OF COURSE Banjo's for the "close" families. The business boomed and Gordon Enterprises WAS ON IT'S WAY. TODAY, THE GORDON NAME IS ON ALMOST EVERY BANJO ON THE MARKET AS WELL AS MANY OTHER ITEMS. MANY OF YOU MAY BE FAMILIAR WITH GORDON'S JEWELERS', GORDON'S SIGNS (DOWN ON BEACH ST. IN DAYTONA?) AND OF COURSE OUR PERSONAL FAVORITE: GORDON FISH PRODUCTS SUCH AS THE ALMOST EDIBLE FISH (DOLPHIN) STICKS?! So, WHAT WOULD A COMPANY WITH SO MUCH WANT WITH THE FUBAR ORGANIZATION? IT'S SIMPLE, THEY WANT MORE WINNERS! AFTER LAST YEARS DOMINANCE, GORDON BEGAN TALKS WITH FUBAR MANAGEMENT ABOUT ACQUIRING THE BALL-CLUB. TALKS WENT WELL AND AT ONE POINT GORDON ENTERPRISES WAS QUOTED AS SAYING, "THERE A FINE BUNCH, WE WANT THEM ALL EVEN THAT ONE WITH THE TOOTHLESS GRIN: WHAT'S HIS NAME AGAIN? RONALD?" SO BEGAN THE BUYOUT OF THE FUBAR ORGANIZATION. DAVE "I'M ROBBING THEM BLIND" MOEDER SETTLED ON A DEAL TO REMAIN CEO OF THE FUBAR ORGANIZATION, BUT WOULD HAVE LITTLE OR "NO RESPONSIBLITY WHATSOEVER!" AT THAT POINT ED "THE MAN" GORDON STEPPED IN AS FUBAR CAPTAIN. THE TEAM HAS NEVER BEEN THE SAME SINCE. HE IMMEDIATELY DEPORTED RUI PERIERA (WHO WAS EMMIGRATED TO NEW JERSEY, WHICH IS WHERE ALL THE WINNER'S ARE THESE DAYS!?") AND SENT JEFF WOOD "PACKING." ED. OR MR. GORDON AS WE CALL HIM TO HIS FACE WENT ON TO ACQUIRE TWO STAR PLAYERS- MARK AVELLINO (WHO NOONE HAS YET SEEN), AND JAKE BENSON (A RECRUIT FROM ONE OF THE GORDON FISH PLANTS.) SO, THE FUBAR'S RETAINED THEIR NAME, BUT TOOK ON A WHOLE NEW OUTLOOK. ED, OR SKINNY AS WE SAY BEHIND HIS BACK SEEMS TO BE DOING A FINE JOB WITH THE BOYS. THE PLAYERS "LOVE" THE GUY, OR WAS THAT "LOATHE", ANYWAY SOME RESPONSES WERE THE FOLLOWING, ... BRETT GAYLORD: "MAN ALL I CAN SAY IS IF HE MAKES ME CATCH, I'LL KICK HIS SCRAWNY LITTLE @#$#@." JEFF ENGEL; "I'M GONE IN DEC., IT'S GONNA GET UGLY!?" KEVIN RUSSO; "I CAN BRAINWASH HIM. NO PROBLEM WITH AN INFERIOR MIND" SCOTT PLACELLA; "MAYBE I CAN GET AWAY WITH SKIPPIN' PRACTICE, EDDIE WON'T MIND" OTHER COMMENTS WERE SIMILAR, BUT A LITTLE TOO "NICE" TO PRINT (SOME EVEN HAD PICTURES.?) SO HOPEFULLY THIS CLEARED UP & LITTLE FOR EVERYONE AND WE'LL SEE YOU AT THE GAME. BY THE WAY, WE KNOW RON ISN'T TOOTHLESS, HE'S GOT A FEW!? LATER BOYS...

Wello gentlemen how are we this fine week of September? Unfortunately, some of you may still be mourning the FUBAR loss this past Sunday, the 19th. However, the FUBAR's are never a team to be held down long. For the uprising has already begun again!? It appears that the Mega-conglomerate GORDON Enterprises could not lead the FUBAR organization to another championship but added two more wins to the FUBAR record. This leaves the FUBAR's at 30-3 for the past two years. It appears that the ROTOTILLERS, the same team which in fact did defeat the FUBAR's, had gone on to win the tournament. CEO and part owner of the FUBAR's Dave "Diamond" Moeder has stated the following in a press conference: "the FUBAR's will be back, I have no problem with the way GORDON Enterprises handlesd the series, they're doing a fine job!" Ed "Trump" Gordon was quoted as saying; "Ah @#!&%#@, what was the question?" After which Mr. Gordon jumped into the crowd of reporters screaming, "I'm not fit to live..." The FUBAR Defensive coordinator stated later that, "we could attribute the entire loss to the absence of a one Scott "I got more important things to do" Placella...NOT!"

Normally at this point in the newsletter, FNO would furnish players with their statistics. However, due to cutbacks, and a little punishment statistics will be available only upon a phone call to FUBAR Headquarters-# 1-900-UAFUBAR!

Well, the FUBAR Organization must move forward and not dwell on the past, but not forget it either. November brings another tournament and the oportunity for the FUBAR's to take no prisoners. Extensive practice will be mandatory for all players on the weekend of October 9th. All FUBAR priveliges will be suspended until then, or if the GORDON "family" says otherwise.

That's it for the FUBAR's, see you boys at the field! Mr. "G" will contact you for future dates, that's the news and I...Am...Outta...Here!

Straight from Corporate Headquarters to your grubby little hands is the latest news and upcoming events concerning the Fubars (a subsidiary of the Gordon Conglomerate). Now that we have all made it through September, it's time to start thinking about the HOMECOMING SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT, coming sometime in November to a theater near you. But first, the news:

Our top story concerns the alleged breakup of the Fubar Softball Franchise. It seems that rumors have leaked out from high ranking officers (no, not from the fountain of misinformation_{Roth}) that the team has disbanded. The truth is that five members of the franchise has led an unsuccessful coup to try to gain favor with the Corporation. Specifically, attempts at bribery (Dave's new bat), threats and blackmail (Engel's little "secret") failed to win over management. So these five now live in a state of utter disgrace (New Jersey), having been ostracized by friends and family. But in the process, they are making an attempt to gain their self respect by forming their own team. No comment has been made by the five at this time despite repeated attempts to reach them by telephone. Updates on this story as news develops. Stay tuned....

In other news, Mr. Ed Gordon, has stepped down as captain of the Fubar Franchise, citing threats of economic sanctions for his decision. So, the corporation rushed to fill the vacancy, which was answered by yours truly.

Now let's get to the upcoming events. There will be a practice this Sunday, October 17, 1993, from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. at the Campus Softball Field. Everyone is encouraged to attend, as we may be realigning the Fubar defense to some degree.

Also, enclosed is a template for your schedule. Please fill it in and return it to me, Kevin Russo, ERAU Box 3371, or bring it to practice. I need them soon.

Hello once again from the beloved Fubar News

Corporation. First of all, the Corporation would like to thank everyone who came to the last practice for taking time out of their busy schedules. FNC will find a way to reward you guys.

Now let's get to the upcoming events. There will be a practice this Sunday, October 24, 1993, again from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. at the Campus Softball Field. Again, attendance to this prestigious function is recommended.

Next, to reemphasize: I need everyone to fill out one of the little schedule blocks (on the next page) so I can find the most convenient time to schedule practice. And the beauty of it is, you have three methods to return it to me:

- 1. Once it is completed, fold it in half, staple it, write Kevin Russo and Box 3371 on the back of it, and put it in the slot marked "Campus Mail" in the Post Office next to the mail box room, which is next to the bookstore, which is next to Records and Registration, across from the Landing Strip, within view from the swimming pool and racquetball courts. If you have already done so, then the Corporation thanks you.
- 2. Bring it to practice Sunday, October 24, 1993, from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. at the Campus Softball Field.
- 3. If you see me on campus, hand it to me.

Once again the Corporation thanks you....

Hello once again fellow Fubar-ians. This notice will be merely informational because there will be no practice this weekend. It seems a campus group has reserved the field all day Saturday and Sunday from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., which is pretty weak. Anyway, as many of you know, practice was canceled last week due to field conditions. Also, the National Weather Service reported severe icing conditions for the whole day. Since Roth worked at NOAA over the summer, we are privy to such information. Thanks Chris!

Anyway, this week will be another off week for the Fubars. So, I'll update you on tournament information. The ERAU Homecoming Softball Tournament will be a 16 team single elimination event. It will begin on Monday November 15, 1993, and continue through Thursday November 18, 1993. Mark it on your calendars, kids! If anyone has any problems with any of those dates, please let me (Kevin Russo, ERAU #3371) know so I can request preferable playing times. Most likely, all games will be played after 5:00 p.m.

Thank you for returning those schedules. I've received 7 so far, so that's pretty good. If you would like to get in on the fun and excitement of filling one out, here's another chance. Just return it to me (Kevin Russo, ERAU #3371) ASAP.

We'll be in touch....

Hello once again fellow Fubar-ians. Just want to let you know that we will be having a practice this Saturday, November 6, 1993 from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. at the campus softball field. Remember that the tournament is only two weeks away, so try to make your best attempt to be there.

Just to repeat in case you forgot: The ERAU

Homecoming Softball Tournament will be a 16 team single elimination event. It will begin on Monday November 15, 1993, and continue through Thursday November 18, 1993. Most likely, all games will be played after 5:00 p.m.. It seems as though practice would be a most opportune moment to let me know of any conflicts that may arise in your individual schedules for those nights. I'll bring a pencil and paper to write your thoughts down.*

Thank you for returning those schedules. I've received 8 and I'm giving up on the rest of you, unless you still have one of the old ones and still want to fill it out. If so, return it to me (Kevin Russo, ERAU #143371) ASAP.

Again FNC will be in touch.

"Let's be careful out there..."

Okay kids, here's the news: PRACTICE!

Thursday, November 11, 1993 from 17:00 to 18:00 AND Saturday, November 13, 1993 from 11:00 to 13:00 at the campus softball field.

The plan for the Thursday night practice is hitting only. Each person will get 12 swings. This is broken up into three attempts to hit to each field followed by one more hit to each field (ex. 3xLeft, 3xCenter, 3xRight, 1xLeft, 1xCenter, 1xRight). I just want to see who can hit where. This should be a short practice (< 1 hour). But I would recommend that everyone show up considering I've only seen half the team practice so far.

The plan for Saturday is to begin with defensive work as we have been doing. Then we will continue with batting practice, with Thursday's performance kept in mind.

Just to repeat in case you forgot: The ERAU Homecoming Softball Tournament will be a 16 team single elimination event. It will begin on Monday November 15, 1993, and continue through Thursday November 18, 1993. Most likely, all games will be played after 17:00. I have requested that our games be played at or after 18:00. Since there are 8 first round games, I have a feeling that they are going to be divided evenly over Monday and Tuesday nights, so I am going to request that we play Monday night and get Tuesday night off. It happens that more of us are available Monday than Tuesday.

I want to stress to everyone how important it is to show up at all practices and games. We have 12 players on our roster. We have a lot of pilots on the team, so it is imperative that everyone show up if at all possible. I can assure you that no one will have to worry about sitting out a game.

That's the news. See you all Thursday.

Chapter VIISpring 1994

"Back in the Saddle..."

Spring 1994 was tough for us as we lost Jeff Engel and Craig Weaver to life's endeavors and Kevin Russo decided to step down completely from the game leaving none other than yours truly to pick up the ball and run with it. - This I believe I did without putting up too much of a fight if I recall?...

So going into 1994, we have now come full circle and I am back in the saddle. In addition to this, the FUBAR's acquire their first female player Denise Powell (who would eventually go on to marry Kevin some time later) who proves to be an asset to the team. - Three games later, Kevin decides he can't be a benchwarmer and finds a phone booth to don his FUBAR cape and costume once again!

This would also be the season in which we won our second championship and we decide to video tape every game from which the FUBAR "Appetite for Destruction" championship highlight video was compiled. So, we had a failed coup attempt, player losses, new video equipment to figure out, and three captains! - All in all a very hectic year but we did manage to acquire Scott Hager and A.J. Berlotti during all those shenanigans to add to the mix!?...

FUBAR News Corporation a publication by the man, for the people.

Hello FUBARians, how are we this fine month of January? It appears we have been having a good string of luck concerning the weather. 75 in one of the coldest months is never something to overlook, a moment of silence please... O.K. let's get down to business... What has befallen the almighty FUBAR's this time? Well, sit back and read on my comrades, for today is a day of much grief and of brighter tomorrows!? (note to reader: the writer is still in possession of ALL his marbles!) Anyway my peers, there is much to discuss, but so little time to do it, for the season is almost upon us and thou hast yet to prove thyself on thine fundamentals of battle! In plain english, we have 3 weeks and then it's game-time boys!

Let's begin the news with a few updates, it appears that the FUBAR organizaton, despite the revolution, succeeded in attaining a spot in the Fall Championship but failed to clinch another victory. After such a loss, Jeff "Swiss" Engel decided he had enough of the organization and has moved on to bigger and brighter things in Colorado, like shoveling snow, or some other wintery activities?! So, the FUBAR's will no longer be blessed with Jeff's charming personality. Actually, the FUBAR Retirement System has begun Jeff's very "hefty" pension fund which should allow him to eat once every year and a half or so until he realizes he has been screwed! It is unfortunate, but the FUBAR's have also lost Craig "the elder" Weaver, who decided that all the Ben-Gay in the world won't make the aches go away, has moved back to Gettysburg, PA to settle in the log cabin with the little woman. Mike "the ringer" Kelly was arrested for illegal gambling and was last seen on I-95 northbound, right lane, blue car (with a sign: O' Canada), and a clocked speed of 124? We also lost Sheldon, but who really knew Sheldon anyway? In, all seriousness (Yeah?), these men will be missed! (excuse me, who was it that left again?, I was busy cleaning lint out of my belly button!?)

Now, on to the biggest hit since FUBAR Max "the cannon" Dipietro became the 4th person to put a ball out of FUBAR Field here at the Embry-Riddle Campus. Kevin "the wild thang" Russo has resigned his position as FUBAR captain and in addition has decided to hang up his cleats and call it a game! It appears, that during a press conference, Mr. Russo disclosed that he, for "personal reasons" will not be participating in softball this season. FUBAR News Corp. (FNC) has made no attempt to try and reinstate (well, O.K., we tried!) Mr. Russo, but did make this statement, "We here at FNC are deeply saddened by Mr. Russo's decision, but we support him 100% and wish him all the best in whatever endeavors he decides to undertake. The game has lost a great man, player, and friend. We wish him luck!" FNC also released that the organization will retire it's first two jersey's in the ball-clubs' history. #7 Jeff Engel and #36 Kevin Russo (whose jersey may be reinstated at any time!?) Dave Moeder wanted his retired as well, but was informed that he has to actually leave the team! To which the reply was, "What a jip!" (we believe?)

So, the FUBAR's have to regroup, recollect, rethink, reform, and move on. Chris "number 1" Roth was quoted as commenting on this upcoming season, "This is the year baby!" The FUBAR Free Agency Divsion (FFAD) has begun talks with ex-FUBAR Ron "the iron-gut" Doles about re-instatement into the FUBAR organization. As of yet, FFAD has released no info, but has said that, "the talks are going great, it looks really good, but we may have a little trouble supplying the beer he's been requested!?" Stay tuned for further developments. The FUBAR's are also in the process of acquiring a new batch of rookies for the club. Moral is high, outlook is quite good! Once again the FUBAR's are adapting the situation.

So, now with Mr. Russo, out of the game, FNC had to establish it's position ad appoint a new captain. Candidates were few and far between. So, FNC went to the top... CEO Dave Moeder was requested to fill this void left in the organization. At first Mr. Moeder was a little hesitant, but after much negotiation, FNC had worked a deal to pull Mr. Moeder out of his "pseudo-retirement" and retake his old position of captain. So, as of January 10, 1994 Mr. David "Back in the Saddle" Moeder has been reinstated as FUBAR captain/coach. During a press conference, Mr Moeder said, " I really wanted to just play, but hey, they needed me, and besides, what else do I really have to do anyway? I'm a pilot remember?" later Mr. Moder went on to say, "The prospects look good, the organization looks strong, I think we'll do fine!" Ed "skinny" Gordon made a statement later, "Ah great, who let that cat out of bag anyway, if I get my hands on that @$%# moron I'll kick his %$#@ little %$#!" Mr. Gordon had no additional comments (well worth printing anyway!) Mr. Christian "the tree" Smith said, "I thought we dumped that loser?!" Mark "the cripple" Avellino (the guy who brought the dog!) was quoted as saying, "He's a good guy and all, but he couldn't lead us through a hallway, let alone a softball season!" Mr. Avellino was reported as being dragged from the conference chanting, "It should been me, ME Damnit, I could lead you all to great things, ME ME!" Mr. Avellino will be fine after a short "rest" at Bellevue according to FUBAR Medical Officials. The rest of the FUBAR clan were unavailable for comment (meaning I'm too damn tired to think of any more stupid scenarios, it's what? 4:30am!) but there seemed to be much grumbling and muttering in the FUBAR organization, but it appears that it is an overall vote of approval for the new (old?) captain.

So, the last order of business is the FUBAR "look." It has been for the past two and one half years a look of dominance, and of Black and White. We here at FNC have decided that due to the various and multitude of things to plague the FUBAR's, the organization will reform to a new "look." The new "look" as it is to be reffered has so far taken a favortism towards a Navy Blue with White! After team approval this New "look" will be implemented with the help of a nice crisp 20 bill! So, please make your "donations" as soon as possible and FNC will oblige you as best we can! If you have made your "donation", disregard this notice and just wait, you'll get your shirt!

That seems to be all for now, hope everything has been cleared up for you, if not, feel free to contact someone else, I'll be busy! Actually, my box is 148062 and that's no lie (DO NOT send MOOLAH through campus mail!, I want it in MY grubby little hands.), feel free to contact me with any questions, practice will be soon!!! and it still is MANDATORY!!!!! I'll leave you with these two quotes:

"FUBAR's: Not just softball, a way of life."

" TEAMWORK: The fuel that allows common people to attain uncommon results."

See you later boys... the one the only, you know him you love him, one swell guy;

DAVE Capt.FUBAR's

FUBAR News Corporation a publication of truth, justice and the American dream. copyright 1994 all rights reserved

Well, hello again FUBARians. Once again I am here to greet you with my charm and wisdom. However, I won't bore you with trivial nonsense, for I have news to deliver... It appears that the FUBAR ball-club began its' spring training this past Sunday. Not all were at attendance, but FNC (FUBAR News Corp.) wishes to thank those who were able to make the practice. We will not excuse Avellino however, who elected to hit the Links despite threats of kidnapping his wife if he missed the practice. Avellino's sole comment on the matter was, "We all gotta' do what we gotta' do!" The actual abduction was called off at the last moment. Practice went well despite the "absense" of a few players, FNC disclosed that it will severly punish any and all who fail to make it to the next one. You know who you are!

On to other news, the FUBAR's have begun to wrap up it's spring recruitment. Ron "Keg-belly" Doles has agreed to return to the FUBAR organization. The settlement called for a sum of 3.25 million over the next two years with an option for free agency after the contract runs out. There were some side demands by both sides which were agreed upon during negotiations. It appears Ron wanted a few extras of which he demanded a keg and Dorito's at every game, everyone has to refer to him as the "best", a monthly bottle of Jim Beam (of which Avellino took a liking to), and am I reading this crap right?, he wants lots of hugs?! FNC said they will do the best thay can. Anyway, the FUBAR's also picked up A.J. "stonewall" Berlotti, who was acquired from the same nest that weened Ron. A.J. displayed his previously demonstrated excellence of softball last Sunday of which the managers seemed real "pleased" was I believe how they put it. "He'll be a real asset" they said later at a press conference. The ball-club also saw new-comers Scott "dirt-boy" Hager and Matt "super" Powers. These two boys were brought up fro the FUBAR AAA ball-club and show a lot of promise. Scott "the horrible" Hager was quoted as saying, "Huh Huh, Huh, I just can't walt to play, Huh Huh Uh Huh." Matt "I need a quote" Powers said, "The team looks good, but I don't know if I can stand that Moeder kid?" FNC had no comment.

The big news of acquisition is the following. Without knowledge except to an elite few, the FUBAR Recruiting Board (FRB) began negotiations to acquire it's first woman player. After careful deliberation and great testimony, the defense attorney (wait, where am I going with this?) Oh yeah, the FRB began and concluded recruitment procedures for it's first female player. A Miss Denise "running with the boys" Powell was finally acquired by the FUBAR organization this week and will be entitled to all the benefits that are bestowed upon current ball-players (whatever the heck they might be, cause I ain't seen a damn thing! $#@$!). So, furthermore, from this day on, the newsletter will no longer read the greeting "Hello Boys", as we at FNC have opted for the politically correct, "Hello People!"

So, once again I have miraculously written into the second page. So, now what to feature in this entirely white sheet of paper? How about this, I will inform you of the ramifications if you do not show for practice this week! That would be fun!? On a serious note, I would like all FUBAR personel at the field for this weeks practice as it may be our only opportunity to get one full team practice in before the first regular season game. Let me now tell you the time place and date of this monumental event:

MANDATORY PRACTICE:

Saturday January 22nd @ 1:00pm on Campus Field

So, now that you know and you have a few days to make arrangements, I hope to see all you "people" there! (See, that wasn't so bad was it "people")

The last order of business is the "donations" of $20.00 dollars. It appears that a few of you have not yet "donated" to the organization, you know who you are, so please make arrangements to do so promptly. Those of you who already have could have skiped this entire paragraph instead of wasting your already valuable time reading and don't forget comprehending material that has no real pertinence to you. Sorry for the inconvenience.

Well that about wraps it up for the news for this week, and a fine week it is. I will leave you again with a quote, and will furthermore give you a new quote each and every week until someone gets real "upset" and takes a bat to my head! This quote will be referred to as the "Quote of the week" and may or may not relate to you.

Quote of the Week

"Pride is a personal commitment.

It is an attitude which separates excellence from mediocrity."

Bonus:

"The spirit, the will to win, and the will to excel are the things that endure. These qualities are so much more important than the events that occur."

- Vince Lombardi

Take it easy "people" and I'll be in touch.

Hello FUBARians. Once again I am coming to you live from FUBAR HQ. It appears that the organization has settled down a bit this second week of spring training. No new or unexpected surprises crossed the FUBAR's this week, but who knows what lies ahead for this group? I'm sure nothing can hurt these "people" as long as they play as hard as they practice.

Well, on with the news and no more B-S-ing. The FUBAR's came out this past Saturday in somewhat of a full force. Minus a Mr. Ron "I'm on a thin rope and I'm above the weight limit" Doles who felt it in his best interest to just flat out not show. Now on the other hand if he had had a good excuse like Jim "I don't wanna grow up" Kuhn and Rick "minus the scruff" O'Bleness had, then things might have been a little different. You see, it appears that without prior consent from FUBAR Management Mr. Jim and Mr. Rick decided to up and go on over to...of all places... Disney World. You know the one, "It's a small world", "Mr. Toad's Wild Ride", "Space Mountain" and a variety of other very worn out and might we add played out attractions. However, Jim and Rick mentioned to FNC that the day was not a complete loss as they had plenty of "hitting" practice trying to coax 14 year old girls to "come back to their place for a night-cap?" FNC hopes Jim and Rick had a great time and hopes it was worth their starts? Oh well, they can sit on the side-lines and just dream all day long about the fun they had that day!? FNC would like to interject here for a moment to announce that the previous statement's made about its' players Jim "the wildman" Kuhn and Rick "the mick" O'Bleness may have been the product of a literary term know as "writer's embellishment" and would like to apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused, however it will make no comment on the statement's made about Ron Doles.... Hey, where was I? Oh practice we had last Saturday! Well, the squad looked pretty darn good, except for that damn Moeder kid again! The star for the day was the new FUBAR recruit Denise "Colonel" Powell (No relation) who shocked and amazed all with her flerce playing ability and her ear-shattering war-cry! FUBAR's on the scene were in awe at the talent the girl possesses. It was Jake "the ripper" Benson who said it best, "I was impressed!" Scott "the terrible" Hager showed just why he was recruited as he became as solid as Jello in the field last Saturday. As well as Hager's turn around performance, Matt "Wonder Twin" Powers was also displaying an amazing improvement since the last practice which has led the FUBAR Drug Agency (FDA - pretty good eh?!) to investigate into his possible use of steroids. Powers would only comment with, "Steroids, what steroids? You guys! This is a joke right? Come on. I'll take alla you srubs, come on ya panzies, come on. I'm a machine I'M A MACHINE!" Powers will be dealt with accordingly the FDA said!? The rest of the guys at practice looked good, BLAH BLAH BLAH BLAH Moeder, BLAH BLAH BLAH, Avellino, BLAH BLAH, Gordon, Roth, BLAH BLAH, and A.J. who wrapped up the presents and sent the kids to bed!?

So, this Sunday, January 30th, some unhicky opponent will look down the barrel of the FUBAR war machine and cry in agony when the hammer falls. Which means there is time for one more practice! Do me and the rest of the team a favor (and you know who you are)...SHOW UP! At least to introduce yourself before the first game! Practice is MANDATORY and will be on (write it down) - SATURDAY, Jan 29 @ 1:00pm Campus.

See you "people" at the field and I will call about a possible scrimmage this Thursday, but the actual event is still only in planning stages. Later guys (and Denise!3)

Quote of the week- "...I firmly believe that a man's finest hour - his greatest fulfillment to all he holds dear - is that moment when he has to work his heart out in a good cause and he's exhausted on the field of battle - victorious" - Vince Lombardi

FUBAR News Corporation a publication of truth, justice, and the American dream. copyright 1994. all rights reserved Vol. IV. issue IV.

So, how art thou doing this last week of January/ first week of February? Well, it appears that good 'ole' mother nature wouldn't cooperate with the boys and this past Sundays games were, well, quite frankly, they were scrubbed. So, I'm sure that broke many a hearts as it allowed for some proper pre-game partying prior to the XXVIII Super Bowl (which by the way turned into a slight disappointment in the second half as Dallas dropped into third gear and left Buffalo as motionless as a dead lawyer!?) So, many of you enjoyed your "freedom" this weekend FNC would assume? However, FNC is not quick to make assumptions which may in fact turn out to be untrue! For example, it would be safe to assume that Ron "I'll outdrink anybody" Doles par-took in so much pre-game festivities that after the first kick-off, his "buddies" had to go looking for him and was found face down in the bathroom chanting, "Put my head in the toilet, quick! Put my head in the toilet!" It would also be safe to assume that Ed "skinny" Gordon and Dave "lifeless" Moeder were watching the Beavis and Butthead "Buttbowl" during the Super Bowl halftime show. These would be "safe" assumptions. Unsafe assumptions would be, assuming Mark "I'll have another" Avellino spent the entire game Sober! Unsafe assumption, Chris "I had to work" Roth had an enjoyable evening watching the game in the dormatory. Finally, assuming Christian "I'm too sexy" Smith would actually drop by Moeder's 2nd Annual Super Bowl Blow-out! That just to give you an example of how FNC thinks! Frankly, we don't care what you think!? So, bite us!

Anyway, it would be beneficial to relate some information to you that would be classified as "news-worthy." So, grab a seat and read this prize-winning piece. (NOT!) Anyway (I keep saying that don't I?), Anyway it is FNC's understanding that the entire schedule for this past Sunday will be rolled over and apply to this coming Sunday. So, we have a game this Sunday at 3:00pm at the Campus Field versus Sigma Pi. It's a slight insult, but it's also the first game. Here's the important dates and times, WRITE them down somewhere and COMMIT them to your limited MEMORY banks. ...

PRACTICE (MANDATORY) Saturday, Feb. 5th at 11:00am @ Campus Field FIRST GAME Sunday, Feb. 6th at 3:00pm @ Campus Field vs. Sigma Pi

So, now you have all the important dates, NO EXCUSES! Well, on to other news, the new look" has been implemented. Many FUBAR members acquired their new uniforms this past weekend. The Royal Blue and White looks good, however some of the veterans were still a little skeptical. Ed "the engineer" Gordon was quoted as saying, "It's not so much the colors, well, alright, it's the colors, we'll look like a bunch a panzies out there! Whose stupid idea to change the uniforms was it anyway, what a jack-ass!" Chris "bess not ta mess wit da bad boy" Roth was quoted as saying, "Blue!?, I guess it's alright, but I look too thin in blue!?" Actually, many members have taking an immediate liking to the colors. Jim "slim" Kuhn wore his brand spankin' new jersey to the movies. He said later, "Anything that promotes the club!" So, that's about all for the news this week, not much to write without a game. FNC wishes to thank all those who came to practice last Saturday despite the inclement weather. The overall tumout was good with the exception of Jim and Rick "Grizzly Adams (He went camping)" O'Bleness who were not in attendance. It's odd how they're both gone at the same time, coincidence? I think not!? So, I leave you for this week, have fun, stay out of trouble, and dream about FUBAR's!?

a publication of award-winning potential, but yet discovered!? copyright 1994, FUBAR Media Corporation, American Division. Vol IV. issue V.

Your tossed into the air and float listlessly toward a big guy holding a bat!? You hear someone scream out, "three and oh, don't swing" and pray to god he won't! Unfortunately, the big guy doesn't intend to let you get off that easy, and with a look like he wants to give you a big kiss, swings! The world goes black?... A second later you cry out in pain as you hurtle like a comet towards the left-centerfield fence, you know your gone and so does everyone else. The only thing left to do is hope it's over! But, your just not that hickyl...

The FUBAR assault squad was in the field this past Sunday, and the carnage was too much for even the strongest of wills to endure. The FUBAR's laid down a steady cover fire which allowed the big guns enough time to pummel the enemy's defense. It was over before it began. Gen. J.B. Caldwell was quoted as saying before the game, "I don't predict it will be too close." So as to not let the General down, the FUBAR's ran their opponents through the ever-famous FUBAR Ass-kickin machine one more time! Chalk off another kill: Hell, call them a cab! Last Sunday was just a shear display of raw talent in it's finest (well, we won't go that far) form. Last Sunday saw the FUBAR's versus SIGMA PL. Well, the FUBAR's demolished them by a score of 16 - 0! There's something to write home about. The FUBAR's didn't seem to falter except for that damn Moeder kid, but FNC foresaw some weaknesses and knew the rest of the team would close in the slack. The boys (sorry; "people") didn't seem to be nervous despite the fact that their entire performance was recorded on VHS-C video. We even got some compromising footage of Ed "I'm lonely" Gordon scratching himself (wonder what we could get for that?!) The hits of the game go to Mark "old - adj. having lived or existed for a long time." Avellino who crushed a ball down the left field line and Christian "watch the veteran's people" Smith who, on a 3-0 pitch, took a ball deep into left-center for a three run home-run. To Mark, and Christian, this BUD's for you. One big surprise of the game was Jake "the snake (and you know how he got that name?!)" Benson, who came off a shaky pre-season and managed a 2 for 2 game with a double, RBI and a RUN. Good job Jake-man. FNC would like to send it's congrats to all it's players. FNC said in a press conference, "We're real happy with the ball-chib. We've gone through some rocky times and it looks as though it's coming back around for us. We pulled off a shut-out for our first game, not many teams can boast that! Give us a couple more weeks and we'll look as sharp as a razor blade." FNC can't possibly go into everyone's offense or defense, everyone had something worth writing about, even Moeder's pitching was pretty good, despite his striking performance at bat?! FNC was also surprised at the turn-out. It may well be one of the first times that the entire team has managed to simultaneously make it to a regular season game. Thanks.

The game all-stars were, Mark "Ben-Gay" Avellino 2/2, Ed "could this be right?" Gordon 2/2, Matt "the ringer" Powers 2/2, Jake "unbellevable" Benson 2/2, A.J. "almost a no-show" Berlotti 1/1 (SAC), and Christian "the big-guy" Smith 2/3. Honorable mention, Ron "the human-Keg" Doles 1/2 and Rick "X-Ray" O'Bleness 1/2. Hey, the rest of the team can have an honorable mention. Take it while you can.

On to the next order of business, the statistics. The last pages of this newsletter will contain your statistics up to date. So, it will have anything you require. A little explanation, for you weak minded, such as Chris Roth. The columns labeled OPS is the On-base (OB) avg. plus the Slugging (SLG) avg. The one labeled OTS is the OB times SLG. and the last one labeled TA is the total avg. The total avg. is a more accurate avg. than your actual average (AVG.). This may seem confusing, but it's not. for example (OK. you may want a seat for this? I' going to try and explain this, and you know how my explanations tend to get a little lengthy, so if I tend to ramble, Just SMACK! Wow, thanks.) OK. example. If you go 5 for 10, your average is 500%, but your Total average will take into account how many bases you acquired at bat, it incorporates On-Base, Slugging, ETC.

There is also a graph which depicts your average, slugging average, and onbase averages. This probably won't be in the newsletter every week, so don't hold your breath.

So, now we can move on to the team's win/loss percentage. Our current win/loss record as of Spring '91 is 30 and 4. That means, for you cheapo's without a calculator and you pilots who still can't figure it out, that any time a teams is scheduled to face us there is a 88.2% chance we'll win before we even meet them! Not too shabby. In the words of a famous Aerosmith tune, "The train kept a rollin', all night long" FNC is quite happy!

Hey, FNC has failed to discuss it's scrimmage the team played last Thursday night. After a little speculation, the FUBAR Management agreed to scrimmage the AVION's team. We got one word for them, "Sorry", we got one more "overrated", no actually, FNC was glad the AVION came out to allow us to get some actual game-time in before the season started. FNC wishes them good luck this season. The FUBAR's also got a game with the FLIGHT TECH team. Which consisted of mainly out-of-shape pilots trying to find a way to exercise without REALLY exercising, get it?! So, between the two games and two hours, the FUBAR's scored approx. 50 runs and the opponents, both of them, a mere 4!

FNC has discussed with the FUBAR Media Corporation the possibility of opening up the newsletter to players. After careful negotiation, FNC has managed to gain a little more for it's players. Now, if any player would like to have a say in the weekly newsletter, he need to only write his/her message legibly on a piece of paper and submit it to FNC by Sunday! However, all material will be screened for content and may be "CUT." FNC will not tolerate ragging on fellow players, So for example if Ron wanted FNC to print, "Dave utterly sucks wind!", there is a good chance it will not go to print. Another example, if Jim and Rick wanted to print, "Dave utterly sucks wind!", there is a good chance that too will never see the light of day!, Get the picture?! Good. In addition, any player who wishes to write a story can submit that as well and get it published as a special release! So, happy scribbling Ron and I hope to get some input and personalize the newsletter a little more.

triumph, success, achievement, ovation.

Well, it seems the FUBAR's once again have silenced another opponent, however, have they been utterly silenced? Not likely! I'm sure the FUBAR's have not heard the last of the MIGRATING COCONUTS. It seems the FUBAR's pulled off a very questionable victory this past Sunday!? It is beyond the FUBAR upper management as to how the FUBAR's actually succeeded in winning the game. The final score was 12-11! It is beyond that laws of probability, and proves that old adage, "It ain't over till the fat lady sings!?" (Whatever the hell that saying actually means?) The FUBAR's clinched the victory when with bases loaded Dave "very shaky" Moeder decided to wimp-out and draw the walk and thus the winning run! It has been rumored that the organization should have lost the game. However FNC believes the ball-club played nowhere near the caliber of play it is capable of and yet somehow managed to win, that has to say something? Lucky?, maybe?!, maybe not?! Many people believe that Luck is what happens when Preparation meets Opportunity! Well, the FUBAR's had the opportunity and so did the Nuts, we just took better advantage! So, onward we go, with a better understanding that we are not the all-mighty, invincible, unstoppable war-machine we once believed. However, Avellino is kickin' some serious %$#@1, so he may be exempt from the abovel Mark "the Howitzer" Avellino became the fifth person in the past 6 or 7 years to put a ball out of the park in regular season play! Not to mention the second FUBAR! Yes boys and girls, Mark unloaded a blast that took the ball over the left-center fence for a three run homer! Pretty freakin' awesome was one comment! Ron "the ex-slugging king" Doles commented by saying, "yeah, I coulda' done that too!, but I figured I've dominated in so many other areas, why be greedy?!" Mark has confronted FNC for "contract renegotiations." When asked about the hit, Mark said, "Hey, look man, I'm too old for this runnin' really fast Sh%$#, so I figured I'd rope one and run at MY own pace." Gotta admire the guy!? (yeah right!) Other than that the game was pretty routine, some hits, some outs, a bunch of errors and a whole mess of walks (11 walks to be exact!) I guess FNC could say "Good eyes Guys" so, that's the big story, FNC believes it's ballclub could use some improvement and had one word for the guys, "Practice", and it had four more as well, "Get your As##@ There!" Speaking of missing practice, it appears Scott "really desperate" Hager took the advice of Jim "Assistant baseball coach (what's that crap?)" Kuhn and Rick "the divernaster (known for his patented bases-running dives)" O'Bleness and went off to, yup, you guessed it!? Disney World! Yes, and Scott didn't fair too well with the young'ins either. It was reported that Scott was "escorted" out of the park for lude and mischievous conduct! Nice job Hager! All FNC has to say, is come to practice, last Sunday was too close!!!??

Well, the FUBAR's were video-taped again last Sunday and now the FUBAR Media Corp. has videotabe of not only Ed "scratchy" Gordon playing with his "accessories", but also Chris "Miner" Roth digging for the lost gold of Atlantis! Wonder what we could get for that?

FNC is unpleased to announce that this Sunday, Feb. 20, there will NOT be a regular season game. Games will re-commence on Feb. 27th! However, all members will not be exempt from practice! There will be a practice Saturday, and Sunday!!! FNC will except NO excuses but legitimate reasons for absence! Don't makes us send Vito over to "pay you a visit" if you catch our meaning! The top of the next page will have times and places for practices, this is just some trivial crap for you to read as I finish writing on this piece of paper!

SATURDAY, FEB 19 @ 13° @ Campus Field SUNDAY , FEB 20 @ 13°° @ " "

FNC would appreciate all personnel at the practice! There are no games due to the substantial amount of "rednecks" that will plague the area this weekend! Sorry for the inconvenience!

Final news, Jeff "we thought we got rid of this scrub" Engel will be returning to the organization within the week> At least that's what the management is telling us! Jeff for those of you who do not know him vacated the premises this past X-Mas, and has been a member of the FUBAR's for the past 4 years

Closing, FNC would like to thank all those who participated in the LARRY's Giant Subs excursion after Sunday's game. It was determined there that Dave "your beloved captain" Moeder talks entirely too much and was the first to receive his food and the last to finish (which included being beat by an 87 year old with no teeth!) See you people at the field and remember, walk tall, your a FUBAR!

a publication of pure literary talent, or so the award says?! VOL. IV las. VII

Hello again my fellow FUBAR men and lady. It's just me again, your faithful reporter, ready to bring the news to your doorstep, or mailbox (whatever the case may be?!) It has been often wondered what compels a person to willingly write this nonsense? Some may ponder it is a way to fulfill one's subconscious desires to be a best-selling author. Others may view it as a way for a person to express his/her emotions without really confronting the persons' involved, and then there's the old Freudian explanation of trying to cover up for one's personal feelings of inadequacy and desires to sleep with his/her mother!? Well, I personally like to just go with the old, "he's a wacko!?" theory myself, but feel free to pick amongst the others yourself! I won't be alarmed, and besides, have you actually seen my mom?!!? WOW!

On the serious side of things, Jeff "I'm a low-life" Engel is a good ballplayer! No, on the "real" serious side of things, the FUBAR's practiced this past Monday! Oh boy, the FUBAR's practiced!? Actually, now that the FUBAR compliment of players has increased by two, one would assume (you know how that works, ASS out of U and...) that attendance would increase, well wake up boys, that's a common misconception, in actuality, it decreases!! You see, now that the current roster consists of 15 players, only 10 decided to show, Capt. Moeder said, "Hey, it only makes my job easier!?" Ron "Baby Huey" Doles threw a tantrum at the absence of so many players and couldn't understand the logic behind Diamond Dave's judgment. Doles said, "Now I remember why I left this team in the first place, upper management?, where is Moeder's head?" Aside from the excitement, not much happened, Mark "I have a semi-real job" Avellino took some time out from his busy (?) schedule to hit some fly balls to a few mediocre outfielders'. Bet his student thought he smelt real "peachy" in that cramped little cockpit!? The other big story was that Dave "the brain" Moeder, Ed "the stick" Gordon, Jeff "who?" Engel, and Ron "the all-drinKING" Doles suffered a slight case of sunburn and are all whining like a bunch of panzies! However, Doles suffered less than the others as his legs were protected by some large dense object? Moeder also suffered less as his large melon of a head tended to shroud the rest of his body! Lastly, Rick "I'm still alive" O'Bleness was at practice after Jim "the other half" Kuhn decided to let Rick go out a play this weekend. How nice of Jim!?

Weekly practice/game info. GRAB A PENCIL AND WRITE IT DOWN!! PRACTICE Saturday Feb. 26 @ 11:00am at BELVILLE FIELDS GAME Sunday Feb. 27 @ 3:00pm @ Campus vs. DAMAGE INC.

Practice will be held at a nearby field this weekend due to some scheduling problems the FUBAR upper-management ran into! Translation - Ed screwed up! Doles, "See, I told you they were incompetent!" There is a map for those who need directions, be there at 11:00am SHARP! See you at he field, this will be a good game Sunday. Starters will be determined for the most part by attendance (thank you for playing!?) Anyway, see you at the field! Possible LARRY's rendezvous after the game? Come hungry!

FUBAR NEWS EXTRA

COPYRIGHT 1994 FUBAR MEDIA CORP. NEW ORLEANS

... "I can see the head", said professor Freezer. It was only two days into the expedition and already they had the specimen they seeked. "Get the cutter's over here!" he bellowed, "quick, he's starting to go!" He'd been there for more than a half a millenia, time was critical at this point, and the professor didn't want to waste precious seconds with inferior help! Diligently the professor worked as the cutters were put in place. "Now" he cried out in anquish, "He's going, damnit cut him out now!"

They worked hard and fast and it was almost over before it began. The ICEMAN was freed from his eternal tomb. For the past 50 decades imprisoned in his ice chamber, shut out from the rest of the world. He would be in for quite a culture shock according to professor Freezer, heck, that might even kill him. No one knew for sure if they would even get him out alive. No one knew where he came from or how he got there; but there he was just 7.2 miles from the South Pole and now he was out and surprisingly ... alive!

His age was determined through sonar graphs which depicted his exacted size and shape. Kind of squatty, with a blunt, sloped forehead, very indicative of early Cro-Magnon. He had been preserved and was in perfect condition when they found him, and after further investigation found a faint almost inaudible heartbeat. That was when the race began, for the timing couldn';t have been closer. The heartbeat, registering at roughly 1 beat per every 3 hours was fading and growing farther apart. Hopes were very grim, until they actually got him out.

"The ICEMAN Cometh", chanted the professor, "Quick bring the heaters and get him inside." The ICEMAN as he was referred was steadily and cautiously transferred from his ice world to this new unfamiliar territory. The heaters were placed on line. Monitored by computers, the thawing process began. After calculation by one of the professor personal equations, the computer spit out a thaw time... 3 years. A look of dismay fell over the workers. "Send for supplies, we'll be here for a while" said the professor, and with that, the process was begun...

He was slow going at first, but surprisingly for his "age", he seemed to adapt well. At first he would scream and rant and rave, but for some reason would calm, almost instantly, when allowed to divulge himself in an icy-cold Budweiser. He also had an addictive to greasy Cheeseburgers. They called him "Ron", and the legend was born. The ICEMAN has indeed "Cometh."

Ron grew at a slower rate; it seemed that a benefit of being imprisoned in ice for so long was that his normal heart-rate would only be 1 beat per every 3 minutes or so. However, he could never "join in any reindeer games" as one scientist put it due to his girth, Ron would be forced to a sluggish life. It was all too tragic, but not so according to Ron...

It took some time, but Ron soon learned the language and the ways of the average American male. He loved sports, especially football, he collected unemployment, and Women and Beer were his full-time hobbies. Ron was adapting well, as a matter of fact Ron was adapting too well!? It got so he became his own person, never to rely again, on all the scientists who nurtured him and helped him achieve this utopia. Ron would become a burden and Ron would have to leave...

Ron has adapted to the ways of society nicely; he currently lives in Daytona Beach, impersonating a 22 year College Student. His only exercise, besides his 12 oz. curls is playing softball for an intramural team. Ron has sped up since his release, but once in a while he will suffer a relapse and actually "freeze" on the field for an instant. You have to be quick to catch it, but you'll know though, he'll miss the ball!? Other than that, Ron has dreams of returning to pole and discovering his roots. He loves his refridgerator/FREEZER, cold showers, ice skating and melting ice cubes in his bellybutton. Oh yes, Ron has adapted well! Too well!?...

Hello my FUBARians, how are we this fine week? The FUBAR war machine once again advanced through it's enemies' front lines this weekend, piliage and plundering, wreaking havoc and taking no prisoners! We saw the enemy and they were curs. All that was left was to listen to the blood-curdling screams as they looked into the eyes of death! Yes, the FUBAR's were again victorious my comrades. The FUBAR's are still undefeated and in all probability; unstoppable! Roadblocks won't work, blowing up bridges doesn't heed the onslaught, nothing seems to be slowing up the ultimate force that has been unleashed on the softball community?? I feel for any and all who get in the way of the FUBAR War Machine...Vulgar Display of Power!

Before delving into the game summary, FNC would like to acknowledge all who appeared at practice Saturday. It ran smoothly, and according to Mark "insubordinate" Avellino, "It was like freakin' boot camp!" It appears the FUBAR organization implemented the very effective, "You screw-up, You Push-up" Program. You scrub, you drop and give the boys 10! Jeff "arms like Popeye" Engel holds the boner of the week record with a recorded (can this be right?!) - 200 push-ups! (Or there about!, It was some high number, definitely three digits!) FNC has mentioned the program will, in all probability be implemented throughout the remainder of the season! Happy Pushing!?

Onto the news. Last sunday pitted the FUBAR's against it's rivals, DAMAGE. It appears that the most threatening aspect of the team was its' name! The FUBAR's were victorious with a 9 - 2 score! Dave "Fu-Man-Chu" Moeder has appeared to have emerged from his slump and will be shaving the very poor excuse for a mustache. Mark "I brought the dog!" Avellino actually made an out at bat and got himself a total average (TA). It was rumored that he was infallible, I guess it was a rumor after all! Jake "Wonderboy" Benson appeared to be having a rough week, when asked for a comment, all he said was, "Get your @#$!" cameras' out of my $#@$ face you %$#@# before I kick the living %$#@ out of you!" Such a poet that Jake-Man! FNC has expressed no fear concerning Jake's performance and has said in a press conference, "We at FNC have the utmost confidence in our players, if we didn't, they wouldn't be wearing the colors? In other news, Christian "In your face" Smith exhibited the cut-throat type of competition FNC desires of it's players'. Christian made a phenomenal catch in left field this past Sun. which ended with some nice footage of the play! FNC asked Chris about the play; "I was just like SUPERMAN baby, I am the greatest?" ... Well, it was only a matter of time before it happened again. Dave "greedy little schmuck" Moeder took out a player again. It appears Mr. Moeder, who seems to be making this a routine (refer to the Moeder/Engel collision of days past.), ran from second base into right field, collided with Chris "fragile" Roth and still managed to catch the ball. He also managed a throw to Kevin "the stilt" Russo who tagged the runner for the third out! Both players escaped the incident with minor injuries, but it was a tense moment with Roth sprawled out in right field screaming stuff like, "Oh baby, this hurts like a son of a %$#@. I called the ball Moeder you $%$@. Mommy, make it go away!?" Both players were taken for X-Rays, but show no damage except for some slightly bruised egos ?? FNC commented that, "Hey, we got some great footage, Roth dropped like a wet loaf of bread!?" A few players were absent from Sundays' game. Jim "like you expected me anyway?" Kuhn was, hey you guessed it, at a baseball game, so he couldn't attend. Scott "????" Hager also appeared to have missed the game, FNC has yet to reach Mr. Hager and will discipline him accordingly! Lastly, Matt "benchjockey" Powers was unable to play as he placed himself on the disabled list for the week! Powers has commented that he feels good and will be returning this week.

Sunday saw the return of two veteran ball-players. FNC would like to welcome Kevin I need a new shirt!? Russo and Jeff E Engel back to the organization. FNC said, "When you take two players such as these and mold them into the men that they are, you have to expect that after they leave they will be totally lost and helpless like a cat hanging from the ceiling at a pinata party, or a cat tied to the bumper of a car, or a cat tied to railroad tracks, or, well anyway, they seem to need that nurturing you can only give, so they come back! It happened this time and it will happen again! FNC would like to note here that we have no obsession with tying cat's to various objects such as the blade of an airplane prop; but wouldn't actually stop such practices if they were being commenced! They would be cool, Huh huh uh huh huh Cool!

PRACTICE Saturday, Mar. 5@ 11:00AM @ CAMAS FIELD GAME Sunday, Mar. 6@ @

Well, that's the news, hope you enjoyed it, we have? Below is the current stats, they should be accurate, if not bring to the attention of someone, but don't bother us, well be busy!? For your personal info. here's a little tidbit, the FUBAR's career record is currently 32 wins / 4 losses. that runs to approximately an 88.9% winning percentage. pretty freakin awesome! See you boys at practice, and you too Denise! (Ha, I kill me??) Well, at least someone is having fun, who cares about you people anyway!? Just kidding?! Later comrades

LOSS - N. loss, deprivation, privation, decrement, bereavement, penalty, cost, forfeiture, forfeit, lapse, dispossession; damage, harm, misfortune, injury, waste, leakage, death, casualties, toll; perdition, ruin, destruction, failure, defeat, undoing, downfall...

Well, it happened. A loss!? Anyone hurt? No not really, but a few egos' may have gotten bruised?! One can never be so sure!? It appears the FUBAR's were unsuccessful in maintaining their defensive position and had to forfeit their hill. The enemy saw some weakness and took advantage of the situation. It would seem the FUBAR's called for a bombing run to strafe the overlying area and allow them to fortify, but unfortunately the coordinates were slightly off and the FUBAR's found themselves being hit with "friendly" fire. The only chance for survival was a pull-out (huh, huh, uh he said "pull-out", huh, cool!?). So, the hill was thus rendered unprotected!? Intelligence reports confirmed the enemy was the weaker, but sometimes unforeseen events can render reports, "unreliable!" So, the FUBAR's sat back, and trenched in for the next assault! Sergeant Mark "I'm hurtin'" Avellino, said after the loss, "Well Captain, I guess we're not unbeatable!?" Duh, thanks for the eye-opener Mark, we're just so dense here at FUBAR Military Intelligence that we couldn't see that ourselves!. Actually, FMI is proud to see some of it's rank are actually using that spheroid for something other than cracking open walnuts!? Good job Mark, FMI may see a promotion for you!? Private Scott "big gun (Huh, Huh, uh, huh)" Hager was saying that prior to the raid, he felt the FUBAR's were going to "kick some butt, these guys don't look too good!" Well, it appears another of us had his head where it shouldn't be!? Just to remind you, BANG! The FUBAR's ARE NOT Unstoppable, and Ed is NOT Bulletproof.?? Okay, I've run the military angle long enough, if the military were to actually summarize what happened today, they would say PFM, "Pure Fkin' Magie!", SNAFU, "Situation Normal, All Fked Up", or just plain old FUBAR! Let's talk like civilians shall we?!

Last Sunday pitted the FUBAR's against UNFORGIVEN. The final score of the bout was, FUBAR's - 6 rounds, UNFORGIVEN - 7 rounds. The FUBAR's lost in an unbelievable upset. FNC told reporter's at a press conference, "Hey, we've never lost!, We've just been a little behind when time ran out! If you expect to win the war without losing (notice the return to military here? What is the author trying to tell his reader's?) a few battles, your out of your freakin' mind! Plain and simple, you win some you lose some!" FNC would say nothing more about the game. After careful viewing of the video tapes, it has been determined that the FUBAR's were subject to a few "BOGUS" calls during the game. That and also that Jeff "I like me!" Engel likes to fondle himself in the field! Might be able to get some Casheesh for that footage too!? Can you say Cha-Ching? FNC said the only faux-pas, besides the lack of hitting, was the number of errors (you know - chokes, blunders, bloopers, scrubs, screw-ups', frog in the old throat, Engels!?) in the field. FNC showed no concern for its' organization and expressed the utmost confidence in it's players... At least that's what they said IN public! They also said the loss will NOT in any way be attributed to the absence of A.J. "the deserter" Berlotti, Christian "veteran" Smith, and Jim "do you know me? that's why I carry..." Kuhn. FNC did say that all players will be "practiced till they puke" this weekend. And as will always, the push-up rule WILL be in effect.

FNC would like to take some time here to express some concern brought to us by A.J. "modest" Berlotti. It appears that Mr. Berlotti wants to know why he hasn't been featured in the past few newsletters, and why only certain people get regularly featured? Well, it's simple, we take bribes! But, for his benefit, we will mention every player in THIS issue. Chris Roth (???), Jake Benson(churchgoer, or just a cover?), Matt Powers (off the DL this week!), Rick O'Bleness (Jim's other half?!), Scott Hager (man, myth, and all around great guy.), Kevin Russo (sported a nice new jersey!), lastly, Denise Powell (that cooky, spooky, crazed chick from Chicago!). So there, now are you happy? Next time we want the cash first!?

So, here's the pertinent info for this week... WRITE IT DOWN! PRACTICE Saturday, March 12 @//100m@ Campus Field Sunday, March 13 @ GAME

FNC hopes to see all of you there! We know it probably won't happen, but see what you can do anyway, thanks. In the meantime, stay out of trouble, lay off the crack (of any kind!?), and remember, a cat will almost always blink when hit between the eyes with a hammer!

Webster's defines the word "team" as, n. two or more players on one side in a game; a group or people trained to work together; two or more animals harnessed to the same implement. The word "work" is defined as, n. physical or mental effort; labor. Well, it won't take a brain surgeon to read between the lines here!? FNC had one word for last Sunday's game - "clusterF$#@!"

Well, the FUBAR's did it again. It appears that last Sunday, the FUBAR ball-club lost to the AIR FORCE. FNC didn't think the Air Force was good for anything, but apparently, they're good with balls?! FNC will not address any one incident last Sunday, but did comment that it felt it's team could have shown a little more support. FNC is not displeased with any one player, but would like to remind everyone that the team wins and if the case may be, loses together! Abraham Lincoln once said, after emerging from under his hat, "a nation divided among itself, cannot stand." Let's not become that nation!?

FNC reels it members (huh, huh, uh, huh, he said "members") need to get back to the rundamentals - pride, commitment, sacrifice, perseverance, loyalty, support, attitude, and rinally Excellence! It's what makes this team the best.

Enough badgering, the FUBAR's lose another. J.B. "emperor" Caldwell (ERAU Rec. coordinator, for you playing at home?!) said to a FNC rep., "You have to fall down a couple of times before you can dance in the big show!" The FNC was reported as replying with, "I'll show you falling down you freakin' wastoid. Here, is this what you mean you washed-up giddy old fool?!" It was here that the authorities had to "restrain" the FNC rep. No charges have been filed as of yet, but then again, Caldwell is still unconscious! The above is what's called writer's embellishment, so don't be callin' hospitals to check on the J.B.'er. He's fine, whatever that is?

Here's your pertinent practice INFO...

SATURDAY, PRACTICE @ 11:00am at CAMPUS FIELD. Be there or DIE! Have a good week!?

Hope to see most of you there, or have valid excuses. None of this, I got my ass kicked crap! Or, I'm too tired to get up! You want some cheese with your whine? I want good stuff. A call at 10.45am from a pay phone (which you pay for!) and you say something like this, "Hey, I can't make it." here I would say, "Why not?" your reply, "Well, I just got hit by a truck and it tore my leg off!" my reply, "Where is your leg?" You, "Right here in my hand, do I have to come, it's bleeding rather nicely?!", one "What do you think?" you again, "O.K., I'll hop in ony car and get right there, but I may be a little stiff?" one, "That's understandable, see you in ten!" DIAL TONE. I want good stuff!!!... "We'll be in touch?"

* DENOTES ERROR !!!

To: The Fubar Players

FNC has requested that I present an explanation for my actions during our softball game on March 13, 1994 (my therapist said it couldn't hurt either). Also, I think I owe an explanation to everyone who was at the March 13 game (those who were not at the game can have an explanation also, although it will not mean much to them). I did not give up on the team (explained in the next few pages) but I feel that if it appears that someone did quit, or give up on the team, then he/she is obligated to provide an explanation, especially if that person wants to be accepted by the team again. The following is an explanation (and apology, where appropriate) for the incident.

The first subject to respond to is pulling myself out of the game. Mr. Moeder has told me that he will never replace me during a game. He has also informed me that it is my decision whether I should keep pitching or not. If I feel that I am not getting my job done efficiently (causing outs while minimizing the opponent's run scoring successes and opportunities), than I may stop pitching. The reason we decided on this is because I have noticed on many occasions that the opponents have a dramatically higher probability of scoring a run once they have been through their batting order once. Reasons for this are still unclear (to me anyway). The following is a list of possible causes and my arguments to their validity:

1. Bats do not warm up until the second time through the line-up.

As a team, we score about 70% of our runs in the first three innings of the game (i.e. the first time through the batting line-up). So why does this reasoning not apply to us? I find it difficult to believe that we are an exception to this rule because the probability that we are the exception team is very low.

Also, consider that on average, the time between consecutive at bats for one player is around 15 to 20 minutes. This is based upon an average of 2.5 at bats during a 50 minute game. Why should any player be more warmed up to hit the second time than the first? A 20 minute pause during the hitting process does not constitute a proper warm up. Batting ability should remain constant during a game. Therefore, I think this line of reasoning is invalid.

2. The quality of our defense decreases as game time increases.

Again, I feel this is an invalid conclusion as well. What factors could cause this to be true? Fatigue or boredom are both possible reasons, but softball is neither a fatigue inducing or boring game (given the game is close or the opponent is ahead). Perhaps loss of focus is the culprit? If we are winning by a large margin (>3 runs), loss of focus could bring the opponent back into the game. However, a close game has a peculiar effect of bringing people back to the here and now.

Would it not also make sense that a team's defense would improve as a game progresses? This is not the case with our offense, but it may be true of fielding.

Therefore, it would be valid to conclude that opponent's run scoring opportunities would decrease (due to improving defense) as the game continues. So, Reason #2 (defense ability is inversely proportional to game time expired) is invalid as well.

The two arguments given above are the largest potential contributions to the opponent's run scoring capability. But I have argued against both of them. So now let us assume that the first statement is correct and not incorrect as I have argued (I cannot speak of the second statement because I have no statistics to substantiate it one way or the other; what is given on the preceding page is merely a gut feeling.).

Assume that the opponents batting does warm up when the top of the line-up bats for the second time. If this is true, what can we, as a team do about it? There is really not much a defensive player can do after the ball is hit. The only possible solution is to initiate some change that has the chance of countering their hitting improvement. The most obvious of solutions is to change pitchers. From a hitter's point of view, any change in delivery style or change in the pitch itself is something new to get used to. Besides, the confidence of a team versus a pitcher is going to be high after a string of consecutive base hits.

Therefore, these are the guidelines that I have come up with:

An out not yet made during an inning is given a value of 1.5 runs.

If the game is in the first, second or third inning:

If the total number of runs scored in the current inning added to the total worth of the remaining outs (run potential) is greater than eight, then I will stop pitching If the game is later than the third inning:

If the total run potential added to the total number of runs scored that inning is greater than six, then I will stop pitching.

[For example, if there is one out in the fourth inning and the opponents have scored three runs, then the total run potential added to the total runs scored is six. If one more run is scored before another out is made, then I will be replaced.].

The reason I developed this set of guidelines is because I find subjective evaluation of a situation such as this to be useless. I can keep telling myself that I'll get the next batter, but before I know it, our team is down four runs in the last inning. An objective set of guidelines does not allow me to continue playing on a false hope of salvaging an already lost cause, while having the defense asks itself, "Why hasn't Dave pulled him out yet?".

A softball team is a group of ten individuals each doing his/her part to accomplish a single goal. It is vital that each person contribute to the cause. If a boat had a leak, would it make sense to tolerate a person who, in his/her attempt to help bail out, actually fills the boat in the process? It would make sense, that the person should just recognize the fact that he/she is not helping, and volunteer himself/herself out of the crew, so he/she may be substituted for another. A boat, whether sinking or not, needs someone to help bail out, not an anchor on a short chain.

I realize that this type of playing philosophy is seen as quitting or giving up in any professional sports league. But we are not professionals. Extrapolating professional philosophy to an intramural league is ludicrous. None of us are capable of the caliber of play seen in professional leagues. Those players have the experience to deal with off days. They also know how to bounce back from mistakes, or at least how to minimize them.

This leads me to the conclusion of the first point: I will pull myself out of a game if I feel I am not doing an adequate job in attaining the common goal among all of us. An inadequate job is defined by the set of guidelines set forth on the previous page. If this situation should arise in a game again, I will act accordingly (again).

This second part refers to what I said when I left the field. I apologize to all Fubar Players, on and off the field, for my comments as I left the field. I was in error for blaming the defense for my mistakes. I walked three batters in half a game (I average around 2 walks/game). I gave up about six or seven hard base hits, including two or three extra base hits. And worst of all, I could not get the ball over the plate where I wanted to put it (outside... they could pull the ball hard, but I do not think I saw one opposite field hit).

And for my limitations, I blamed the defense. I understand that overall, the defense had less than a perfect day (if you do not believe me, it is on videotape). However, I cannot criticize any part of the defense until I have a perfect day pitching (i.e. no walks, no hits, no balls - unless I planned to throw a ball in the first place).

I also cannot criticize anyone for not attending practices. First of all, it is not my concern. Also, as a few of the players have pointed out in anonymity, "...some of us have lives..". It isn't that I do not have a life. It is just that my life exists in a bottle that some people have already labeled. But I have a question for those people: Next time you bend your elbow, what do you see swirling around in your bottle? Are you proud to call that the summary of your life? It has been said before: "It's the quality, not the quantity." Think about it...

The final event I want to respond to: The Post Game Meeting. Again, I apologize for skipping that as well. By that time, I do not think the team cared if I was there or not. But I should have been, at least to answer for my actions. So, in order to get the events of the March 13 game resolved quickly and painlessly (provided you have not forgotten about them already), please feel free to approach me about the subject. I tried to be as complete as possible in this document, but if you have any objections or improvements to ideas presented, I would like to hear them. My baseball/softball experience is limited (3 years baseball during high school summers, 5 years intramural softball). If you think I am wrong about anything, let me know. I will listen and respond, keeping the limitations of applying high school/college/professional baseball tactics and philosophy to intramural softball in mind.

Thank you for your attention and future input.

Hello my Fubar's, how are we, this fine week of Spring Break? Well, it appears that FNC has elected to utilize the remainder of those "donations" and fly it's high-ranking officials (namely Dave "diamond" Moeder) off to a nice cozy resort area on Grand Bahama Island. He has sent his greetings and wishes you all were there (NOT!). Well, FNC is unsure as to who is actually in the area, but this is for you!? FNC would like to thank all those who made it to practice this past Saturday, and would appreciate a similar turn-out this weekend.? So Ron, FNC knows you ARE here! For your Spring Break enjoyment, FUBAR NEWS Co. will not publish it's regular newsletter this week!? Instead, it will feature the comical scribbling of another writer (who's almost as good!) FNC is proud to bring to you,

THE PLANE TRUTH
by Dave Barry, from "Dave Barry's Bad Habits" copyright 1985.

There are many things you can do during a long airplane flight to take your mind off the fact that you are several miles up in the air in a heavy object built and operated by people you don't even know, people who could well be insane careless suicidal drug addicts. For one thing, you can listen to the Safety Lecture given by the flight attendants (who were known as "stewardesses" before some of them became males) just before the plane takes off. The flight attendants demonstrate the safety features of the plane, the main one being those little plastic bags that pop out of the ceiling when the plane starts to crash. You're supposed to put a bag over your mouth and breathe from it; this ensures that you will have an adequate supply of oxygen until the plane hits the ground at three or four hundred miles an hour. Another safety feature is that the seats float, so the airline can retrieve them after the plane crashes into the ocean.

When you get right down to it, the Safety Lecture is a silly idea. I mean, if the passengers really thought the plane was going to crash, they wouldn't get on it in the first place, let alone learn how to get an adequate oxygen supply on the way down. As a result, most passengers pay no attention whatsoever to the Safety Lecture. The flight attendants know this, and, out of sheer boredom, they long ago stopped reading the Official Safety Lecture Script.

Next time you're on a plane, listen closely to what they actually say:

"Hi, I'm Debbie, the chief flight attendant, and on behalf of the entire crew, I'd like to welcome you aboard Flight 302 to Bermuda. Much of our flight will be over water, so I'd like to remind you that if we do crash, there is an excellent chance that those of you who survive will be eaten by sharks. Please not that various windows are designated as emergency exits, the kind that have been known to pop open for no good reason at extremely high altitudes. Now if you will look at the front of the cabin, one of the flight attendants will demonstrate how to seal Tupperware containers. Thank you and we hope you enjoy the flight."

After the Safety Lecture comes the takeoff, which is terrifying until you realize the pilot has probably taken off thousands of times without a mishap, which means that the odds of a mishap occurring get better every time. Once you're in the air, you get the Pilot's Message:

"Good afternoon, this is pilot Horvel Grist speaking. My copilot and I are up here with a whole batch of dials and gauges and controls of every kind, but everything seems pretty much the way they described it in Pilot School. We'll be cruising along at an altitude of thirty-eight thousand knots, and we should reach our destination just about on schedule, after which we'll circle it for five or six hours. That large object we're passing over right now is Pittsburgh. Or the Grand Canyon. We'll let you know as once we pin it down."

Sometimes the pilot lets you listen in on his conversations with Air Traffic Control. Pilots are always talking to Air Traffic Control to make sure they go in the right directions and don't whack into anything in midair. These conversations are conducted in crisp, professional language:

PILOT: Come in, Air Traffic Control. This is a great big jet up in the sky.

AIR TRAFFIC CONTROLLER: A great big what?

PILOT: Jet.

AIR TRAFFIC CONTROLLER: Oh, jet. I thought you said pet. I was picturing this huge Russian wolfhound whizzing around up there.

PILOT (panicking): Did you say there's a hug Russian missile in the air?

AIR TRAFFIC CONTROLLER (screaming): My God! There's a hug Russian missile in the air! Somebody notify the Strategic Air Command!

PILOT: I'm going to try and land on the Interstate.

Another fun thing to do on these long trips is read the paperback books they sell in airports. There are three kinds:

* Spy Thrillers, in which evil people, usually Nazis left over from World War II, nearly blow up the world or kill the President or the Pope. If airport books are any indication, there are at least 450,000 evil Nazi World War II geniuses still at large, many of them with atomic laser cannons. Look for a large swastika on the cover, this is the publishing industry's way of letting you know it's a fun book.

* Supernatural thrillers, in which the devil possesses people. Possession by the devil used to be fairly rare - I remember when it was just that little girl in The Exorcist - but these days it's as common as strep throat. Before long, we'll have special schools for possessed people, and the government will start requiring large corporations to hire them.

* Dirty books, in which you can turn to any page at random and start reading, because you already know what's going to happen, so the only question is how many times. Dirty-book characters live lives that differ substantially from yours or mine. For example, if you walk into a restaurant, you will sit down, order dinner, eat, pay, and leave. Here's what happens to a dirty-book character in a restaurant:

John glanced up from the menu and suddenly realized, as six statuesque waitresses and two slim Siamese busboys sidled up to him, that he was the lone customer in the restaurant. "We have a special tonight," said one of waitresses, gesturing to the steam table.

* * * * *

The only other way to pass the time on long plane flight is to get hijacked by armed fanatic terrorists. If you have no armed fanatic terrorists on your flight, you can liven things up yourself by making clever hijacking jokes. For example, when the flight attendants serve dinner, you can stand up and wave your chicken pie aloft, announcing in a loud voice that it is actually an explosive device that you plan to detonate unless the plane goes to Zaire. The airplane crew will find this a very amusing diversion from the boring routine, and will give you lots of extra attention. Another benefit is that you won't have to eat the chicken pie, which probably tastes like an explosive device anyway.

Well, hope you enjoyed that little tidbit!? Here's your info: PRACTICE, SATURDAY March 26 @ at Campus Field (SHOW UP!) Seeeee Ya!

Sacrifice n. 1. The offering of something of value to a deity. 2. The forfeiture of something highly valued for the sake of someone or something considered to have a greater value or claim.

Can anyone tell me what the writer is trying to express? ... Anyone?... Bueller?! Well, can anyone tell me what the main goal is to this ball-chib? These are a few questions I would like you to take home and think about for the class discussion this week. In the meantime, FNC would like to welcome back everyone from their Spring Fling vacations. Hope you had fun, but, now it's over! We own you and we will collect. That "fun" will start this weekend! but first! this little tidbit.

FNC must address its' members (Huh Huh Uh Huh!?) about the attendance for practice. Averaging everyone into the equation, and the attendance is roughly 63%. That's pathetic! Take out the people who come every week, and it's worse. Barring any legitimate excuses (like work, school, or death!?) there really shouldn't be any reason not to come. FNC hopes attendance will peek slightly as we enter into play-off contention. FNC has still faltered though, trying to figure why attendance is down? Well, is it the time. It probably is, but hey, life's not fair. 11:00am is "too" early (hangover factor.) 1:00pm is "in the middle of the day" (sun factor.) 3:00pm is still in the sun factor range, and finally, 5:00pm is "too late" (miss out on happy-hour factor.) Well, hey, like we said in the beginning, you give a little to get a little. read the definition up top if you need further explanation. Oh, and by the way, FNC will thank Kevin and Denise for attending last Saturday's practice, so Dave "I'm a goat!" Moeder wouldn't be alone at the field!?

On to this week's news. Write it down!!! This Sunday is Easter Sunday, if you WILL NOT BE IN TOWN, I WANT TO KNOW!!!! We have a game, and I want to know if you will be here! Here's the pertinent info. WRITE IT DOWN!

Game SUNDAY @ 12:00 at CAMPUS FIELD vs. HE-MAN

This will not be an easy game, and it is our LAST game of the regular season. The playoffs will be in a week and a half! We need this people. Let's go out and do it! MY number is 248-2362. If for any reason you will be unable to attend practice or the game, CALL ME! I want to know now, not Saturday at 5:00pm or Sunday at 11:45am!

That is all, I hope you truly had a good time and let's continue to have a good time on the field. One last morsel for you to wet your appetite on until Saturday. What is your true desire from this game/league? Think about it and if you want, write a three page essay explaining your answer. All essays handed in will be extra credit!

Hello FUBARians, how are we this fine EASTER week? Glad to hear it!? Well, it appears; as it has been proven time and time again... you just can't keep a good team down! It appears, that the FUBAR's, after coming off two shaky losses, would come back to win its' final regular season game... and of all rivals, the FUBAR's were victorious over their nemesis HE-MAN. The score was 12-9 and the aftermath was grim. The bodies were few and far between, and it was ugly! It appears, that due to the EASTER holiday weekend, the FUBAR's were to face them with only 8 players! HE-MAN, which had their full squad, took a sudden following, as the FUBAR's started the War-Machine up one more time... At one point, the FUBAR's were leading by a score of 12-2! Unfortunately, due to the absense of an outfielder, and no second baseman the HE-MAN were bound to score a few. The FUBAR's looked strong, and foresees a good seat in the playoffs...

FNC would like to send its' appreciation to those who came to practice last Saturday.

Well, that's it. The FUBAR's leave the regular season with a 4-2 record and are psyched for the playoffs. The games will commence this Sunday, and will be single-elimination, one division. The FUBAR's are defending champions and will be guaranteed a "good" seat as quoted from J.B. "the Man" Caldwell. FNC said in a press conference, "We needed the win Sunday, and we went out and got it; it's that simple!"

Here's the pertinent info. for this week...

PRACTICE Saturday, April 9 @ 11:00am @ Campus GAME Sunday, April 10 @ @ Campus

Good work people, and see you at the show. Just four more... NO problemo! Stay tuned for the third annual FUBAR-B-QUE and all day picnic. Details will be dealt out on a need to know bases only. (You don't need to know.) Later boys and remember, I am the king!

Minimum n. 1. The least possible quantity or degree. 2. The lowest quantity, degree, or number reached or permitted. syn: least, smallest, lowest (smallness).

News from the front... It appears, that this past Sunday, the FUBAR War Machine was utilized once again in a critical battle against our nemesis HE-MAN. Some speculation as to the War Machine's effectiveness have been circulating since the FUBAR's suffered two losses while using that very piece of machinery. The FUBAR Intelligence Board (FIB) has been investigating that matter and has assured everyone that the War Machine is indeed effective, and will be used continually throughout the campaign. To show it's assurance, the FIB, in coalition with FUBAR High Command ordered the War Machine back into service this past Sunday with full rank. The devastating effects were felt around the globe. The War Machine unleashed an inordinate amount of firepower and the carnage was surreal. The victims were few and far between; this was a classic example of the saying, "Shoot'em all, let god sort'em out." The unbellevable aspect of the battle was the FUBAR War Machine was "under-peopled." It appears that due to a holiday, some FUBAR personnel were "on leave", so the FUBAR War Machine would go it with what they had. Eight people manned (peopled) the mighty beast, and were victorious. However, the FUBAR's did suffer some casualties, and the defense was penetrated (Huh Huh Uh HUH) more than one time. The FUBAR War Record and Statistic Dept. (FWRSD) said to officials, "We are more than happy with what our group did. They displayed the drive, dedication, and all out intensity that is typical of a winning group." The FUBAR's set up defense positions around the perimeter, and left themselves one short in the outfield, and second base! This is where HE-MAN tried to concentrate firepower, but were unsuccessful, leading to the 12-9 victory by the FUBAR's. This was the last "regular season" battle and now the FUBAR's wait for the "playoff" festivities to begin.

The playoff's will start this weekend and will be comprised of four games (provided you win!) and single elimination competition.

FNC would like to thank any and all who made it this past weekend, and would like to apologize to Jeff "don't park so close" Engel. The apology comes after, during practice last Sat., Jeff fell victim to a shattered windshield. We're not talking a little crack here either, we're talking the old take the keys and call this boy a cab deal! Yeah, Jeff won't be using that windshield anytime soon except maybe to set up a "dollar-a-whack" operation for people to vent some unwanted aggression (which Matt apparently did, resulting in the broken windshield in the first place! Don't feel bad Matt!?, It was a lame pitch by Roth anyway!). So, anyway, here's your pertinent info.:

Sunday April 10 @ N/A at Campus Field (No (JAME -> 1ST ROUND BYE !!)

Hope to see you all at the field, and remember, the practice attendance rule is still in effect. It was a big win last Sunday; we wanted it, we needed it, we went out there and got it! Let's keep it up! Our regular season record was 4-2! we secred a total of 62 runs, our opponents scored a total of 37 runs. That's about a 1.67:1.00 ratio. See you later people.

Vol. IV Iss, XIV

Hello FUBARians, hope you all enjoyed your hiatus from the game.? Some of you have been away for quite some time. For those people, let us fill you in on what has been going on. There are still 15 members on the roster, including one female. The FUBAR's had an unbelievable upset over HE-MAN two weeks ago, and had a bye this past weekend. Well, now that you're up to speed, let's get into the news...

This is it, the start of the FUBAR campaign. This weekend, the FUBAR's will begin the long journey to the show, pillaging and plundering the entire way. Management has begun prep work on the FUBAR War Machine and estimates it will be fully operational by this weekend. The FUBAR's will engage the enemy at 1100 hours this Sunday; and after victory, will be shipped to another battle at 1300 hours. Here's is your pertinent info. Once again, write it down...

GAME Sunday, April 17 @ 11:00am @ Campus Field vs. AHP provided a victory:

GAME II @ 13:00pm @ DERBYSHIRE#1

The FUBAR's will play against AHP, also known as the "---Hole Patrol", at 11:00. The FUBAR's will then have to relocate to the DERBYSHIRE Complex for the second game, vs either RUM RUNNERS or PAPER BOYS. Competition will be intense.

FNC hopes everyone will be at practice. Attendance rule is STILL in effect. FNC would like to thank those who attended practice last Saturday. This is it, post-season play. It's all even again.

Let's go out and show these people why we are the most feared team in the softball community. Why, after even the worst calls, games, plays, etc. we keep coming back. Keep coming back like a freight train without brakes; like a lineman with an attitude; like a bad rash. See you at the field

"To achieve, we must first attempt."

FUBAR MEDIA CORPORATION. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED COPYRIGHT 1994

"For those who strive for continued excellence." Vol.IV Iss.XV

Well, well, it appears the FUBAR's were victorious again.

but first, how are we this fine week of April? (like we really care?) Anyway, the FUBAR War Machine was fired up and ready to roll this past Sunday, and that it did! The FUBAR's began its! playoffs last Sunday with a game against AHP (we all know what that stands for now, don!t we?) Anyway, the FWM pulled out with a 4-0 lead, but it didn't hold for too long, as AHP would tie the game 4-4. In the end however, the FUBAR's would clinch a 6-5 victory. This victory would send AHP packing, and the FUBAR's to round-3 (we had a first round bye.) So, once the FUBAR War Machine tasted the coppery taint of blood in it's fangs, it would be few and far between that would stop the beast!? So, the FUBAR's were to play the PAPER BOYS in round 3. With a name like that , do we really have to tell you who won? didn't think so! However, we'll embellish anyway. For the lack of a better word, the FUBAR's, CRUSHED the PAPER BOYS by a score of 13-2. Can you say mercy rule boys and girls? I think ya' hear me knockin' I think I'm comin' The FUBAR's beat the PAPER BOYS so savagely, that it compromised the fabric of their very existence. (We have no idea what that means, but it sounds: cool (Huh huh) when they say stuff like that on STAR TREK.) Anyway, the FUBAR News Corporation was at the scene and took statements from some of its' members (huh huh). Mark "the geezer" Avellino was quoted as saying, "Well, you . . . I forgot what I was about to say!" (senility?) Chris "back on the mound" Roth said, "We are just too damn good!" A.J. "I only do games" Berlotti stated, "I would come to practice, but do you think I really need it? Naw, neither do I!" Jeff "shaky" Engel said, "I was just worried I was going to miss a catch and blow the game, you know, like I used to do?! " and finally Scott "Pet Detective" Hager was overheard at the game, "You know, I really like it when BARNEY sings and, ... hey are you recording this?" FNC was pleased with it's players and the turnout as well. Most of the FUBAR squad was present, including Jim "I'm a shoe-in for bestattendance" Kuhn (it would be needless to say that Rick "I live \ vicariously through Jim" O'Bleness was also at the game??) So, this weekend leaves the FUBAR's in the final four of 32 teams, and a season record of 6-2. The FUBAR's have scored 81 runs thus far, the opposition has only scored 44! That's about 1.84:1.00! This is really interesting isn't it? I didn't think so.

Here's the pertinent info. for this weekPRACTICE Saturday, April 23rd @ 4:00pm at Campus Field

provided the win,

CHAMPIONSHIP @ 2:15pm at Campus vs. DAMAGE or AIR FORCE

So, that's what it's looking like for this week. The following page contains the stats and a resident artist depiction of the FUBAR War Machine ("15 cannons, all loaded, all lethal.") Hey, come on out to the field, join in the fun. By the way, stay tuned for the upcoming 3rd Annual FUBAR-B-QUE all day picnic and drunken orgy. It'll be a blast! See ya' later.

FNC would like to address the situation that took place during the PAPER BOYS game. It appears that an unidentified player of the opposition (the FUBAR players were fond of callin him "PINK-MAN") was ejected for unsportsmanlike conduct. FNC just wanted to say:

SHANA NA NA, SHANA NA NA, Hey Hey Hey, Good-bye. Later "people" acquired by conquering. syn. triumph, victory, overthrow, smash, defeat, etc.

It was a sunny afternoon as the last of the survivors were led through the streets. The aftermath was brutal, the air still rank with the smell of death, but many would bask in the rejuvenating power of the sun. It would cleanse them, heal them, make them forget the carnage they just witnessed and remember that they are hicky to be alive. Some will soon forget, many will always remember, and the rest will keep on reminding. It can only be classified like many great battles. The allies did it in Germany, the Union did it in Gettysburg. Sure, they're were some setbacks, but, in the end, the good guys always win! Remember what you witnessed, and let no one else forget!

The FUBAR War Machine clinched victory! If you couldn't already tell, the FUBAR War Machine sealed the fate of millions and put an end to the great war of 1994! Last Sunday, saw the FUBAR's engaged by two more enemies. The FUBAR War Machine was very decisive with its' use of offensive power, but those few cannons would be plenty. The War Machine was impenetrable defensively, and the enemy couldn't even begin to scratch the surface. The Machine would begin a steady roll towards its' destination, and nothing nor no one would be a halter to that purpose. By the time the Machine would actually stop its' steady advance, it would leave behind it the shattered will of yet, two more opponents and have the grand title of Spring Champions! as well as national recognition.?

O.K., enough with the story-telling, give it to me straight! The FUBAR's played last Sunday against the last two opponents of the playoffs. The first opponents were the HOUSING HURRICANES, or J.B. "the big man" Caldwell's group!? The FUBAR's would take a lead of 3-0 and hold the 'CANES by that margin. Shutout baby! Then, after a fifteen minute histus, the FUBAR's were to face the AIR FORCE for the Championship. Jake "the BOA Constrictor (ain't no guessin' about that name?!)" Benson commented before the game, "I hate these guys, hey, didn't they shot down two of our own helicopters? What a bunch of scrubs!" Also prior to the game, a member of the opposing force came to greet our side. It was none other than as we like to call him, Matt "the pain in the a" Cooper. He made a few daragatory remarks regarding our pluying ability. We highly, were not fooled!? It would be an intense battle, but the FUBAR's would pull out a 5-3 victory. The comment of the day was by Maria "Mark's unconditional love" Avellino, who said, "I don't believe they actually did it!" Or something to that effect. Anyway, the FUBAR season ended with a blast! Coming off a shaky end to the regular season, the squad pulled it together for the playoffs and won four straight? All the way to the top? As is where we should be!

So, what does all this mean for the organization? Let's break it down to numbers. The season record ended at 8-2. Total runs scored by the FUBAR's - 89! Total runs by the opposition - 47. That's a 1.89:1.00 ratio. The total record, as of Spring '94, now stands at 37 wins, 6 loses. That works out to an 86% chance that an opponent will not be victorious if they are to meet the FUBAR's! I'd say we have a pretty good dynasty? Not to mention, the record would inevitably increase, if you were to input the win/loss record of FUBAR exhibition games! I think we're undefeated in that category!

So, that's it. How do I get rid of you losers now? This job gets tougher and tougher as time goes on. What do you want from me? Money, too bad. A little respect? Yea right! You want me to say "hi" if I see you in the hallways? I might be able to manage that, if I'm not with my "cool" friends?? Seriously, I have to admit, I was pleased with this ball-club. We stuck it out, wiggled it all about (no wait, that's the Hokey Pokey?), we stuck it out, came through for one another and took it all. One word, AWESOME. I think ya' hear me knockin', I think I'm comin' in I

Now, is everyone's favorite part of the year, it's time for the zany, wacky, and all together - 2nd Annual FUBAR Player of the Year Awards:

these awards are presented those players, for various categories in which they have shown a certain dedication. So, let's we go

Best Attendance (a tough one, but we went with) Jim Kuhn Best attendance at practice
Rookie-of-the-year AJ Berketi
(sorry Mark, his arm works!?) Cutest player, if had to wear a dress (any ques.?) Matt Powers Best Mascot Least likely to leave during the 3rd inning Kevin Russo and finally Captain of the Year (why not? We won didn't we?) Dave Moeder (this also admits being biggest yutz as well!)

So, there you have them, the 2nd Annual FUBAR Player of the Year Awards. By the way, you don't get anything, so don't ask! These awards are determined by how weird I get while writing, take no offense to any of this as I love you all!? So, that is all for this reporter. Look for the bootleg story of the history of Ron Doles!? As well, look for the upcoming event everyone's been waiting for, the 3rd Annual FUBAR-B-Que all day picnic and drunken orgy!? That will take place this SUNDAY! The time will be at approx. 12:00pm and the location will be determined during the week. In addition, the additional $3:00 donation will be required in advance! Friends and fans welcome! family is out of the question. We like'em, but we can't feed'em too!

Look for the FUBAR - APPETITE FOR DESTRUCTION Video wherever videos are sold. List Price is $24.95. However, I'll can get it too ya for about three bucks!

It's a keeper?

Now's is FNC's favorite time of the year, the acknowledgements. FNC has once again compiled a list of in which to pay gratitude for services rendered or received. And, once again, bear in mind that this list is in no way complete and we do appreciate any support we have received.

THANKS: Nancy (videographer), Chad (fan/photographer), Maria (fan/wife), Tanya, ODIN (our fearless mascot), EASTON, Mizuno, Custom Graphie Designs, Gringo (for letting us use his tape recorder), LARRY's Giant Subs, Jesse Rhodes (for the inside tips which never worked on UNFORGIVEN), Mylanta (for helping Dave get through the playoffs!?), Jim Beam (for helping Mark get through the day!), MAZDA, Mitsubishi, HONDA, FORD, Chevrolet, IBM, Macintosh, Adam (from the MUDSKIPPERS for getting these letters to the appropriate boxes in the mail room), Coea-Cola (always!), Guns 'N' Roses, Van Halen, Metallica, AEROSMITH, Red Hot Chilipeppers, JVC, Sony, TDK, Titan RED-DOT Softballs, Gatorade, UMBRO, Macgregor, Wilson, cheap flea-market sunglasses, OAKLEY, Black Diamond (the glasses that almost took Dave's face off!), LOTUS 123, Miriam Webster, CHUCK and LUCKY LAD (Mark's other beasts!?), NIKE, J.B. Caldwell, ERAU Rec. Sports, various friends and family, and finally our very worthy opponents (even the guy who got tossed! what was his name? - PINK MAN!)

So, here I am on page three. Hope I didn't lose too many of you! Well once again, I am signing off. Once again I will say possibly for the last time! Who knows, I'm like a bad rash, I just keep coming back! I may leave, but FNC has already begun preparations for the acquisition of a new Captain to replace me. I'm sure that person will do a fine job, but remember, I was awesome! So, if I stay or if I go, I would just like to thank everyone for making this another great season, and another winning season. I couldn't have done it without your dedication and time! So, take care and remember you can apply what you learned with the FUBAR's to anything you do in life - Give it your all and you can't lose! Thanks again and later people.

P.S. The next page is stats. The ones on top are playoffs, the bottom set is total. If you want regular season, pull out a calculator, I will only pamper you so much!

QUOTE OF THE WEEK-

"Pursue one great decisive aim with force and determination"

P.P.S. The Softball league will be in the FALL, not Spring next year! Make preparations. And, who will be here during the summer? Softball anyone?

Later People.

Chapter VII Spring 1994

MISCELLANEOUS PAPERS

FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION.

Hey Folks, What's going on? The fact is that I have a lot to say and I hope you intend to read for a while. First off, I still think that we are a better team than the Violators and I don't care what anyone says, I truly believe that. If we play the no error softball and hit like I know we can, there is no doubt that we can beat them in my mind. I will guarantee you this. We will see them again and the game will be much closer! I know you are not supposed to put the blame on any one part of the team, but the outfield needs to start playing a lot better folks. I guess the absence of Hagar hurt a little, but still made a lot of mistakes. Some changes have to made. First change, Ron hates the outfield, so we move him to second base. Then Utrup and Berlotti spend some time in the outfield and infield.

Second, I would like to say that I don't believe that in one week an individual loses almost his entire ability to judge a fly ball and field a grounder. Hitting I can see, fielding I can not. Do you lose you shot in basketball after one week off, or lose your ability to play golf. One month maybe, but one week. Come on.

Third, Dr. Fleck told JB that the Outlaws would handle us no problem and I don't intend to be washed up by anybody in front of a crowd of 200 people. We are going to practice this Wednesday, this Saturday and next Wednesday and hitting practice Saturday before a game. I refuse to go out there and be humiliated by a bunch of washups. I'm sure they can hit the deep ball, but any ball that is popped up and doesn't get over should be caught. So help me God, you're intensity had better be up that game, because everything that Dave Moeder and the rest of us helped to build is on the line. Our reputation of complete dominance and dedication to perfection is on the line. So you owe this game not only to yourselves, but to all the people who played before you and created this team. So, I think the least you can do is be up and intense for ONE GAME! No sitting down and no talking about Melrose. SOFTBALL, SOFTBALL and SOFTBALL.

So on an ending note I would just like to personally thank Dave Moeder for giving this team everything he has in physical sacrifice, dedication and cooperation game in and game out. He dives for every ball, puts his body in front every ball and dives into every bag. That my friend is how the game is supposed to be played. Every single person, including myself could learn something from him.

One last item, I get on Denise Powell a lot, but last game I thought she played great. So here is your moment in the sun baby, I hope you enjoy it.

See you on the field, Chris Roth

Chapter VIII Fall 1995

"the quiet rebirth"

Spring 1995/1996 would prove to be a weird year with the new construction on the campus; We were left with a strange turn of events, the season would be played in the fall and then again in the Spring. With the second championship and one homecoming championship I felt I had now pulled the "hat trick" so again, I was itching to offload the responsibility of the team to someone else to deal with. I would of course remain as acting CEO and write the newsletters but wanted to pass the baton off... Scott Hager then agreed to run the team for the Spring 1996 season if I would just do the recruiting and get the team together in the Fall of 1995 while he took a semester to do an internship.

So, I went out and found a few players we could use and was fortunate enough to acquire Noriyuki "The Assassin" Kobayashi, Mike McNeish, "Dickie", and the toxic twins - Brian "I'm such a" Messer and Steve "Cool One" Hancock...

When Scott returned for the Spring 1996 season, he had a nice selection of talent to work with and of course it paid off with a third FUBAR "A" league championship. The FUBAR War Machine was again rolling...

FUBARS

Any Ouestions?...

Hello FUBARians, welcome to the front-lines. The FUBAR War Machine (FWM) has been recently renovated, rejuvenated, and Re-enforced. The FUBAR Management have purchased a few "Goodies" for the FWM and plan to unleash the beast this Sunday. It will be brutal.

So, "What has been going on with the FUBAR's?" This question has plagued the millions of FUBAR fans for the past few months, so here we are to put the arguments to rest.

The FUBAR's were under a semi-recontructive period during the fall season last year. CEO Dave "The Wave" Moeder was called back from FUBAR Island (28° 38N 75° 57W) in order to "maintain" the FUBAR integrity through-out the transition. "The FUBAR's needed to build a new cohesive bond in order to allow for a smooth flow when Scott "The Horrible" Hager takes the helm" said Moeder at a press conference. Through-out, the fall season, CEO Moeder with his elite group of recruiters went on a mission to rebuild the organization. Operation "Moneybucks" was a huge success and the acquisition of several players ensued.

The FUBAR's acquired Brian "Mohawk" Messer from a AAA ballclub in Seattle. Brian was signed to a two season contract and was forced to leave his fans (who coincidentally, threw the biggest "See ya later, you sucked anyway" party). "Dickie" (who knows his real name anyway?) was acquired after an extensive talent search in Daytona Beach, Florida. "All I want are some smokes!" said the talented ball-player, and signed an indefinite contract with the club. A.J. "Push-Up King" Berlotti dug deep into the recesses of his mind and brought forth the name "Barney" (He's seeking counseling) as a possible recruit for the team. Actually, the name was Chris "Jaws" Odell. Chris was recruited for his raw talent and ability to crush beer cans with his genitalia (he can be rented out for parties.) Chris' brute strength and mass will surely be an asset to the organization. Some of our corespondents went far and wide to recuit players, and one recruiter struck gold when he ran into Noriyuki "The Ninja" Kobayashi. The agility and speed of this player can be summed up in only one word, "AWESOME". However, Nori is currently on the DL nursing a back injury, and hopes to recover for the first game. The FUBAR's have also acquired Steve "HAND?" Hancock (think about it!?) and plan to utilize this secret weapon As well as these fine players, Mike through-out the season. "Squirrel" McNeesh (I have no idea if I spelled that correctly, nor do I really care for that matter) was picked up early last Saturday at a FUBAR Event. The contract negotiations were intense, but after much debate, Mike was willing to sign up. "Mike, wanna play?..."Sure!" Finally, the big money pick-up was Geoff "I'm not" White. The FUBAR's found this gentleman through the FUBAR Pilot Training Program (FPTP) after he was washed out for going AWOL. So there you have the additions to the organization for Spring'96. The FUBAR's are still actively seeking players to fill a few voids.

The veterans are back, and feeling good as well. Mark "The Shark" Avellino was questions about his views and his comments were, "I feel very confident, we have a lot of solid players... well, if you're not counting that A.J. Kid!" Paul "I'm not a traitor" Johnson is back after a short stint with some OTHER team and commented, "I think we have a shot, thank you, thank you very much." Current Captain Scott "I am the LAW" Hager was quoted as saying, "I like the way we look, and I feel I can take these boys to the Show, we're strong, and underestimated, and when they lift their heads from under the blankets, we'll hit 'em...hard and fast, and when it's over, all they'll have is a nasty headache and a lot of bad memories."

So, The FUBAR's look like they are ready, Only time will tell. For the FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION, I'm Dave "The Wave" Moeder reporting. See you at the game. Bring your body-bags.

"Pain is Temporary, Pride is Forever"

FUBAR News Corporation

"PAIN IS TEMPORARY, PRIDE IS FOREVER."COPYRIGHT 1996
A publication for those with the will to Excel, Conquer, and be Prosperous.

Hello again FUBARians, how are we these brisk February days? It appears that Mother Nature has dealt us a brutal blow of cold weather, once again depicting the ultimate force of her power. This unfortunately forced the elite (Yea Right) group of ERAU Umpires to tuck tail between their legs and go home early last Sunday cause it was "TOO COLD, WAAA" Thus the FUBAR organization was left, eager for battle but no opponent to eliminate. The FUBAR's were fortunate enough to see some combat earlier in the week however, when they challenged there arch-rivals GROUND EFFECT (who were on a temporary hiatus.) This was an ugly battle for the boys and casualties were high. The FUBAR's have never seen such carnage inflicted on their own people. Unfortunately, much of the damage was due to "Friendly Fire." FUBAR Management said in a press conference after the incident, "We are going to investigate exactly what transpired on the night of February first and assess what went wrong. We are still interviewing evewitnesses, and taking statements. Until that process is complete, we will not make a decision on what happened and what will be done to ratify the situation." Immediately following the "Incident", as it is now to be referred. a battered and bloody FUBAR by the name of Brian "Man I'm such a " MESSer, was asked for comments, the only words he could mouth were, "HUH HUH UH HUH, That Sucked Dude, HUH HUH.. We like; got our asses kicked and stuff. HUH HUH." "DAYTONA" Dave Moeder, was approached about the INCIDENT (see how that insignificant footnote earlier has now come into play? What is the author suggesting? Is it sexual? Give examples.) and asked for his opinion. Our reporter is in critical but stable condition, any donations can be sent directly to his family. On to other matters, Noriyuki "DOAN's" Kobayashi (get it?, He had back pains! HA HA . . . nevermind.) was back from the DL, nursing the slipped disc in his lower myocardia, which in turn caused an intense pressure on his lower protruding retinal renal osteosclerosis bone. Man that sounds painful. Oh, anyway, he was back and joined in for the Incident! Investigations for espionage have undergone, and the number one suspect Paul "Benedict Arnold" Johnson has been "detained" for questioning for allegations he sold valuable blueprints to opposition revealing the defense systems of the FUBAR War Machine. Interrogation has been intense with Paul being subject to repeated episodes of The Brady Bunch, Three's Company, and The LOVE Boat. The FUBAR Bureau of Interrogation (FBI - cool huh?) feels Paul will come clean anytime now as his last public spoken words were, "Isaac, I said a Martini shaken not stirred you lousy excuse for a ships' bartender." FUBAR Platoon Leader (FPL - I'm on a roll.) Scott "Rambo" Hager was commended on his heroic efforts at the Incident. Scott's only comment was, "I got shot in the buttocks." Scott will be walking around in a few days, no complications. Mark "Meatball" Avellino was asked about his performance to which he replied, "You know, I do my job and lay down the supporting cover fire, and all I ask is for the men to make the plays...but NOOOO, I'm standing there like a giant target with the saying, "Hit Me, I'm with Stupid!" Hey, I did my job, and that's the story I'm sticking to.!?" Dickie (Do I really need to give him a nickname? . . . Nah.) was seen streaking wildly across the field of battle after the Incident screaming ,"Look at my BUM, Look at my BUM." A'J' Berlotti is still doing push-up's!! Geoff "I Was at one time" White was asked for his comments, but he hasn't shown up yet.?

So, fortunately for the ball-club, the FUBAR Organization had an eye-opener, and luckily in a pre-season Incident, and not a regular season one. King Scott has formulated a new strategic offensive for this coming weekend and assures the FUBAR's will be pummeling their opposition soon. The unveiling will be this weekend. Oh, and here's the pertinent info:

Newton's 1st Law states that an object in motion will stay in motion... Well boys and girls, The FUBAR War Machine IS that object, and it's in motion, so either get in line or get out of the way. You can't stop something that you can't see. The path of destruction left in the wake of the FUBAR onslaught was tremendous with losses estimated in the millions. The aftermath will be felt for quite some time and will be visible for any and all who dare oppose the force called FUBAR's.

Well, the FUBAR's were on a rampage this past weekend, they went out to prove why they are the most feared team in softball, and they did just that! The boys faced a team by the name of Sigma Chi (ΣX), and gave them an @$$ kickin' by any standard. From start to finish, the FUBAR's displayed dominance. Moeder came out swinging and the train kept a rollin' all night long (Aerosmith, c '73). The final toll was 21 for the FUBAR's, one, that's right one for the other team (which is defined as an organized group of individuals who work together to achieve a common goal; which they weren't.) After the slaughter, Paul "no one is worthless, you can always be used as a bad example" Johnson was asked for his comments, "You know, I did everything in my power to undermine the game, but they still won...man they're good." Nori "The Assassin" Kobayashi was seen throughout the fray cutting the hearts out of the enemy, "Without the heart, there is no drive, without the drive, there is no momentum... remember as the great ones used to say, "a cat will almost always blink when hit between the eyes with a hammer!"" Scott "TARDY" Hager was seen after the game drinking the blood from the carcasses of the dead (man that's really disgusting, but people think he's a bad @$$!) and chanting "It's a small world after all, It's a small world after all, ..." A.J. Berlotti tipped a member of the news staff to mention

He Had A BABY Girl!

Well, actually his wife did, otherwise, A.J. would have quite a bit of explaining to do EH? Yes, Elizabeth Berlotti was born a whopping 6 pounds 10 ounces and 19 inches long! Congrats to A.J.

Anyway, back to the death and destruction. Let's hear a few more quotes from the boys, Brian "The Bedwetter" Messer, "Hey man we did good, I made that phenomenal play from centerfield, damn I'm good." Geoff "You cannot defeat the power of the dark side!?" White, "Dude, we had a game? I'll miss it. Then I can only miss 9 more before they throw me out! No Problem." Jake "The magnificent" Benson, "That was a hell of a lot better than last time, we actually played something that looked like softball." Matt "Beef and bean Burrito" Brito, "Hey I walked twice! What's up with that crap?!"

So, the FUBAR's have fired up the coals and are ready to cook! (unlike at Mark's BAR-B-QUE's!) Look out boys and girls, it's about to get nasty. The FUBAR News Corporation has received a generous donation from outside sources and will be purchasing a "company" aircraft, the FUBAR ONE will be operation within a week. The new aircraft will possess state of the art electronic surveillance equipment, laser guidance, and laser tracked weapons systems, "stealth" technology, and Full BAR (Spared no expense.) The aircraft will allow the FUBAR's to travel expeditiously to various destinations without losing contact with the FUBAR Nest. Scott will have total control of the FUBAR Command Center while airborne and can order troops efficiently to startegic locations. This new addition to the FUBAR arsenal will only make the FUBAR's more of a force. All are warned with these three words...

WE ARE BACK!

O.K. Kids, here's your favorite part, stat time...

Dave "The Rope" Moeder	2/2	2 runs, 5 rbi's, 2 HR, 1 BB
Brian "My room's a" Messer	2/3	1 run, 2 rbi's, 1 3B
A.J. "DAA DAA" Berlotti	1/2	2 runs, 1 rbi, 1 BB
Mark "The OLD guy" Avellino	1/2	1 run, 1 rbi, 1 2B, 1 SAC
Nori "Godzilla" Kobayashi	3/3	2 runs, 3 rbi's, 1 2B, 1 3B
Chris "Gobstopper" Odell	1/3	1 run, 1 rbi
Steve "The weasel" Hancock	2/3	1 run, 1 rbi
Paul "I did nothing" Johnson	0/2	2 runs, 2 rbi's
Jake "The Ringer" Benson	1/1	2 runs, 1 BB
Mike "and Ike" Mc Neish	1/2	2 runs, 3 rbi's
Scott "The Pharoah" Hager	0/1	2 runs
Matt "Super soft shell" Brito	0/0	2 runs, 2 BB

So, there you have it! The FUBAR's Statistical Group (FSG) has compiled these for the past week. As a team, the FUBAR's had 24 at bats, and 14 hits. The team is batting .583 with 21 runs. You can sum it up with only one word, AWESOME!

Well, that's last week, and this is this week, so here's the pertinent info:

PRACTICE WED. Feb. 14th @ 2000 (8:00pm) @ Campus Field (MANDATORY)

The FUBAR Video Crew was at the game last week, taking pictures for a documentary on legendary softball organizations. So far they have reviewed the tapes and determined that the throw by Brian "the ARM" Messer was in time, he was safe at Home and, the camera adds ten to fifteen pounds. Oh, and he likes to scratch his butt!? Anyway, eat drink and be merry. Don't be a DICKie, and see you next time!

It appears that an Avellino was sighted in Daytona Beach. Witnesses reported hearing strange grumbling sounds and went to investigate. When they arrived, the creature was startled and ran off into the woods. Witnesses reported the creature was very nervous and twitchy. After a short pursuit, the creature was lost in the blackness of the night. The creature was reported as having facial hair, ten feet high (when not on all fours!), and very dangerous. Police warn residents to stay indoors at night as this is the most probable feeding time. They also warn that if the creature is in fact encountered, no attempt at contact should be made, but if unavoidable, the creature should be given a bottle of Jim Beam as this is the only item the creature had taken from the witnesses camp. This is a very dangerous animal and if seen, contact your local Police department, or shine the FUBAR Homing Beacon!

Hello FUBARians, welcome to our forum, where your views are taken, totally changed and rewritten, and redistributed as fact! If you don't think so, well then, take a look at this. An FNC reporter was approached by a member (it was Paul Johnson) of the FUBAR squad and memntioned he knew where to find a "good" time, and offered the FNC an "inside" tip! The reporter immediately realized the situation and replied, "Do you have these "good" times often?" To which Paul replied, "Oh, most definitely, and more frequent all the time!?" The reporter then said, "Thanks you very much, but I'm not that kind of guy!"

Paul, "No I don't think you understand!"

Reporter, "No, I think I understand perfectly (WINK WINK)"

Paul, "You sure!?"

Reporter, "Yeah I'm sure?!"

So, then this headline read on the front page of FUBAR News the next day:

FUBAR Pedophile Runs Rampant in Daytona!

See, we bring you the latest breaking news, even before the guilty party knows they did it!

Anyway, fans have been asking the FUBAR News Corporation to clarify a few terms utilized by members of the club during recent battles, so FNC put it's FUBAR Public Relations Dept. (FPR Dept.) to the test, and here's what they came up with...

Terms:

CANNON A very strong arm which can propel a ball as if it were shot from a cannon!

i.e. "Man, that guys' got a F%#king CANNON!...Holy $&!%!"

note: You can substitute any piece of heavy artillery for the word CANNON.

i.e. "Man, that guys' got a F%#king Howitzser for an arm!...Holy $&!%" (see, it's easy!)

BIOOPER A lame hit by a batter that barely makes it out of the infield, but isn't caught

POKE A hit by the batter that is slightly harder than a BLOOPER, but not as hard as a RIP (see RIP)

RIP A hit by the batter that is slight harder than a POKE, but not as hard as a

ROPE (see ROPE)

RIPPER One who rips (also has origins back to ancient skateboarding technique.)

ROPE A solid line drive hit by the batter that will make any wary player* cringe

*Dave Moeder is exempt from this rule...you need to have a brain in order to feel ones own mortality from an object hurtling at you some 80MPH!

ROPE-MASTER A batter who has mastered the art of ROPING. (the name is NORI.)

RAG-ARM A nickname chanted by the opposing team toward a pitcher who cannot with any form of regularity (HUH HUH UH HUH..irregular sucks!) get the ball to cross the home plate for a strike, therefore walking numerous batters. (Avellino can be used in place as it is synonimous with the term!)

AVELLINO see RAG-ARM

HOMER 1. character on Matt Groenings' animated sitcom "The Simpsons" 2. when a batter hits a ball beyond the encompassing boundaries of the field (or it's players) and runs around all the bases scoring one or more runs.

GRANNY 1. sweet old lady who gives you a dollar everytime you see her, usually has a distinct odor, and makes the best Apple pie. 2. When a batter hits a HOMER whils there are three runners on the bases, resulting in the scoring

FOUR runs.

BOBBLER When a defensive player has a difficult time handling a RIP/ROPE, resulting in the player rushing the throw to first base, possibly ruining the play, resulting in the runner getting safely to first.

"E" When a defensive player has an even harder time fielding a ball and can't make a play, or if tried results in a bad throw, and the runner advancing.

So, there you have it, the first installment of the FUBAR Terminology Legend. There will be an oral quiz later in the week. Study Boys and Girls!

Oh, here's the pertinent info.

HAVE YOU SEEN THIS BOY?

He has a warrant for his arrest by the FUBAR Police Department. It appears he has been charged with the following:

- two counts of impersonating a softball player.
- one count of coercing a playing position with the esteemed FUBAR organization
- one count of impersonating a pilot
- four counts of male prostituition
- three counts of money-laundering and
- fifteen counts of "drunk" and disorderly conduct

This man should be treated with caution (like an AVELLINO), and approached only if necessary. He is considered armed and dangerous. Last Seen somewhere in the Daytona Beach area.

That Which Does Not Kill You, Can Only Make You Stronger

Hello FUBARians;... we have met the enemy, and they are ours. All that is left is to tag 'em, bag 'em, and send 'em home. It appears that the FUBAR War Machine was able to withstand the extreme heat and onslaught of the opposition this past Sunday and remain victorious in not one, but two, count 'em, two battles! The FUBAR's edged out a team by the name of LOW Standards 2-1, and PACK SAUNS 19-10. The first of the encounters was a pure defensive battle with the FUBAR's edging out the LOW STANDARDS with only six hits and two runs! Mark "buns of steel" Avellino pitched a massacre and "K"ed three victims. One word, "Brutal", I think ya hear me knockin', I think I'm comin' in!? In the second encounter after the seize fire ended, the FUBAR War Machine wasted no time annihilating the other team. The Guns came alive fast and furious and when they were done, the only job left was to tally up the kills. Not a pretty picture, let me tell you, I was there baby!

So, the FUBAR's have chalked-up three wins, and are currently ranked number two! Here's your total stats, as of Sunday Feb. 25, 1996:

Dave "Someone stop the room" Moeder	.667	4/6	5R, 6RBI, 3 BB, 2HR
Brian "INJUN Joe" Messer	.500	3/6	2R, 3RBI, 1 BB, 1 3B, 1SAC
A.J. "Swiss Cheese" Berlotti	.571	4/7	4R, 4RBI, 1 BB
Mark "Wild Thang" Avellino	.500	3/6	3R, 3RBI, 1 2B, 2SAC
Nori "The Asian Assassin"Kobayashi	.750	6/8	4R, 5RBI, 2 2B, 1 3B
Scott "Our fearless leader" Hager	.400	2/5	4R, 1RBI, 2 BB
Chris "Left-Out (HA HA)" Odell	.375	3/8	2R, 2RBI
Steve "I'm too sexy" Hancock	.714	5/7	3R, 4RBI, 1 2B, 1SAC
Paul "I play with myself" Johnson	.286	2/7	3R, 3RBI
Jake "Right On" Benson	.167	1/6	2R, 1RBI, 1 BB
Matt "TACO's Suck dude; eat a" Brito	.200	1/5	3R, 3RBI, 2 BB
Dickie "hey, my last name's Lewendowski?"	.400	2/5	1R, 2RBI, 1 2B
Mike "Squirrel=Nuts, any ques.?" McNiesh	.500	3/6	5R, 4RBI, 1 BB
Geoff "Yo I gots too much soul to be" White	*000.s	0/0	* same GPA.
Denise "Anybody seen me?" Powell	.000

So, there you have it! As a team, the FUBAR's have scored a total of 41 runs, the opposition has scored only 12! That's a ratio of 3.42:1.00! Team average is .476 (39/82) Scott "The snot" Hager said at a news conference, "We definitely have a few areas to improve, I won't specify, and room to grow; but we're progressing as best can be expected!" Scott was seen being chased out of the conference by A.J. Berlotti who was chanting, "...areas to improve hey, I'll show you areas to improve you piece of $#@$, get over here you %$#%, I'll kick your scrawny little %$@^%, you %$^\%!" A.J.'s seeking counseling on the "advice" of the FUBAR Organization and is expected to be back on Sunday. In other news, Dave "What a $#@\%" Moeder was quoted as saying at the game that he "shaved his thing." We'll leave that one alone! So FUBAR's I sign off for another week with the familiar words, "Has anyone seen Geoff White?" Anyway, stay out of trouble and watch your back...Nori is out there! The only softball player who does all his own stunts is back in the action packed thriller RUMBLE IN DAYTONA. What the hell is wrong with me anyway? See ya.(Love ya Nori.) Daytona Dave

FUBAR NEWS CORPORATION

FUBAR News Corporation, copyright 1996. all rights reserved. USA Volume VII, Edition VI

Hello FUBARians, welcome to the brisk month of March! It appears that The FUBAR War Machine is not the only thing cold these days. FNC would like to apologize to subscribers for the "lack" of a newsletter last week. It appears that FNC was "unaware" of a clause in our contract with FUBAR Management that states, "...at such time the FUBAR Ball Club performs in a manner deemed "inadequate" by upper officials, The FUBAR News Corporation can at any time be closed until upper officials deem it's operation appropriate." So, last week, I was drinking my Dr Pepper, and BAM, these FUBAR Police Officers come in and shut us down! Threw me out on my @$$! No warning, no files, no last minute "oh I forgot my..." crap, BAM, on my @$$! Got my Dr. Pepper though. Ah, just what the doctor ordered!

So, that was last week, and this is this one and the FUBAR War Machine is still, well, to be Frank...Not Moving! The FUBAR Engineering Corp has reported that the War Machine is ... well, "$#@% UP!" were there exact words! So, FUBAR Management has it's best engineers and designers on the job 24-7, working to correct the problem and get the War Machine back up to speed for the last game or two of regular season. Scott "Bench-Rider, cause I can't shut my trap" Hager was personally overseeing the final remodification of the Machine and had this to say, "I have seen what this baby can do and I know what it's still capable of doing. Oh, I have no doubt that the enemy will feel the full impact of this baby when we come back. I just hope I'm not in the path of this beast when it gets rolling again!" Noriyuki "The silent killer" Kobayashi made this comment, "Should have built it in Japan! Dumb Americans will never learn."

So, FUBAR's and FUBARette's, the FUBAR's are in rut, and as they say, "when in a rut do as the ruts do!" Which we still don't know, so that's half the problem, but we're figuring it out! Anyway, the FUBAR's have now lost two! Not one boys and girls, but two battles of this great war we call intramural softball. Oh these are only minor setbacks to the FUBAR Mega-pire, it will return and it will be futile to resist its' power. (Whoa, STAR WARS withdrawal!?)

The FUBAR's have finally seen one of it's players which they signed back in January. Geoff "Not Quite" White made an appearance for the battle against TST. FNC was pleased with his performance, but would like to "see" him at more FUBAR Functions. (like practice and subsequent games!?)

Here's the stats kids, get your programs so you can play at home...

So, there you have the breakdown. I hope there are no discrepancies, and if there are, tough! I call 'em as I see 'em! Any way, there needs to be a little discussing of what transpired during the two recent losses for the FUBAR's.

It appears that during both games, the officiating was less than that considered to be adequate for FUBAR standards and it caused quite an uproar in the FUBAR organization, including Mrs. "I'll kill 'em all" Hager who was seen chasing an umpire with, what we now have learned to be one of Nori's assassin swords screaming, "Out for the season, out for the season, I'll put you out for the rest of your natural born life you %$%@, Get over here!" The FUBAR Law Dept. is working on a settlement. Mark "Avocado" Avellino said after the TST incident, "I don't know what happened, he was tight man, I tried... he wouldn't call a strike if I paid 'em" Dave "#23 in your program; #1 in your heart" Moeder was asked about the game, he would give no comment, but did express his appreciation for the press. (in other words, he flipped us the bird!)

After the TST robbery, The FUBAR's were back for the attack last Sunday against The Sweathogs? It was a dark and stormy day, and the FUBAR's wanted blood; however, they would not quench that thirst this day and would have to settle for another blow to the FUBAR midsection. "Little" Dickie was asked for a comment and gave this one, "Sorry I was late, but ... hey I'm gonna go, I'm freezing my "Dickie" off out here!" Scott "Bench-Warmer" Hager was in attendance, but unable to assist the boys. Several FUBAR's were not in attendance due to prior commitments, or illness, bet you can guess one of 'em? Come on try! I'll give you three guesses, first two don't count!

So FUBAR's the ball-club will be under a two week hiatus. However, practice will still be

Wednesday, March 13th @ 8:00pm at Campus Field

So be there if you want to hang with the "cool" kids. FUBAR's -Everybody's doin' it!? See you on the field. Your friend and confidant...

"...an award winning publication for award winning people."

Hello FUBARians, how goes it? It appears that the FUBAR's are tan, rested, and ready for the next stage in the battle for the almighty piece of plastic! It seems that after a three week hiatus, the boys are being shipped to the front-lines once again. This was delayed one week as mother nature had other plans and operation "KICK @$$" had to be delayed, thus the three week cease-fire instead of two! FUBAR Management had reported hearing rumors that the organization may not be combat ready when they are sent to battle, but FUBAR strategists report the boys will be ready willing and able!?

The team gathered last Saturday for practice drills. Thanks for coming! FUBAR Upper Management was quite displeased with the turnout. The usual people were in attendance and of course Geoff "Six-Pac" White was NOT! Noriyuki "Kamikaze" Kobayashi (see, took care of ya' buddy!), Brian "Capt. CAVEMAN" Messer, Steve "Master Bates" Hancock, Scott "Anybody seen a softball team?" Hager, and "Diamond" Dave Moeder were at Derbyshire and went through drills on a hazy, rainy, windy Saturday Afternoon! *Note: Unless you hear otherwise, your @$$ is required at practice! No News means we are playing/practicing, or come a sunny Sunday (say that three times fast!) afternoon, you will find YOUR @$$ on the pine!

- cordially - The Management.

O.K., enough with the formalities (which we shouldn't have to remind you of, this late in the season.), who can we barrage this week!? Paul "Small" Johnson would be a good candidate. He's always good for a little rousting. So, what did Paul do this Spring Break? Sat at home watching television? - No, too much energy required. Sat at home playing with himself? - No, won't kill enough time!? Went out to the boardwalk and repeatedly pulled down his pants and asked young boys to "rub" his tattoo! - Maybe? Went to the boardwalk and asked young boys to pet his "pet snake"? - Probably. Drank much alcoholic beverages and made a drunken fool of himself? - Definitely, usual routine. Finally, sat at home and dreamt of all the ways he could learn to make contact with a softball by the time he gets up to bat in two weeks!? - Oh, you know it baby! O.K., I shouldn't say all that, the last one didn't actually happen, we all know Paul can hit!?

So, what's in the future for the boys? Well, how about a softball game? Playoff kind that is! It starts this Sunday boys and girls. Operation KICK @$$ will be deployed at 1400 hours. If anyone should bump into Chris "The ghost" Odell, Geoff "Boyee" White, or Matt "zesty cheese" Brito, let them know what we are doing, Thanks. The FUBAR Management would like to take the team photo this Sunday, so please attend, or you will be labeled "Camera Shy", which translates into WUSS in FUBAR terms. So, see you there, it's playoffs guys!

MANDATORY PRACTICE Saturday @ 12:00PM @ Campus Field

GAME

Sunday @ 2:00PM @ Campus Field vs. Lambda Chi (AXA)

The FUBAR WAR MACHINE departs this Sunday, be on it, or get out of the way! See you at the game...

"The players focus should be on the playing field, not the competition."

"The Management would like to acknowledge Paul "Big" Johnson for being such a sport, and would like to state at this time, that he WILL receive the "Being a Great Sport" award this year... O.K. am I done is this thing off?...man talk about kissin' @$$, you'd think the guy could take a joke?"

FUBARS WIN!

Hey FUBARS, we won by forfeit this past SUNDAY. Scott "the weasel" Hager instructed me to make a quick reminder for the boys about the next game. Well, here it is...

WEDNESDAY March 10th @ 7:00PM at the Campus Field.

Be there and be a part of history. See you at the game.

"WE HAVE MET THE ENEMY, AND THEY ARE OURS.!"

The FUBAR War Machine began it's onslaught this past Wednesday April 10th and didn't stop until deep inside enemy territory. Operation "Seek and Destroy" was a complete success and the FUBAR's acquired it's third softball championship. The FUBAR's met against GDI on Wednesday night, and although the FWM was slow going at first, the opposition was defeated by a margin of 18-8. Then came the long trek through ice and snow; wind and rain to face the enemy at the battlefield. Blades glistened, war beasts raged, and at the fateful hour... blood flowed. Blood;...blood which flowed through the veins of combatants like a river rages to the sea... and the sea was red that day... red with anger..., red with fear..., and red with despair. Three units approached on that battlefield that fateful day, and after the carnage, only one stood fast and strong... The one by the name FUBAR's.

The FUBAR's met two opponents Sunday April 14th, and annihilated both. The first victim was LOW STANDARDS, which incidentally was a team the FUBAR's lost a previous skirmish to. Well, the LOW STANDARDS lived "down" to their name and were defeated by the SLAUGHTER clause a mere 40 minutes into battle. Losses were great and the FUBAR's had walked away with a score of 13-2. (We owed them an @$$-kickin' anyway!)

Then came the big guns. GROUND EFFECT... The FUBAR's all-time nemesis. Reformed and ready for combat, GROUND EFFECT would prove to be a worthy opponent...NOT! The FWM was set in motion and when the vultures came to pick at the bones, the FUBAR's had won in a seven inning battle to the death, with a score of 10-2! Scott "The Viking" Hager was a man possessed during the melee and took no prisoners. Scott was 6/6 with 3 Runs, 3 RBI's and a double to lead his men into the mayhem. The FWM was oiled and ready to do some damage Sunday, and that it did boys and girls, that it did!...

So, what now for the FUBAR's? Three championships in the past four years, and a brutal trail of massacre behind. Nothing left but to move forward and continue the legacy.

There's the stats, any complaints...tough luck kid, buck up! So, that's the scoop. As a team, the FUBAR's ended the season with a 6-2 record (75%). There were 222 attempts at bat, which resulted in 105 Team batting average of .473! The opposition scored 46 runs against the FUBAR War Machine, the FWM scored 98! A Ratio of 2.13 to 1.00! The critics said it couldn't be done again, not with "that Hager kid in charge, he couldn't lead a dog on a leash with a map!" The FUBAR's proved 'em wrong though, Steve "Moeder does the books and gets MVP eh? Yeah, that wasn't fixed!?" Hancock said "Hager can get us there, we'll do the rest!", but Nori "Mecca-Godzilla" Kobayashi said "FUBAR's Bonsai!" which seemed to sum it up the best...

So ends another great season for the ball club, to which the FUBAR Management would like to give it's thanks to many. FUBAR Management would like to thank all the family, friends, and fans who came out in all kinds of weather conditions to cheer us on and provide a foundation to build on. Thank you for all the support and you will be remembered Thanks to the ERAU Sports and Rec Dept. for providing us with the expensive "looking" trophies to decorate our homes with and superb officiating (although some may have a different opinion). Thanks to any and all companies who provide the FUBAR's with all the "little" things which help make our lives easier-

Coca Cola, IBC Root Beer, Mitsubishi, Mazda, Ford, Chevrolet, Franklin, TPS Bats, Wilson, Red-Dot Softballs, Honda, Macgregor, Spalding, Rawlings, Checkers, Malboro, Jim Beam, Coors, Budweiser, Burger King, Hooters, Custom Graphics Designs (for the great jerseys), Xerox, IBM, Smith Corona, Texas Instruments, Nabisco, Disney, Nike, and countless others.

Finally, the FUBAR's would like to thank all of our opponents, without which, our victory would've been slightly easier?

So FUBAR's, for those that will be departing, we wish you well in all your endeavors and stay in touch (in other words, don't let the door hit you in the @$$ on the way out!). For those who will be here, see you on the field...Your dedicated reporter and comrade, and MVP!

Hey guys, don't forget, the Fourth Annual FUBAR-B-Que and drunken orgy will take place this Sunday April 21st. Brian "The host with the most" Messer was kind enough to allow the FUBAR's to "use" his home for the monumental event. Anyone associated with the team as a player, family member, significant other, or just a fan is welcome. The event will be catered by FUBAR Management, but will be a BYOB event. It will start promptly at 5:00pm See map below, or call if you can't decipher it. See you at the "Q"

We'll supply food and drink, you supply yourself, 'nuf said.

4TH ANNUAL FUBAR-B-QUE and DRUNKEN ORGY-Sunday April 21st at Forest Lake Any questions call the number below or page DAVE 1-800-608-5173.

Chapter XSpring 1997

"all good things..."

Spring 1997 was another one of those "empty" chapters. After the FUBAR's won their third championship, Scott Hager was once again leaving town. This meant that once again yours truly had to take temporary control of the ball-club until a suitable replacement was found. Thinking more along the lines of a permanent fixture for the position I could think of none other than Mark Avellino. I mean Mark was at ERAU when we were all still in junior high and would probable still be there long after we left so I figured Mark knows the team and what it takes, let him do it!... So the responsibility was passed onto Mark for the Spring 1997 season.

Now, I was once again where I wanted to be just playing and enjoying the game and this of course would filter into my complete slacking off on the newsletters for that season. The FUBAR's would follow Mark's lead and go to the finals where they would be defeated by their arch rivals Ground Effect (or at least the core members of their former team) - an unfortunate circumstance for the boys. It was after this season that I too would relocate myself and put behind the FUBAR's. The team that I helped build and grow I was to leave. I knew that it was in good hands* and felt confident it would still be the dynasty it always was... So, off the England I went...

^{*} Well I thought that until they just dropped the "FUBARS" name like a bad habit one season – what was THAT all about!?)

FUBAR News Corporation

"...there are those people who try and fail; then there's the FUBAR'S."
Volume VIII, Edition I copyright 1997. FUBAR publishing, New York.

Hello comrades. How have we been? It has been quite a long time since the FUBAR Publishing Corp. has released news about it's elite group of athletes. Sources report the delay due to a lack of "funds" as a result of excessive spending by upper management. The "I'm going to take your twenty-five and run" scandal (as it has been eloquently called) has caused quite an uproar in the industry as well as the economy as a whole. Fortunately for us, the FUBAR News Corporation has found a few new sucke... um, er .. "investors" to assist us in these trying times. This is only a temporary setback and the organization "should be up and running at full strength in no time" according to the FUBAR CEO Dave "I just got back from Hawaii, thanks guys..." Moeder.

So, on to the BIG news...

laughter here as you deem appropriate?)

Leadership has once again taken a turn this season with the FUBAR's. CEO Moeder has announced the "resignation" of Scott "The horrible" Hager (O.K., so what if we did hold a gun to his wife's head! You'd do it too if you had to. I was scared, needed the money, nobody would listen and ... um anyway...). Newly appointed Captain Mark "I'm gonna whip you panzies into shape..." Avellino was quoted at his inaugural ceremony as saying,..."I've got a great bunch of guys this year. A lot of talent to work with and fine tune. The FUBAR War Machine will be kickin' @$$ and takin' names this year and I'll be at the helm of this great beast. Nothing can stop us!" Brian "The clean" Messer was overheard in the crowd saying,... "Aw man, who put this jack-@$$ in charge? Someone should gas the room now and get it over with; we don't stand a chance. What kind of organization did I get involved with? I've got a better chance at selling toothpaste for AMWAY!" Steve "COOL 1" Hancock was overheard saying, "Hey buddy, you brush your teeth right? I bet you do, man is today your lucky day, I just so happen..." Noriyuki "ヤネナ モノフナホヤ チモモチモモノホ" Kobayashi was seen at the bar Various other veterans of the team were seen at the ceremony, but reporters were much more concerned with the current FUBAR drafts for the season. The FUBAR Management had just released their newly acquired players and it seemed to dull the occasion for Capt. Avellino and for that; we are truly sorry..(insert as much

So, here with our draft report is guest (or is it ghost) reporter "I'm a.." Dickie!-

Hello ladies and germs, I just got back from an awesome two week draft convention... Dude you should seen it! It was %^@# amazing. They had free beer, and smokes! Man free smokes! I was like a $@@#%& kid in a *&^%#$ candy store, man it was awesome! Oh so anyway let's talk about the new %#%^# guys we just got...

Our first acquisition was this %$#%@ guy named Steve "not associated with ERAU west" Prescott. It was a questionable pick-up, but management really wanted this

%#@$% so we got em. O.K. in the long term, but nothin' amazin. Our next %$#$@ guy was some kraut named Tre (with the %$#@ accent) "I'm a %@$% kraut" Benthuysen. Kid looked good in scouting reports, but I'm a little skeptical. Hell I'm also a little wasted too, so what about that! Anyway, we also got this %@^^%# totally unstable pshychopath Jesse "I'm a %^#% psychopath!" Rhodes. Let's just say your only as strong as your weakest link if you catch my drift? (And it's blowin pretty good too!) He does all right with the stick, and he can pound a %#^# 12oz. In 4.23 seconds, can't be all bad, know what I'm sayin'? We also got some guy they called Dave "The Terror" Terech. You believe that $#!^!&^! and I'm called "Dickie"! What's up with that crap! Anyway, this terror kid, looked good in scouting, well see how he pans. We also picked up a %$#%^ young kid Jeff "do me a "Fejfar. Good speed and agility. Well see as well. The future of the %^#^ FUBAR's, man you gotta love this team.? If you don't go ^%%$ yourself! Hey, I gotta take a ^%$#@ leak and grab a smoke, I'm outta here! This is me the "Dickie"

So that was our draft report by the kid! Well done my boy, well done!?

So, what's in the news? Well victory my boy victory! It appears the FUBAR's have been over the past few weeks doing just as Capt. Avellino predicted "Kickin' @$$ and takin' names." The boys are currently 4-1 going into week 4! This week the FUBAR's will be faced with two conflicts. Neither of which have been deemed a possible threat by FUBAR Intelligence. All reports show weaknesses in opposition's defense systems which the FUBAR can exploit to their advantage. All modifications to the War Machine have been completed and field tested. "Once we get her rollin' you better not be in her path or so help you god!" said Capt. Avocado... I mean Avellino. Moral is high. "The boys are ready!" said CEO Moeder at a recent press conference. The big news of late is the recent investigation of FUBAR Brian "The Natural" Messer. Sources reported that an anonymous source said Messer was messin' with illegal substances. Now an advisory board is looking into Messer's recent off-season activities. "I'm 100% not guilty!" claims Messer, but no action has yet been taken. "We are looking very closely at the past few months and trying to determine if an individual can, in fact improve his abilities to the level of Mr. Messer's in such a short period of time." The FUBAR Management says, "Hey, the kid's awesome what do you want? His right eye!" Brian "Don't I have rights too?" Messer claims it all mental. "I was a little ticked with the MVP-playoffs crap! I want it all, and if I have to destroy all competition, then dammit, that's what I'll do!" Capt. Al Pacino ...dammit...Avellino was asked for his views to which he replied, "I love it! Mental, physical, hell chemical I don't give a %$@&. The kid's playin' like a FUBAR, and that's what I want! Now get outta my face you son of a %@#%, piece of $@%......" (Insert mental image of a nerdy news-media person (politically correct) getting his/her @$$ kicked here!?"

So, there you have the latest from the organization. Stay tuned for your regularly scheduled broadcast to follow this report. That's the news and I am on the field. Your confidant...

"England, a wedding and the legend lives on..."

Itching for some time killers and eager to make sure the gang stayed in touch, I began to write and compile FUBAR News Corporation newsletters and updates whilst overseas to send back to the FUBAR's stateside. These newsletters were a way for me to maintain contacts and of course keep the spirit of the FUBAR's alive...

Hello FUBARian comrades. It is with a heavy heart that this late breaking edition of the FUBAR News Corporation (FNC) is issued. Rumors were circulated a couple weeks ago that the upper FUBAR echelon were having merger talks with their archnemesis GROUND EFFECT. This merger was proponent to a shortage of manpower of both organizations. The FUBAR Captain Mark "business sense - NOT!" Avellino was heading these talks and seemed to have a good proposal for the merger. Mark "I have no backbone..." Avellino said at the latest press conference, "Look, you need to see it from my point of view... We didn't have the resources, I figured, let's get "rid" of the main competition by joining forces. Then we clean up the league in one fell swoop!" However what Capt. Avellino failed to comment on was the loss, that's right FUBARians, the loss of the FUBAR name!

Apparently, during the negotiations stage, the topic of what to call this new merger organization arose. Captain Mark "Boneless" Avellino was quoted as saying during the conference, "Whatever you want to do?" There you have it friends!?... Then current Captain of the Ground Effect organization took a stand at that point and declared the new team name - you guessed it... GROUND EFFECT. There was no rejoicing at the FUBAR camp!

CEO/Founder Dave "the living legend" Moeder apparently got wind of the negotiations and phoned Capt. Avellino with explicit instructions not under any circumstances sacrifice the FUBAR name. Mr. Moeder's reasoning was due to the eight year dynasty the FUBAR organization brought to the league without any faltering or periods of rest. Most of the older member's of both organizations will recall that GROUND EFFECT took a year hiatus from the league a couple years ago. Mr. Moeder was quoted as saying at a press conference in England, "They took a year off for %^#^ sake!. I mean come on, there is no brain effort required here. They lost their right for contention when they shut their doors two years ago! There is only one name synonymous with softball and that's The FUBAR'S. No one should ever tell you different." Capt. Mark "I took the money." Avellino was unavailable for comment as he was "relaxing" in the Caribbean with a "donation" from the GROUND EFFECT company. His wife could only respond to the actions of her husband with, "Aw man, that's sucks Mark!...Aren't you the captain!?" Her reactions were echoed by millions.

Outside FUBAR World in Orlando, Florida, thousands of fans marched in protest. "This is FUBAR!" They chanted. Police and security officials found the situation very disturbing and radical. One officer had this to say, "Never in my twenty-three years of service have I ever noticed such mayhem and disdain... I tell you, COPS is gonna have enough material to carry them into the millennium"

Protests and outcry of this affair rang over the nation. CNN had it's phone lines flooded with calls on the matter causing a system-wide crash. Microsoft estimated an increase in e-mail traffic by almost 46.4% One representative said, "I have never seen such an influx of mail to one site before. It was overwhelming we had to add additional lines for allocation and demand." (www.FUBAR.com got an estimated 1 million hits every hour!)

The chaos seemed to be never-ending until CEO/Founder Dave "The Magical" Moeder made this statement which helped to ease the tension, (the following is the complete television statement) "My fellow FUBAR's, It is with great reservation and admonition that I make this statement to you today. It is official, that the FUBAR's have merged with GROUND EFFECT. However, the FUBAR Corporation is not in any way related in this matter. The only portion of the FUBAR organization which will suffer from this is the softball division which was headed by then appointed Mark Avellino. I assure you that although the FUBAR Corporation took a major blow by the almost traitorous actions of there Captain the corporation will not falter. All other facets of the organization will remain intact and operational. FUBAR World, FUBAR Park, and my personal favorite, FUBAR Island will operate as before. The FUBAR Corporation did take this blow, but it is the fans who will truly feel the pain. It is the understanding of this management to determine the feasibility of re-establishing the FUBAR Softball Club. However, no definitive action has been taken. Until such a time, you can still see your favorite players of true FUBAR lineage at a ball-park near you. I thank you for your time." So, that was the end of Mr. Moeder's very direct and emotional statement to his people.

Member's of the FUBAR "Glory Years" were contacted by the FNC for their opinions of the situation.

Previous captain Scott "I'm not so horrible now am I?" Hager said, "You know, it can't always go the way we want. We won some, we lost some, but the loss of the name was big. I thought the prestige alone would've prevented that from happening. I guess you really can buy anything, and the actions of one weak individual prove that."

Chris "the real Nolan Ryan" Roth was quoted as saying, "What!... get the \^#\^\$ outta here. I don't believe it man. What a gyp!"

Kevin "Wild thing" Russo was unavailable for comment, but did send this telegram -

"Heard about the merger....STOP Anyone got any rope?....STOP" end transmission Jeff "speedy" Engel was quoted from aboard FUBAR 1., "I just heard about it. You think the guy who got the damn team to the finals last year would have at least tasted victory enough to want the FUBAR's atop one more time? Goes to show you how weak some people can be?"

The toxic twins, Steve "Cool 1" Hancock (huh huh, cool name dude...) and Brian "Capt. Caveman" Messer had the following comments:

Steve - "Hey, guys, that sucks about the name no? I mean, that was the team name, how can you just up and go change it no? Coca-Cola doesn't just decide one day that because one factory isn't up to snuff, let's allow Pepsi to rename our pop no? That really sucks man. I'm very upset. I don't know if I can go on dude.?!"

Brian - "What's up with that huh dude? That sucks. Oh well, guess we have to get new shirts too?... What a bummer. You know, we should make Mark pay for the retrofit! That's what I think!"

Noriyuki "The Silent Assassin" Kobayashi was contacted about the matter at his dojo in Japan, he had this to say, "I gonna choppa his head offa!" Obviously a very distraught individual there ladies and gentlemen.

The softball player formerly known as "Dickie" had this comment, "What dude, no more FUBAR'S, that really blows. Where else am I gonna get the opportunity to play ball and smoke? Oh yeah, and drink? And then smoke some more huh? Tell me. Where? That's just what we didn't need, new management..."

Classic center-fielder Ed "Stand By Me" GORDOn had a comment from his engineering physics lab somewhere in the northeastern US (location withheld due to sensitivity of materials handled there); "Hey baby what's goin' on there? I leave and the whole place falls apart. I knew it. There was a 34.732134% chance that if I left the team it would lose cohesion within two years! Damn am I good. Watch out Microsoft!"

There were various other comments by high ranking FUBAR officials, but this is a family news organization, and we wouldn't want to upset any "sensitive" types by printing vulgar material. The last thing we would want here is a few complaints by some freakish hippie earth-loving cult. So, we leave out the $%@#! comments that are offensive to the freakin' *&%$#!!!

Needless to say, Mark "where's my spine?" Avellino did eventually make a statement to FNC. He said, "Look, I had a lot of other commitments at the time. I am only one man. I understand the FUBAR pride and tradition, and somewhere along the way, I lost the drive. I could not have imagined the possibility of the outcry over this decision. Had I known, you're damn right I would have fought. Unfortunately, it didn't happen, and I must face the consequences. I am sorry..." At that Mark was placed under protection and escorted away.

Well FUBARian's there you have it once again. Just when it looks grim for the kids, they just come right back. The FUBAR'S are here to stay. One individual said that "the world's my oyster." That was before he lost it to the FUBAR'S! I think you know where this is going? We're knockin' and we're comin' in! With the new headquarters' in England, and division's worldwide, we can truly say that old adage (with a slight modification of course: The sun never sets on the FUBAR Empire.

So fellow FUBARians, press on in old style and the FUBAR's spirit will not falter. The dynasty lives on, the legend's live on, and the memory's live on...

This has once again been your faithful reporter and correspondent reporting only the real news to you, the FUBAR people. Press on and win!

Hello FUBARians, it's that time again. Once again the FUBAR Dynasty has been on the warpath. CEO/Founder of FUBAR CO. Dave "Wonderboy" Moeder was spotted this past month in Orlando, FL. And was alleged seen in company of the infamous FUBAR Capt. Mark "I lost the name" Avellino. In addition FUBAR Hall of Famer Chris "golden arm" Roth and Jesse "goin' postal" Rhodes were also inn attendance of the great Moeder. Mr. Moeder was approached while leaving a club in Orlando and asked why the change of heart in the Avellino case? Moeder commented, "You know, there comes a time in one's life when you have to let things go. Maybe now's the time to do that? I don't know, it's behind me and the organization and frankly I am focusing the organization to other avenues. Maybe the softball division will flourish again, maybe not. You can't keep a good thing down and it had great leadership through and through. The record speaks for itself. The guys know who the best were and so does the rest of the world. As for Avellino, he's a hell of a guy and you can't find a better drinkin' buddy. Anyway, I hear a beer callin' gotta go...." At that Mr. Moeder was spotted lumbering off into the sea of drunkin' party-goers. Of which Jesse "psycho" Rhodes was one of?...

Mark "the shark" Avellino, Jesse "Hey watch the hands!" Rhodes, Dave "@$$ grabbin" Moeder, and Chris "nice face" Roth tearin' it up in Orlando Florida, FUBAR Style.

Sources report the evening was a "mild" one as Jesse "the Savage Beast" Rhodes Did not get in a fight or draw police attention to the group!!!...Paparazzi were not happy.

On to other news, Ex-FUBAR Captain, Scott Hager "the horrible" has undertaken the helm of an Ice-hockey team, coincidentally named, you'll love this, "THE ICEMEN" Original if nothin else - NOTI® Just kidding. You can find Scott's new group of warriors at the following web site (also printed on the newsletters) - http://members.primary.net/~fran/icemen/be sure to check it out. You may even see a mention of the FUBAR News Corporation who are the sole reporters for the ICEMEN organization. Contracts were suspected to be quite lengthy and intricate.

Scott - "Hey Dave, can I write a newsletter about my hockey team and use FNC as the reporter's?"

Dave - "Yeah, sure just kiss are butt a little!?..."

Scott ~ "I can do that, thanks"

Thus the merger was born. Anyway, that's the new news. Other than that the FUBAR echelon continue to reek havoc amongst the rest of the globe. Jeff "Jet Wash" Engel was unavailable for comment as he has been utterly engrossed in flying "cargo?" around the US for an un-named source. Over at TEAM RUSSO (also known as ANTIPLANE 1) the kids are using their combined engineering skills to attempt a mass sterilization of "ugly" people!? (RUN GORDY RUN!) Steve "Cool 1" Hancock, and Brian "the wild man" Messer are still holding down camp ERAU, and have been promoting the "new" FUBAR movement by only wearing their FUBAR jerseys to games? Steve "the cute 1" Hancock (still giggle every-time I write that last name ©) was seen in company of Moeder in DAB as well during the last month. Hancock had this to say, "That Moeder kid is a little obsessed with the whole FUBAR thing hey. I mean, let it go little fella, time to move on. How old are you now anyway? 30? time to grow up buddy!?" Just for record, Hancock is now out of the will?? On to other news, Ed Gordon is apparently hiding from the sterilization machine!?....

Well kids, it's time for me to sign off once again. I have enclosed an interesting article about softball, read it, it's quite amusing. Especially when you get to the DO's and DON'Ts (Moeder is guilty of a few! ©) Well, keep on truckin' and that's the news.

Your steadfast and loyal reporter -

Softball is your last best chance to lurch toward greatness, your final shot at the shiny plastic cup

By Tom Chiarella

At some level, everybody plays softball. Import some schmoe from France to your weekend league and you can likely get him through the basics in fifteen minutes, stick him in right, and bat him last without snarling things too badly. No doubt he'd bad-mouth the sport upon his return to Marseilles, but, truth be told, even a Frenchman could nibble a single and knock down the occasional stray fly. Pencil the frog in at the bottom of the order and play ball.

Still, not everyone cares about softball. After all, there's a certain amount of risk in caring about winning a game in which, as you step to the plate, your teammate leads off third wearing a thigh-grabbing pair of Jordache jeans, a promotional windbreaker, and a ski cap, while in the distance a lanky left fielder readies himself in a full-blown Marlins uniform. It's easy to write off a sport in which between pitches the catcher spits sunflower-seed shells on your new cleats and bitches about not playing second anymore. But you're in the game; you care because you have to.

the male animal

If you don't care about softball, don't play. Play because you care. Care because it doesn't matter. Win because you still can. My team, Jerry's Foreign Auto, won my town's B-league championship, and I'm here to tell you it was an epic run-racking up wins, going chin to chin with concrete workers, bickering and fussing, drinking and diving for line drives. What more could a summer offer?

Our team ran the length of the genetic salad bar: a mixture of moderate muscle, limited speed, and various advanced degrees. In the outfield, we had a former high school quarterback, a HVAC repairman, and a balding geologist. A guy named Moose manned first, a sociologist guarded second, and a forty-three-year-old Deadhead with bad knees, who sometimes quoted Blake at infield conferences and took the ball to right better than Tony Gwynn, did the work at shortstop. Our pitcher was an Italian physicist who could, on good nights, drop the rock on a dime. A couple of bearded academics served as backstops and utility men. Me, I held down third. Barely.

For years an outfielder, citizen of the land of the speedy, the young, the acrobatic, I had shifted grudgingly that very season, after my final game in left had ended with one inning in which three consecutive line drives disappeared into the setting sun then reappeared, after skimming my glove, as direct cannon shots to my chest. Suddenly, I was in the infield, where there's a premium on bravery and quick hands-especially at the hot corner, where the ability to stop balls with your chest represents a primary qualification for the job.

We began that season in a battle with Cash Concrete, a fully uniformed, semibearded bunch of tough guys who regarded us as the lowest sort of trash-brainy wannabes, pretenders to the B-division crown. We spanked them, 13-7, but, as with most softball rivalries, bad feelings arose out of something that occurred off the field, after the game, when our geologist spun his wheels on the park gravel, tossing broken stone across the fronts of Trans Ams and Camaros of hues too numerous to mention. "That's my fucking car!" one of the Concrete boys said, and soon we were all face-to-face, holding bats, each of us thinking, "Well, shit. What now?" We were grown men. Didn't we have anything better to do with our time? Of course we did. Did this really matter that much? Shit, yes.

ON TAKING IT LONG

A sheriff's deputy from Bradenton, Florida, holds the all-time record for the longest home run in softball. One summer day in 1978, Bruce Meade smashed the ball 510 feet. (That's more than one and a half football fields.) Meade stands six feet six inches and weighs 280 pounds, but he'll tell you that batting is more about technique and hip action than heft.

GRIP Bat speed = whip = wallop. To generate the fastest possible swing, loop the pinkie of your bottom hand below the knob, with your ring finger over the top. Or try the lap-over: The pinkie of your top hand rests on top of the index finger and thumb below. Keep it loose—don't squeeze. Some sluggers hook the top pinkie and bottom index finger.

The pitch is coming ... and coming. Your weight's back, your front leg hangs in the air.

TIMING Stay back ... and explode. Keep your weight on your back foot, your back elbow up, and your sights over your lead shoulder. With the pitch, your front leg lifts, and your swing begins to uncoil. Your weight shifts forward as you step; your hips turn, your shoulders and wrists follow-a chain reaction that peaks at the fat of your bat.

thermaleanimal lem em

According to Peter Porcelli Jr., chairman and manager of the 1997 ASA national-champion Tampa Bay Smokers, the right hat worn the right way will get you on base, even when you're not on the field. Here's how Porcelli adjusts his cap:

o Collapse the back of the hat into the crown and press it into a domed shape. "Umpires like to have three creases in their crowns," says Porcelli, "but you shouldn't. And be sure there are no wrinkles."

o Gently roll the bill into a tube, like a cardboard cannoli. To make it hold its shape, reroll a few times. Be careful not to fold it, and don't roll it too tightly. "Tiger Woods takes it a little too far," Porcelli asserts. "His brim looks like a paper-towel roll. That's not practical on the ball field."

 Still striking out? Improve your average by watching professional moves in action. Call 813-249-2255 for the Smokers' schedule.

Drinking and Driving the Ball

Drinking at a softball game should never be discouraged, particularly if the other team is drinking more than yours and most especially when you are spraying the ball straight at their punims like a bunch of pissed-off hornets. Although most leagues ban beer from the ball yard, almost any softball game is made a little richer with a case or so put back for the late innings. One or two beers take the edge off any aluminum-bat envy you might be harboring, but keep in mind that while hitting a softball might feel as comfortable and safe as piloting your SUV, fielding is quite another matter. Knocking down a one-hop rocket at the end of a forty-five-foot makeshift base path is more like operating heavy machinery. Drink all you want, but keep your wits about you and your hands high.

How to Hide Your Game Face

Okay, everyone knows you're the scourge of the house league, fleet of foot and long of ball, but your next game is against corporate, whose team includes the CEO—that's Ms. CEO to you—and her avid but athletically challenged lieutenants. Running up the score on the hapless suits would be just plain mean—not to mention hazardous to your career. On the hockey rink or basketball court, you could subtly downsize your game simply by orchestrating plays and setting everyone else up to score. But a softball game is a collection of individual efforts—and in this case, yours would be overkill. So how do you take the edge off your game?

• Think like a dad. Play just hard enough to force opposing players to make adequate plays, so they beat themselves if they can't.

 Play catcher. You can quietly affect the pace and outcome of the game without having to make heroic catches or in-your-face DPs.

o Chop the ball. On every hittable pitch. You'll get on base either because one of the suits boots the ball or because it squirts through the infield for a hit. But no one gets hurt.

• Remember: Don't act smug when you ratchet down your effort. Don't bat lefty if you're a righty. Don't throw like a girl. Don't run like a duck. The suits want to win fair and square. Humor them.

Ionce heard Ken Burns ramble on at a college lecture about baseball being a game of smallfailures. Maybe so, but softball is about success. You're supposed to get a hit every time up. While hitting a baseball may be the premier atavistic pleasure in all of sportsthe ferocious crispness! the surprising action!—hitting a softball is more akin to driving a twelvepenny nail into a wet towel. Do it well and a workmanlike sensibility comes over you. Do it poorly and-whoop-de-doyou're legging out a one-hopper to the local clergyman. In softball, making contact is not the point; it's the given. A .300 hitter is a warm body just hoping to play catcher. One for three doesn't cut it. Five hundred is the number-to succeed more than you fail. We managed the same with wins, and we liked it.Ken Burns could kiss our ass.

In late June, we won a game when our shortstop hit a knobby grounder to third that bounced up and shattered the third baseman's nose. From then on, whenever we needed a clutch hit, the call went up from the bench: "Give us a little rhinoplasty!" Soon after, the stone-spraying geologist left a dinnertime game when it looked as if the other team would forfeit, saying, "I gottago. The manicotti's on the table." Minutes later, the other team showed up, and we played them a man short, winning 12-10. From then on, when he strode to the plate, we called to our man: "The manicotti's on the table, Fred!" Such were our war cries.

The season pressed on. Ligaments >

DON'T BE ASKING FOR TROUBLE

You're no stranger to the gym; you've been running, blading, treading the mill-whatever-all winter. Your legs feel solid, and (hey, it's only softball) you're game-ready. Not so fast out of the box, says Dr. Elton Strauss, chief of (and sometime third baseman for) Orthopedic Trauma and Adult Reconstructive Surgery at New York's Mount Sinai Hospital.

Don't Pull a Fast One

Leg muscles are easily the most common casualties in softball, says Strauss. Most likely, your off-season ambulatory exertions do little to prepare you for sudden acceleration and the twenty-two-yard dash to first. A quadricep pull can end your season, and a blown-out Achilles tendon requires surgical repair. Here are your best shots at avoiding them.

1. The first-inning stretch.

Invariably, you're late getting out of the office and impatient to take the field. The only right thing to do, though, is to take a warm-up jog, no less than five minutes—"Always take the long way around," says Strauss-then stretch. Stretching cold is a waste of time.

your right ankle with your right hand and bring the ankle up behind you as far as possible. Repeat on your left side.

Walk around on your heels, then lean against a fence or wall and press the heel of each foot in turn to the ground behind you.

Find a partner; sit on the ground, legs apart, foot to foot, and pull on each other's hands, pushing your legs as far apart as possible.

Don't Tear Yourself Up

Things you never want to feel: your rotator cuff rotating too far; your arm distancing itself from your shoulder; your lower back finding a new and asymmetrical alignment.

How not to feel them: Throw plenty of warm-up tosses, use the lightest bat you can, and cultivate your own on-deck ritual—take lots of warm-up swings and loosen the shoulders and torso with the classic repertoire of bat contortionism. You're not a showboating wannabe—you're taking care of business. -BEN DICKINSON

By Michael Segell

Every team has one. He's the guy who takes the game just a little too seriously, dispenses ridiculous advice (Don't throw the ball in the dirt!), argues every close call, and compulsively takes out opponents with high slides. The only reason the team puts up with him is that he takes care of all the details off the field—arranging for diamond permits, uniforms, equipment, practice schedules, phone lists, transportation, and beer. Or, of course, because he single-handedly wins games. Still, he's a pain and needs to be neutralized if you're going to continue to find anyone willing to play you. How do you deal?

o Shower him with affection. Basically, he has no life. Why else would he care so much? Everyone on the team should · Alternatively, pretend he's invisible. Look through him, as if you were the Dalai Lama, when he suggests you should have swung on that called third strike. But there is no past, my little jockstrap. Be passive to his aggressive.

- o Invite his wife or girlfriend to the game. Encourage her to lean on him when he loses his grip.
- Put him in right field. At least you won't hear him for half the game.
- o Pay the umpire to throw him out of the game. Even if you lose, it's worth it.

were torn, fingers jammed. You limp through summers when you play softball. The raspberry scabs from too many ill-advised slides patch your thighs, weeping into your chinos by day, oozing openly during games, daring you to slide on them just one more time. Your moments come and go. You dive for a line drive and come up with it. You peg the relay throw just right, just once, and it saves a game. You trip from ten wins to twelve, then fifteen. Soon you start to care.

My moment of the summer came, as it does for all bit players, in a meaningless tilt, mine against the House of Phones. My parents were visiting, and I dragged my father to a game. I had probably played in 250 ball games, and I could recall his presence at only one, a Little League game in which I, having been banished to right, made a routine catch and walked in my only plate appearance. For him, sports, and baseball in particular, are about as compelling as accountancy. He did his job in other ways, and I held no grudge, but I wanted him to see my game.

Son of a bitch if the first pitch didn't come in flat and I didn't crush it to left over the head of a wobbly cell-phone salesman. I found myself, at the age of thirty-one, rounding second and looking up into the stands to see if my father was watching. He was, over the top of his newspaper. I bore down and crossed the plate standing.

I climbed the bleachers and watched the rest of the inning with my father. "Nice hit," he said.

I thanked him and, after a pause, asked: "Did I look really slow?"

"Not too bad," he said, without elaborating. In the third, I hit a two-run single, and the manager, the little martinet, pulled me, in one of those indecipherable coaching decisions. My dad and I watched the boys gimp out a 5-3 win. We were nearing our glory. In two weeks, we would nail down the championship, dropping the Concrete team once again in a final dash of closure.

As we walked home, my dad allowed that he'd been thinking about my speed question. "You were running hard on the homer, not fast, but you looked determined, like it mattered." I laughed and said it really didn't matter, that I'd just wanted one more homer and I was glad he had seen it, since it was probably my last ever. All of that proved true, too, reaffirming the simple, incongruent axiom of softball: It really didn't matter, and I really did care. 19

Dear Everyone,

I thought I would make this easy on myself, and write a "general" letter to all concerned. For those of you who haven't heard from me in a while (as I am a terrible relative/friend or both), let me re-cap what's been going on. I'm sure most of you have heard that I am engaged to be married this October the 10th (that would be 1998, for you keeping score.) For those who have not heard;... Bonus. It was your classic case of boy meets girl; boy phones girl; girl visits boy; boy visits girl a couple of times;... then boy moves off to England!... You see, nothing more than your average everyday love story?! (Universal is purchasing the rights...look for it in theatre's in '99!?)

Anyway, this letter will eventually be followed up by a formal invitation but for now, consider this the 'el cheapo version. I will be getting "hitched" to Dawn Maddock (of the England Maddocks and they have utterly assured me that do not know the queen!?) and I figured I'd give you a heads up as the "best darn wedding this side of the equator" is about to creep upon you and you need to plan ahead, as it will... (this is where I put the disclaimer about those of you with back problems, heart disorders, susceptible to motion sickness, or shorter than four feet to take a seat, anyway "as it will...") take place in jolly old ENGLAND! Now, now, settle down kids as I don't want to have to come back there and really give you something to cry about!... We figured that having the ceremony/ reception in England was a fair compromise as I moved there for this period of two years. and then we would move to remain in the good ole' US of A. . I have been learning a lot about a very productive and healthy relationship here, and that the secret to maintaining that level is by understanding that there will be a lot of sacrifices (i.e. "Yes dear!, we most certainly can have the wedding in England." (2) Now most of you at this point are thinking..."*%$£! ENGLAND, is he out of his freakin' mind?" I have been questioned about my mental stability on more than one occasion in the past, but I assure you (or one of my other personalities does) that I am indeed ... sane...

So anyway, now that the introduction to this letter is concluded, on to the main portion. The reason you are receiving the "'el cheapo" version is so you can start saving your wampum (that's gibberish for money) and we can't afford the good ones yet. The official date is (get a pen and paper...I'll wait go ahead...) October 10th, 1998! Airfares should not be too bad in October, but the weather may or may not be so co-operative (therefore, pack a sweater and an umbrella.) Remember, as with any airline fares, the earlier booked, the better rate!? (British Airways and Virgin Atlantic airlines are currently having a price war, worth checking out?)

Accommodations are for the most part available on a first come, first serve basis provided some don't mind the floor. Therefore, if you arrive earlier (or make a phone arrangement with us - bribes help) you will get a "bed-type" object to sleep on, those afterward unfortunately get the Siberian Nail-Board. (Or you can of course book other accommodations - We will of course find some suitable hotels, etc. for your choosing...)

The wedding will be in Birmingham (no not Alabama), which is located in the center of England. First airport of choice is ironically Birmingham, then London Heathrow or Gatwick, and lastly Manchester. (I highly recommend a "non-stop" flight.) If you plan to make this a little vacation, please arrive for the week prior to the wedding, as there will be multiple people who will also wish to sight-see and we could all go and take places by storm. Besides, Dawn and I are planning the honeymoon for that Mon. the 12th onward and if you think we're gonna leave some bloody Americans in our home whilst we're away, you're sorely mistaken mister! (just kidding, but a pretty bloody good English accent 'eh?)

I hope you can all attend this glorious and brilliant affair (OK, now I'm just getting silly). One other thing of minor importance. You will need (unfortunately a must item) to "acquire" a passport. Forms can be found in your local post office. It will require your birth certificate, two "passport" photo's (which are the ones you can only get from a photo center, and cost twice as much and are half a good as ones you can do yourself?!), and of course a little monetary "donation" for their time and "effort" at the US immigration office ("effort" by definition, involves pasting "one" of the photo's into the passport!?) Anybody know what happens to the second one? If you already have a passport, verify it will still be valid as they have a shelf-life of ten years, and if so, ignore the aforementioned.

Anyway, I've given you almost ten months notice, so hopefully you can sort all of this out and attend. Please notify us and let us know if you are a "yes", "maybe", or "sorry, but we have other plans". If you're having a problem getting through to us here in England, then call "mom", and let her know, as like a good son, I call every week and can get the info. from her. I thank you for your time, and hope you can make it. I will understand if you cannot attend, but if you don't, remember, I know where you live!.... Be safe, have fun Talk soon.

"I'd rather have a bottle in front of me than a frontal lobotomy..."

FUBAR NEWS Corporation Publishing. European Division, England. Copyright 1998. All Rights Reserved

Hello Fubarians, hope all finds you well this fine month of September? This is your loyal and dedicated comrade reporting live (well. as live as we can get here!?) once again from our headquarters in Birmingham, England. Since we've relocated FUBAR HQ to our European office, we have noticed a slight difference in the climate from our once favorable and much welcome Florida Office. This change you ask, well let us tell you. Florida was a much welcome environment, boasting a mostly year round mix of sun and surf, with your occasional storm and a nice mild winter. You could say Florida had a relatively summer climate. Now what have FUBAR personnel been noticing over here in England? you ask... Well, Seeing as how FUBAR HQ is located at a more seasonal latitude of 52 ½ degrees

North (unlike Florida's more tropical latitude of 30!) we would expect a more noticeable change in climate. One would expect a fairly harsh cold winter, a mild spring and summer, and a pretty wet fall. Well, it's been 18 months now at Club FUBAR we've been through all 12 months on the calendar at least once and let us tell you, there is (just like Florida) a predominant season. Which one you ask? Is it Fall?... Negative... A year-round Spring... Big Donut there!... A familiar FUBAR Summer Season?... Nope. That would leave a Winter then?... Actually that's not it either!?... So what then? Well, let us not keep you in suspense anymore (this should've weeded out the non-believers by now?) There is indeed one predominant season my friends -Cloudy! That's right. Temp's range from freezing to 80s, but it's a gradual and mild change, the one staple in all this is clouds kids! You want 'em you got 'em, all the groups, low, middle, high, and those with vertical development. Some of our associates have been back to the states, they claim they have seen a large orange orb which appears to hang in the sky!? We'd commit them, except some of the "ancient" FUBAR prophets remember seeing this object back in the old world. We at FUBAR HQ have adopted a new lifestyle which does not require the use of this "sun" as they once called it. Our bodies have adopted a new form of regenerative process which allows us to break up biological nutrients into sugars for bodily heat energy. So to get to the point, we're making do?...

Anyway, on to the news- there hasn't been that much since the last FNC report. The FUBAR Lingerie line has been a huge success, and FNC is planning a merger with SEGA Enterprises for a first of it's kind Video Softball game! It's going be huge kids! All your favorite teams will be there – Ron Con Coca, Flight Team, Housing, even FUBAR arch-rivals - Ground Effect. Take your boys to the top! Play an entire 8 game season and then hit the single elimination playoffs where the action really gets good!? Think that's it? Well, let me tell you with 32 bit processing, the action is as realistic as it gets! See Kevin "the wild man" Russo snicker as he "K"'s the opposition, hear Ed "Stand By Me" Gordon say his patented, "check out that catch bucky!?" and our personal favorite, see Ron "where's he gone?" Doles spit and scratch at Short-stop. Last minute inputs include Ground Effect's Pitcher Mason "Potty-Mouth" Aldrich screaming "Aw, come on ump, if that was any closer to the box you could call me the president!" and Jeff "Hooter" Engel pound the dirt after it rolls through the five hole! Also, Use your controller to duke it out Mortal Kombat style when another team gets in your face, or use the same function to see which captain (Moeder, Avellino, or Hager) will lead the team to victory as you fight for control of the Boys! Check out the game of games - FUBAR's - Lead, Follow, or Get out of the Way!... In stores this Fall!

OK, enough for the merchandising, now on to other news. Chris Roth wins the "First FUBAR to visit Dave in England" contest! Chris "Cy-Young" Roth had the pleasure of working for a week in the UK. Founder/CEO Dave "the Immortal" Moeder met up with Chris in London for a day viewing the sights and a night on the town. Chris was very impressed with London and the English culture. Couldn't stop him from making an @$$ of himself a couple times but that's the hazard of being in a foreign country with an American.

However, FNC was lucky to have him in country and bring that little bit (OK, with Chris that's a lot of bit) of American culture we miss so much over here. It was an amazing experience and as we both stated at one point, "Dude, I can't believe we're sitting in London!" Chris will be receiving his award by mail shortly (Dude, you have to blow it up first!?...)

So now for our Top Story, the big news of the day is of course the mother of all weddings. FUBAR Founder/CEO Dave "Boy Wonder" Moeder is getting down to the wire boys and girls! At time of print he was 33 days from the big day!? Now, will this be the downfall of the Mighty Moeder Empire at FUBAR Corp.? Will it turn in to a "Bill and Hillary" situation where "she" will secretly wield the FUBAR power why the rest of the FUBAR Dynasty have nothing to do but watch as Dave turns into a "Do-Boy"? What does this mean? Well we've gotten some very shocking comments from various FUBAR sources close to the action...

Mark "The Shark" Avellino had this to say, "This is it, without the Kid in the seat, I can expose him for the fraud he really is and when the organization needs someone to stand in, I'll do it with pride, the sell the mother for all it's worth (probably to Ground Effect) and run like hell. By the time they figure it out, baby I will long gone and the check will be cashed kid!?"

Scott "I'm not so horrible" Hager had these comments, "Man Moeder buying into the marriage world, let me tell ya man, Marriage is a great institution, if you like living in an institution!?"

Chris "The greatest FUBAR pitcher in the world ever..." Roth had this comment, "Dude, When I heard Dave was getting married, I was like Dude and all my friends were like Dude, but I really think he's a great guy and wish him well and Dawn good luck....Man what a load of crap there huh? God how long to I have to keep kissin' that kids @$$!?, I mean <Sir, we're still live.>...'er, what a great pinnacle to modern team-building Mr. Moeder is. A role model for all. ...Damn that was close... Dude you know what that could do to my FUBAR X-Mas Bonus <Sir, the little red light, that means> G-d Dammit man, will you tell me when we're F clear!!!"

Ed "You got a friend in me" Gordon was approached for comment and only stated, "As I have said on previous times, you got nothing nice to say, you totally make fun of the guy and talk behind his back... That kids a freaking nightmare on society. I mean he's a little wacky! You know, playing house but nobody's home, switching the channels but the TV's off, I'm talking your run of the mill fruit cake! Man, don't get me wrong, he's no Benedict Arnold like that Avellino schmuck, but there's just too many quirks about that guy!" <Didn't you room with him one year?> "Hey man, I was desperate, needed money, you got nothin', That's it, interview is over, gotta go." <But you just got here and I booked an hour> "Yeah, well I forgot you were an @$$hole, so I'm off OK!"

Lastly, we approached our always loyal and dedicated FUBAR hall of famer, Jeff "Jet Wash" Engel. He had this for a comment, "I had the pleasure of meeting Dawn for the first time last X-Mas. My lovely wife Tanya and I spent two whole days with Dawn and Dave and let me tell you, we never met a more courteous, gracious and caring person as Dawn. What the hell she sees' in Dave I have no freaking idea. I mean I love Dave as much as the next guy, well maybe not as much as Gordon but he needed money back then, but I mean he's cocky, arrogant, hell the guy benched me! What the hell was he thinking? I was the best offensive player the FUBAR's ever saw. What a Jack-@$$." <Didn't you actually WIFF once?... In softball?>

"Hey! Did I say Jack-@$$? I mean't nice @$$! Guy's a god, couldn't say anything nicer about him."

So there you have it, the views of the veterans, good thing we edited the interviews, one guy actually dropped his trousers and ... well, we don't need to tell you what Gordon did (got a few bucks from us for it though!?). Anyway, that's the news for now, have yourself a fine FUBAR day and remember, no one is worthless, well except maybe Jesse Rhodes!?... oh, and that Avellino character acts up now and again as well. Once again, this is your friend, and mine?, reporting from cloud city (told you I'd get a Star Wars reference in here somewhere!). Talk later;

Here's a rare opportunity to see first-hand the newest addition to the FUBAR aerial fleet. This baby cruises at over 100 knots and reaches altitudes of +10,000 feet, and the plane doesn't do too bad either. Come see this puppy on display for a limited time only at the Smithsonian Air & Space museum in the FUBAR wing. Also be sure to read the attached Ed "Live it up baby" Gordon supplement to the FUBAR newsletter "Rules for choosing a company softball team" Enjoy, this has been another FNC publication.

FIRST CLASS MAIL

CLASS

Hello everyone, first thing, this will not be one of my patented seven page "hold on a minute while I take a seat 'cause we're gonna be here all day" letters, but just a quick note to accompany the invitation (which is good 'cause they get lonely too you know?) By the way, those of you who had the thought "man I hope this isn't one of those patented "Moeder Seven-Pager" deals, you can toss the invite at this time ! Now for my "real" family and friends, read on and enjoy the wonder of my multi-faceted and sometimes awe-inspiring literary talent?...

You have in your hands (besides the letter) a wonderous and brilliant (they love that word here) opportunity to, well quite frankly attend Dawn's and my wedding. It will be as far as I can deem a very memorable one and I hope you can attend, however, there is one catch... (a Moeder clause!?...) As indicated on the invitation, it will be in Birmingham. That would be the one in England though and not the one in Alabama. So, there are a few considerations I figured you would want to be aware of when making plans...

First is the issue of a passport. You will need one and they usually take up to six weeks to acquire and require two photos (They keep one? Where it goes? Who knows?) If you have one, then verify it is still valid as they have a ten year shelf life, I believe five if you obtained prior to your 18th birthday. I also figured you would want an idea of costs associated with this glorious endeavor. For planning purposes, the current monetary exchange rate is 1.70 US dollars to 1.00 UK Pound. The main analogy is that you take the US dollar price sign and replace it with a UK Pound one and that's what things cost. I can tell you then some estimates for expenses (note dollars or pounds) (These are estimates \otimes)

Airfare -

400-700 dollars (depending on when you book, and with who)

Passport -

65 dollars

Hotels/Bed&Break. - 40-70 pounds/night (sleep 4 - one double, two singles)

Transportation -

20 pounds (train fare - daily roundtrip Birmingham to London)

Those are the main expenses I can think of, if you have any other concerns, feel free to call us or email me for info. As for me, for those I haven't spoken with in a while, I am here in England as I have been for the past year working as a civilian for the USAF. I will be marrying Dawn Maddock (as stated on the invite) of the Telford Maddocks. (They have asked me to assure you that they do not know the queen.) I moved over here to be a little closer to Dawn as the commute was killin' me, what with the swimming and all!?... (OK, that was really bad.) Anyway, I'm going to leave you now, and hope you can attend. Dawn and I would appreciate if you could RSVP (include total number attending) by July 20th as many of you know a final number count is crucial to wedding planning. Also, Dawn needs to know how many of her family will then be able to attend. (serious - by the way, I will assume if you do not reply at all, you are secretly trying to sabotage our day - hey, thanks.) Looking forward to seeing you all.

Later. Dave

Hello again everyone. I would first like to thank you for choosing to attend the "best wedding you will ever see this side of the equator" Well, you have decided to take the infamous hop across the pond? Let me tell you, nothing like 6 hours in coach class - Yee Ha. Most of you have been inquiring about airline tickets, but I figured you may well want the info. For Hotels, Bed and Breakfasts and taxi/trains and coaches (see attached vocabulary list - it's a bus) as well. The attached pages will cover all those except the coaches. If you are traveling into the following airports, you will need to get a coach to Birmingham -

Heathrow - £25.00/person Gatwick - £28.00/person Manchester - £13.50/person (These are the prices as of August 31st.)

The coach will get you from and to the airport. Suggest you allow a couple hours for baggage claim and customs when determining the coach time. You can call in advance, or pay when you arrive, however booking in advance guarantees a seat. I will provide a number to book in advance, just tell them the arrival time and destination of your flight and they will advise the best coach time. You will need a coach from your airport to the BIRMINGHAM DIGBETH COACH STATION

NATIONAL EXPRESS - 011-44-990-80-80-80

(If you fly into Birmingham International, let us know and we will pick you up.)

If you are one of those who has grabbed a first come, first serve spot in our place, just keep in mind that you will still need a hotel room on the Friday Night (Oct. 9th) before the wedding so Dawn doesn't kill you* (* she has been known to get in a mood when getting ready for important occasions and for some reason she thinks this may be the case here so if anyone were to accidentally get in the way, god help them!!!!) and you may want to bring some bedding if you have the room. (i.e. a sleeping bag is the best choice, however, don't go buy one for this, we'll get you something otherwise.)

Make sure when you book anything over the phone, inquire as to whether they take VISA, etc. but ensure you can, if your planning to, pay when you arrive or if you have to pay when you reserve (i.e. in advance over the phone?).

That should be about it. If you haven't found flights yet, I would suggest arriving on the morning of or prior to the 6th. I suggest spending a week here to sight-see a bit as well, but I understand many are quite busy. The best flight time is the overnight (or "red-eye") and stay up the day you arrive, really controls the jet-lag.

I know some of you have asked about gifts, however, we understand what it takes to just get over here for this so we are not expecting anything. Now, if you have money to burn, we did register with a gift service here. I've enclosed the brochure, you can call to get a gift list or find out what's on it. (The most important stuff is the luggage ©) If your not sure about a gift, money will work quite well too! ©

Well, I guess that's it for now, if you have any questions or need any help with this stuff, feel free to call on any of the following numbers -

Dave and Dawn - 011-11-121-249-0953 (answering machine) Dave (work M-F) - 011-44-1638-52-3152

I've also enclosed a list of common terms which may be misinterpreted by the British if you use them like you would in the US. (Just look at it and think what would happen if you said, "Nice Pants." To a lady. So, study up and there will be no problem blending in...

DAVE'S BIG TIP! - DO NOT FORGET YOUR PASSPORTS!

Talk later are you in about 5 models.

Talk later, see you in about 5 weeks.

DIRECTIONS TO THE CHURCH AND TO HIGHBURY HALL.

FROM M6 (Junction 6)

- Follow the A38 (M) into Birmingham City Centre (this road will take you over an overpass and under three tunnels to a set of traffic lights/stop lights (approximately 4 miles McDonalds is on the right hand far side of the lights.)
- Continue straight through these lights and through two sets of pedestrian lights to another set of traffic lights (approximately 1 mile after McDonalds- Priory Road)
- At these lights EITHER -
- Turn right (to the Priory Hospital, Harbourne, Ladywood and the Botanical Gardens) to head towards Edgbaston Old Church
 OR
- Turn left (to County Cricket Club, Balsall Heath, Moseley and Cannon Hill Park) to head towards Highbury Hall.

IF YOU GET LOST ASK ANYONE FOR DIRECTIONS TO THE COUNTY CRICKET GROUND AND TRACE YOUR STEPS FROM THIS POINT. (See directions to Highbury Hall)

FROM M5 (Junction 4 - do not exit at Junction 5 even though sign-posted for the A38)

- Take the A38 to Birmingham South West (do NOT follow the A38 to Bromsgrove!) into City Centre (total distance is approximately 8.5 miles):-

You will pass through four sets of traffic lights/stop lights (including pedestrian lights) then, turn left at a small island and then pass through another 24 sets of traffic lights (including pedestrian lights) There are speed cameras on this road and are usually in use. The speed limit is 40 mph so please be careful!!

As you head into Birmingham City Centre you will pass through Northfield and Selly Oak. After Selly Oak, Birmingham University is on the left hand side and the BBC Studios are signposted to the right. You will then approach the final set of traffic lights. - Turn either -

OR

Right (to County Cricket Ground, Balsall Heath, Moseley, and Cannon Hill Park) to head towards Highbury Hall.

IF YOU GET LOST ASK ANYONE FOR DIRECTIONS TO THE COUNTY CRICKET GROUND AND TRACE YOUR STEPS FROM THIS POINT. (See directions to Highbury Hall)

FROM THE M40 AND M42:

Although you have to drive around Birmingham, it is wiser to come in to Birmingham City Centre from the M6 (Junction 6). It does add about 15 minutes to your journey but it will avoid you queueing in traffic for about 45 minutes in Kings Heath!

TO THE CHURCH:

Follow the road up the hill (heading towards the Botanical Gardens) to the top. You will pass the Priory Hospital on your left hand side.

Turn right at the roundabout and park on the road side as near as possible to the roundabout, the church was on the left on the roundabout.

(There is no parking on the dual carriageway in front of the church or in the Golf Club next door!)

TO HIGHBURY HALL

At the next set of lights go straight through towards Moseley (the cricket ground is on the left after the lights)

At the next roundabout turn right into Russell Road. (Highbury is sign-posted). Follow the road to the end, at the roundabout - straight over into Queensbridge Road. Turn right into Yew Tree Road (sign-posted to Highbury) Highbury Hall has a concealed entrance on the left hand side.

BY TRAIN:

Take a train to Birmingham New Street Station. Outside the station there is a taxi rank/stand for you to get a taxi to the church or Highbury.

PLEASE NOTE:

There is parking at Highbury, however there is no function on the Sunday. If you want to leave your car, take a taxi home and collect your vehicle the next day then you must park on the road overnight or you will not be able to recover your car until Monday at 9:00am because the gates to Highbury will be locked.

For those attending the evening reception, you will be welcome at the Church if you wish to see the wedding service take place. The service commences at 2:00pm but please advise us if you are going to attend so that we can ensure that an order of service will be available for you!.

The afternoon meal will be served at 4:00pm and the evening buffet will be served at 8:30pm.

The function is due to end at 11:30pm. If you need a taxi then please book in advance by 9:00pm. A phone and taxi numbers are situated in the bar in Highbury Hall.

Hello FUBARians. Big news for the FUBAR camp. Dave "Living Legend" Moeder has wed! That's right folks. Apparently the CEO/ Founder of the FUBAR Corporation has taken a bride. Dawn "it wasn't for the money" Maddock was the lucky lady who stole Dave's heart. The lady from England completed the merger on OCT 10th, and has probably just married the most influential person of the 20th century. The FUBAR upper management are up in arms as to the potential effect this may have on the corporation. As of printing date, the stocks have not shown any sign of faltering, but only time will tell. Anyway, the photo above (courtesy of the FNC Press Corp.) shows that many major FUBAR representatives were in attendance, including FUBAR legend from the New York based division Bill "I'm the kids brother, that's why I have a job" Moeder.

Most FUBAR rep's arrived in town around the 7th of OCT., with the occasional slacker, or two, arriving later. FNC will not mention the names of those individuals, but will tell you Jeff Engel took "arriving the latest but still attending the wedding" prize with his arrival of 0815 on OCT 10th! Way to go Jeff! Your check is in the mail!?...

There were approximately 30 guests and friends from Camp FUBAR attending the ceremnony which took place in Birmingham, England. A very impressive turn out to say the least. Dave "hitched" Moeder had this comment, "I was so impressed with the numbers. It was a lot to ask, but everyone did their best to try and get here and I'm grateful for everyones effort."

From left: Ethan, Ed, Thomas, Jesse, Dave. Jeff S., Chris, Girl#1, Girl#2, Girl#3, Girl#4, Louise, and Bill. The FUBAR VP's in conjunction with Dave's (at the time) fiancée, had themselves a night of festive partying prior to the wedding. This did consist of consuming mass quantities of BEvERages and of course a meal at the FUBAR's favorite eatery, HOOTERS which have just opened a few restaurants in the UK. (Pictured above are FUBAR's and Friends.) The FUBAR tourist brigade as they became affectionately known did much sightseeing also whilst in the "Old Country", including a trip to a castle and the infamous, "Yanks visit London" Tour which happened the night after Dave's little Bachelor do. This meant Dave was feeling a bit "SHY" for the entire day. (This feeling never went away either.) One FUBARian was quoted as saying (we think it was the Roth kid,?), "Dude, you look like sh*t!" Moeder's reply was something along the lines of, "Look buddy, I can still play softball better than you AND kick your @$$!" Chris Roth shrugged this off as beer delirium and hangover effects. Other FUBARians just made loud noises and made the occasional comment of, "you did it to yourself", and "that's what happens when you drink so much."

"Philosophers all they have become;... I hope they all die..."

Dawn & Dave with gifts purchased from FUBAR annual dues account... "Thank you very much!"

After the wedding event of the century, the Moeder's, jetted off to Italy, where they spent three weeks traipsing all over the country. Of course FUBAR press was there documenting it all, but the real news was back in the UK and England, where the press was having a field day with the guests. Here are a few comments:

Kevin" Wild Thing" Russo, "What a bunch of pompous bastards, one guy said to me, "I take it your kind aren't used to an occasion such as this? I would imagine something a bit more... middle class" - Middle class! I got your middle class right here buddy." Russo was later identified as the "crazy little American who tried to kill muffy."

Ed "Goose-man" Gordon had this to say, "I haven't seen the kid in almost three years and I flew all the way over for this crap! Dude, what's up with that!"

Jesse "Underground" Rhodes, "Dude, I thought the wall just divided the street from the sidewalk, let me tell you, it didn't - 25ft down baby...don't ever jump over a 3ft high wall in a drunken stupor... That sucked!?..."

Anyway, all turned out in the end for a spectacular time and fun honeymoon. Other than that, there's not much more to say, so that will do it for this FNC SPECIAL EDITION Report, updating you on the marriage of our CEO/Founder to his bride. Hope she helps to run it better than the little Dictator does? Anyway, that's the news and once again this has been your loyal and dedicated reporter, bringing you only the facts and truth. Till next time, TTFN...

So, there you have it, if you've gotten this far, I commend you (or pity you – one or the other?) In either case, thanks for at least looking at this thing for me. It only took me, oh, about 11 years to get this far. Good thing no one was waiting for it or anything. The big question now is, did you really read this far into the book, or did you just skip ahead to the last pages? You see, if you read it to here then that would be ok but, if you skipped, well that is just unacceptable!?... I mean, that's the same as eating the pseudochocolate cake dessert on your Hungry-Man TV dinner BEFORE you eat the dinner! It's an outrage! EVERYONE and I mean EVERYONE knows you save the dessert till last!?...WHAT's wrong with you people? Next thing you know there will be teenage pregnancy, gambling, and we won't be able to leave our doors unlocked at night and THEN we'll really be in trouble!?... Ok, I digress - Well that is all for now I guess, keep checking the web for FUBAR News Updates and of course your mailbox in case I decide to actually send you something again!? Whichever you choose to do or not to do I'm sure I'll be putting the FUBARchives Vol. II together after the next decade or so, so if you miss something I'll get it to you eventually. Next time though, I'll try and go for the books on tape feel or CD or the brain implant chip or whatever the new hot media is then!?... So until then why not kill some time by going to the beginning and actually reading this thing. I should hope you know how to read don't you? - If not it's easy -Top to bottom, left to right. Group words together to form sentences. Take Tylenol for any headaches, Midol for any cramps!.... Ok, got my Tommy Boy reference in, I can go now. Enjoy and thanks for giving me the material to work with...

Sincerely,

Oh, almost forgot, Appendices i-iii contain a whole mess of previously unreleased material. I hope you find all that stuff as enjoyable as this was!?...

Softball's history

ver wonder how softball got its start? Believe it or not, the game was born in a Minneapolis firehouse.

A fire fighter named Lewis

ers could play indoors.

A large handmade ball made it possible to play inside because this type of ball wouldn't travel as far as a baseball. The shorter distance between the pitcher and batter was thought to be an unfair advantage for the pitcher, so the pitcher was required to throw underhand. The batters used lighter, thinner bats so they wouldn't be able to hit as far. Later, softball was moved outdoors.

Today, more than 15 million men, women and children play softball. The rules for softball are basically the same as baseball, except softball is limited to seven innings. Extra innings are added if there is a tie.

Many people enjoy playing softball. Several countries, including the United States, compete in annual, amateur world championships.

Most important, it's a great game that the whole family can play.

Audio, Video and the Internet – where will it end?...

Upon my return to the United States in 1999, I began learning how to build and design web-pages in my spare time. It was after I learned these skills that I built the first FUBAR News Corporation Interactive CD-Rom and Web-page. This CD format would be created and sent to FUBAR's (at no cost I might add) and was distributed quarterly. There were four volumes of these CD's created until the FNC finally decided to go on the World Wide Web. The FUBAR News Corporation would then go on to build and maintain the following websites with the current titles and web addresses. (web-site addresses were correct at time of printing)

"THE DAWN OF A NEW ERA IN COMPUTER TECHNOLOGY..."

Hello FUBARians and welcome to the first installment of the FUBAR Interactive CD-ROM/Web-Page. I have decided to go with a computer CD-ROM instead of the traditional paper newsletter format because it provides a bit more versatility for content and design and hey, it's just pretty freakin' sweet too. Anyway, this puppy took a bit of blood and sweat to get accomplished and I think Dawn can attest to some of the shortcomings of earlier "trial" efforts, but I think you'll be very pleased with the end result?... (I think I know what it's like to be an engineer now - well without all the math and stuff...oh ok, I'm just talking crap now...anyway...) There were a select few who were allowed a sneak preview of the CD-ROM in its first-run "raw edit" format in November. The preliminary critiques were very positive and I feel I've "upped the ante" that much more in later edits to provide them and you with an even better product than that previewed. Thus we have the CD-ROM you now have in your grubby little hands. The first edition of The FUBAR Interactive CD-ROM/Web-Page. This CD-ROM will hopefully be the first of a quarterly CD-ROM I send to you (provided I can continue to afford it! (2) But hey, they may not be as flashy next time around, but I wanted the first to be remembered. The content hopefully though will continue to be at that "FUBAR" level.

I would like to take a moment here to acknowledge Jeff "Ole #7" Engel for his contribution (he has billing as well on the CD) to the project. He was "in the trenches" with me on many occasions watching this project come to fruition as well as offering insight where applicable like, "dude, that looks like s!" I must also thank him for his perseverance in acquiring the video clips from the FUBAR 1994 Appetite for Destruction Video (that was a nightmare, trust us! – hardware dilemma.) I would also like to thank once again all of you as without you there wouldn't have been the content for this CD-ROM in the first place.

Consider this your holiday greeting and present from myself and Dawn (as she had to suffer isolation whilst I was working on this thing!) Hope you all have a great holiday and a Happy New Year.

Once again, this has been your faithful reporter bringing you the best and only source for FUBAR World Events. So, until next time ... Insert the CD-ROM, select the "readme" file, read and follow the instructions...

Hey Gang, just a quick note to accompany the CD-ROM/WEB-Page. Hope all is well and this CD finds you in good shape. This puppy is chock full of wholesome goodness once again and we agree you'll find it quite pleasing!? (Whatever that freakin' means?) So anyway, Fhad to write this note to add one small detail about this CD. There are 10 tracks on it with music, but when you put this bad boy in your CD Player (TRUST ME, the CD-ROM will explain so PUT IT IN YOUR COMPUTER FIRST!) you will have to skip to track two. Track one is just the data bundle that is the CD/ROM portion and if you don't skip to track two you will listen to approx. 11 min. of dead air — but hey if that's your gig, have fun there buddy!? Well, enjoy this masterpiece and we'll see you next quarter.

Well hello my fellow FUBARians. Once again the FNC felt it was necessary to accompany the FUBAR Interactive CD-ROM/Web-Page with a letter. The reason for this you ask? Well, in our quest for glory, we forgot one small step... We forgot to hook up the doll!?... That's right, even the superior craftsmanship of the FUBAR Multimedia Dept. can overlook a minor item or two. So the usually infallible FUBAR News Corporation is forced to publish this "small" amendment to the FNC Interactive CD-ROM/Web-Page Volume IV.

So what's the big notice? Well here's the quick story. In our attempt to provide you with unsurpassed quality, we ran into a small glitch in the FUBAR Programming Dept. trying to incorporate the www.fubarho.lwarp.com FUBAR web presence into the Interactive CD-ROM/Web-Page Volume IV. After a few hours one of our little "monkey-boy" computer nerds figured it out (Thx GORDO) and FNC was ready to publish as the remainder of the program was already BETA tested and found stable. Somewhere in this process, the STUFF section had acquired a small programming error, which would not allow users to access the programs via the CD-ROM/Web-Page Interface. Unfortunately this glitch was found after.new.gitch.com/web-Page Interface. Unfortunately this glitch was found after.new.gitch.com/web-Page Interface. Unfortunately this glitch was found after.new.gitch.com/web-Page Interface. Unfortunately this glitch was found after.new.gitch.com/web-Page Interface. Unfortunately this glitch was found <a href

So what does all this mean? Well just this folks; you have to do the following to access the programs in the STUFF section of your CD-ROM/Web-Page.

AFTER The CD has completed its AUTORUN sequence, do the following -

- 1. Close the program using the "X" icon in the upper right corner of the screen.
- 2. <Double click> the "MY COMPUTER" icon on the desk-top
- 3. <Right-Click> the cursor on the CD drive containing the FNC CD-ROM
- 4. Select the "EXPLORE" option from the menu
- 5. In the new explore window which lists the contents of the FNC CD-ROM, select the folder named "STUFF"
- 6. < Double click> on the program or program folder you want to use.
- 7. Use the program.

Ok, there you have it, sorry for the inconvenience, but hey, like we've said before. You don't like go buy something else next time!?.... Uh, ok then moving on... Until next quarter, you're always faithful and dedicated staff here at FNC wish to bid you a fond farewell.

Talk later
